ORION

43rd Wedding Anniversary Honor Mr. and Mrs. B. Weeks.

(Intended for last week)

A surprise afternoon dinner party and evening reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weeks, Orion, on Sunday, the occasion being the 43rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weeks Sr. of Hillsburgh.

The tables were beautifully decorated, centred by a three tiered wedding cake, with a fourth layer on the side, both topped with sweetheart roses to match the carriage worn by Mrs. Weeks.

Sweetheart roses and white candles decorated the long table. White mums and spring flowers added much color to the setting. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Weeks Jr.

Further joy was expressed by the cables forwarded by Charis Rowe of Brighton, England, and Mr. and Mrs. Alec Ferguson from the liner, "Empress of Britain."

Mrs. Bert Grieve presented them with a white anniversary album in which 137 names were listed. Mrs. Wallace Harbour, organist of St. Andrew's church, presented on behalf of the choir a unique brooch and tie pin.

Following the very delectable dinner, the wedding cake and wine were passed around and the health of the bride and groom toasted by Alfred Le Reverend, Bert and Dorothy Weeks and Harold Le Reverend. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks both responded, expressing gratitude to their family, grandchildren, relatives and friends who so highly honored them.

The attendants at the dinner and reception were Mesdames Flora Grieve, Nellie Le Reverend, Mildred Bromley, Lyda McLachlin, Ivydell McLachlin, Isabelle McFee and Donna Weeks. Miss Carol Weeks presented each of her grandparents with a gift.

Visiting Mrs. A. E. Hooper of Beeton spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hooper and family.

Visitors this week with Rev. Ewart Culley were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mouser and son, Corbett of Whitney, England. Mrs. Mouser is a cousin of the late Mrs. Culley and they have been touring the United States to Victoria, B.C., and across Canada. Mr. Mouser has a

Special Service, Program Mark Church Anniversary

Guest speaker at the Anniversary services of Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday was Rev. Wilson of Hillsburgh, who brought two inspiring messages.

The junior choir with Mrs. G. Sunter at the organ sang two numbers.

The choir of twenty young folks drew favorable comment for their excellence of song and harmony. Soloists

Mrs. Byron Bruce was soloist in the morning with her rendition of "Come Ye Blessed", in the evening Clive Beardwood was heard singing "O Lord most holy". Both were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Gordon Aitken.

Several former members were present at the service. The anniversary is being concluded with the annual Garden Party later in the week.

Honor Couple Mr. and Mrs. E. Fisher were entertained at a family dinner on Friday in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Guests were the immediate family Mr. and Mrs. Fred Archibald, Stephen and Laurie, Jerry Fisher and Ria de Jong.

In the evening former neighbors of the First Line gathered at a surprise party. During the weekend, open house was held, when friends called to offer good wishes.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Struthers of Erin visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bruce and family and with Mrs. T. Fines and Doris. Mrs. Anne McKinnon, Guelph, spent Sunday with her new law and family. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken.

Religion Badges, Certificates Received by Five Acton Scouts

Scouts of the first Acton 'A' Troop continued their climb in the achievement field when five of their members received their Religion Life Awards during the morning service at St. Alban's Anglican Church on Sunday, June 29.

Of the five scouts present to receive awards, four of them, troop leader Peter Newton, assistant scout master Lawrence Daby, patrol leaders Bob Hinton and Ricky Currie, received their Queen's Scout badges recently. Also receiving his special badge at the church service was John Leatherland.

Two other members of the troop unable to attend the church service, George Ware and Brian Sprouton, will receive their badge at a later date.

Rev. H. B. Stankoff, rector of the church of which the scouts are members, awarded the scouts with their badges, and certificates after the choir had entered the church and lessons had been read by Peter Newton and Lawrence Daby.

The Religion and Life award is presented to all scouts of any faith who pass examinations set by their pastor following special religious instruction.

ROCKWOOD

Sun Dial to Mark Church Rock Garden

Albert Beard has been busy constructing a sun dial at the flower gardens at St. John's church. When completed, the sun dial will be located at the front of the flower gardens.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McNabb on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary which they celebrated on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Milne, Eden Mills.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lambert of Sarnia on the birth of a son, Peter Norman, on Friday.

In connection with the forthcoming Rockwood Community Vacation Church School to be held August 10 to 14, to be held in the United and Presbyterian churches, registration was held last week with Mrs. Stanley Harris in charge. Boys and girls, ages 4 to 14 years, were enrolled.

Many Swimmers As a result of the hot weather over the weekend, Horton's mill dam was well patronized by young people. The heavy rain of Saturday afternoon was very welcome, giving vegetation a much needed lift as a result of the hot, dry weather during the past few weeks.

The bowling green is a busy place during the evenings. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Winlow of Wexford spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. George Day and family. Mr. Winlow is a former manager of the Royal Bank.

School closed last Friday for the summer holidays. Those who have been writing examinations at Guelph Collegiate Vocational Institute have been enjoying the start of the holiday season.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. B. Moore and family leave this Tuesday for a month's vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Hewat of Simcoe were visitors in the village on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McLaren of Guelph spent the weekend with the former's mother, Mrs. Rose McLaren.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kerwin and Mrs. Alice Phillips of Sarnia, Mich., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne. Also visiting was Mrs. Bill Craig of Toronto for three days last week.

Pass Dancing Exams Sandra and Carolyn McEwan were successful in passing their British medals exams for Highland Dancing.

Sandra received highly commended for her bronze and silver medal and commended for her gold medal.

Carolyn received commended for her bronze medal, pass for her silver and pass for gold medal. Miss Sadie Simpson of Scotland was the examiner.

Recent visitors with Mrs. M. Jackson included Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sharpe, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Watson, Hillsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Angus, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilcox, Woodbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stanley, Campbellville; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jestin and daughters, Everton; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Millson and children, Rockwood; Mr. Paul Donaldson, Waldemar; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wheeler, Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Watson and children, Orion.

Shannon Bessey left on Friday for a lodge on Lake Rosseau, where she has employment for the summer holidays.

Lorna Bessey and Jerry Fisher have both obtained office work with Guelph businesses.

Local teachers are home on the holidays—Joyce Robertson from Deep River, Ont.; Joanne Smith from Dunnville and Shirley Arley from Hopedale near Strathroy.

Juan Aitken, who is at Elgin House, Lake of Bays, was home for a few days holiday.

The annual school picnic was held at the school grounds with a good turnout of mothers and pre-school age children. A full program of races and contests was conducted by the teachers Mrs. N. Rathbun and Mrs. M. Jackson. Rain forced the crowd inside for the serving of a beautiful lunch topped off with ice cream.
