OBITUARY

Mrs. G. Moore Buried in Lucknow Cemetery

A kind and cheery woman, Mrs. Gordon Moore, who died as a result of a train accident, was borne to rest Saturday, July 25, as her many friends and neighbors gathered to pay their respects during the funeral service at the Rumley-Shoemaker Funeral Home.

The former Lillian Annetta Bell, Mrs. Moore was born in Belgrave (near Wingham) in 1894 and after her marriage lived in Rockwood and Lucknow before moving to Acton, where her husband, Gordon Moore, worked as a C.N.R. section foreman until his retirement in 1957.

After Mr. Moore's retirement the couple built an attractive home about one and a half miles west of Acton, where Mrs. Moore enjoyed her garden and flowers.

Well known in the community and surrounding areas where she often visited to play bingo, Mrs. Moore will not only be missed by her family but many friends, who came to know her kindness.

Beside her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss one son, Alvin, Acton and three daughters, Helen (Mrs. R. Peardon), of Georgetown, Muriel (Mrs. J. Fields) of Oakville and Eileen (Mrs. C. Collins), of Georgetown.

Palibergers were Jack Fields, Clare Collins, Robert Peardon, Harold Cook, Robert Purdon and Charlie Finley.

Interment was in Greenhill Cemetery, Lucknow.

MOFFAT

Many at Wedding Followed by Dance

The Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday when Miss Donna McMillan became the bride of Mr. Thomas Mames of R.R. No. 1, Acton.

The Ladies' Aid of the Church served a hot turkey supper to 110 guests.

A dance was held in Brookville Hall when a crowd of friends and neighbors attended and all wish the bride and groom the best of luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Carnahan and family have left for their home in Manitoba after spending a month visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson have left for a month's holiday in the West where they will visit their son and family in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Britton of Indian River visited relatives and friends during the weekend.

Mrs. Florence Robinson, Guelph, has been spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don McMillan.

MR. AND MRS. Melvin Walter Gowan were married in St. Thomas in a marriage of local interest. The bride is the former Sophia Adeline Moore of Port Stanley.

Wedding of Local Interest Solemnized at St. Thomas

A pretty wedding of late June was that which was solemnized at Broderick Memorial Baptist Church, St. Thomas, by Rev. Egan Von Keitz, pastor of Queensway Baptist Church, Brantford, amid a setting of red roses, deep rose peonies and orange blossoms.

The ceremony united in marriage Sophia Adeline, daughter of Mrs. Annie F. Moore, Port Stanley, and Melvin Walter Gowan, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gowan, R.R. 3, Dutton. Allan Harrington played traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Patricia Calloway.

Lace and Tulle The bride was given in marriage by her great uncle, Harvey Leslie, of Aylmer, and chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin.

The fitted bodice had a Sabrina neckline, embroidered with sequins and lily-point sleeves, while the bouffant skirt featured a ruffled back of tiers of the lace and tulle.

A crown of rhinestones held her fingertip veil of French illusion and she carried a white Bible, crested with red roses, with white streamers caught with tiny rosebuds.

Attendants Miss Fern Nagel, of Brantford, maid of honor, wore a halter-length dress of white nylon lace over taffeta, with a wide sash of pink taffeta, and a white nylon nosegay hat. Her flowers were a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses, edged with blue baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Ruth Gowan, Dutton, sister of the groom and Miss Dorothy Moffat, cousin of the bride, of Tillsonburg, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of blue nylon sheer over taffeta, featuring shirred bodices and full skirts. They wore white picture hats and carried pink sweetheart roses in nosegays edged with white baby chrysanthemums.

Laura Bugg of Port Stanley, in a pink nylon sheer dress, with headband of pink daisies and carrying a basket of pink roses and blue chrysanthemums, was flower girl.

Seymour Pattison, of Byron, was best man, and the groom's brother, Kenneth Gowan and Ralph Gowan, were ushers.

Reception at Home An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's mother and later a wedding supper was served to about 175 guests in the reception room of the Port Stanley Town Hall by the women teachers of the Port Stanley Public School Teaching Staff, of which the bride's mother is a member.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore wore a dress of dusty rose crepe with matching accessories. Her nosegay was of white carnations. The groom's mother chose a

50 Friends, Neighbors Honor Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chaplin

More than 50 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Burt to do honor to their daughter Shirley and her husband Harry Chaplin, on their recent marriage.

The evening was a beautifully warm one, so card tables were set under lights on the lawn and a game of progressive euchre was enjoyed. Mr. Ben Case and Mr. John Van Der Meer won prizes for the men and Mrs. Harry Scott and Mrs. Burt were winners for the ladies.

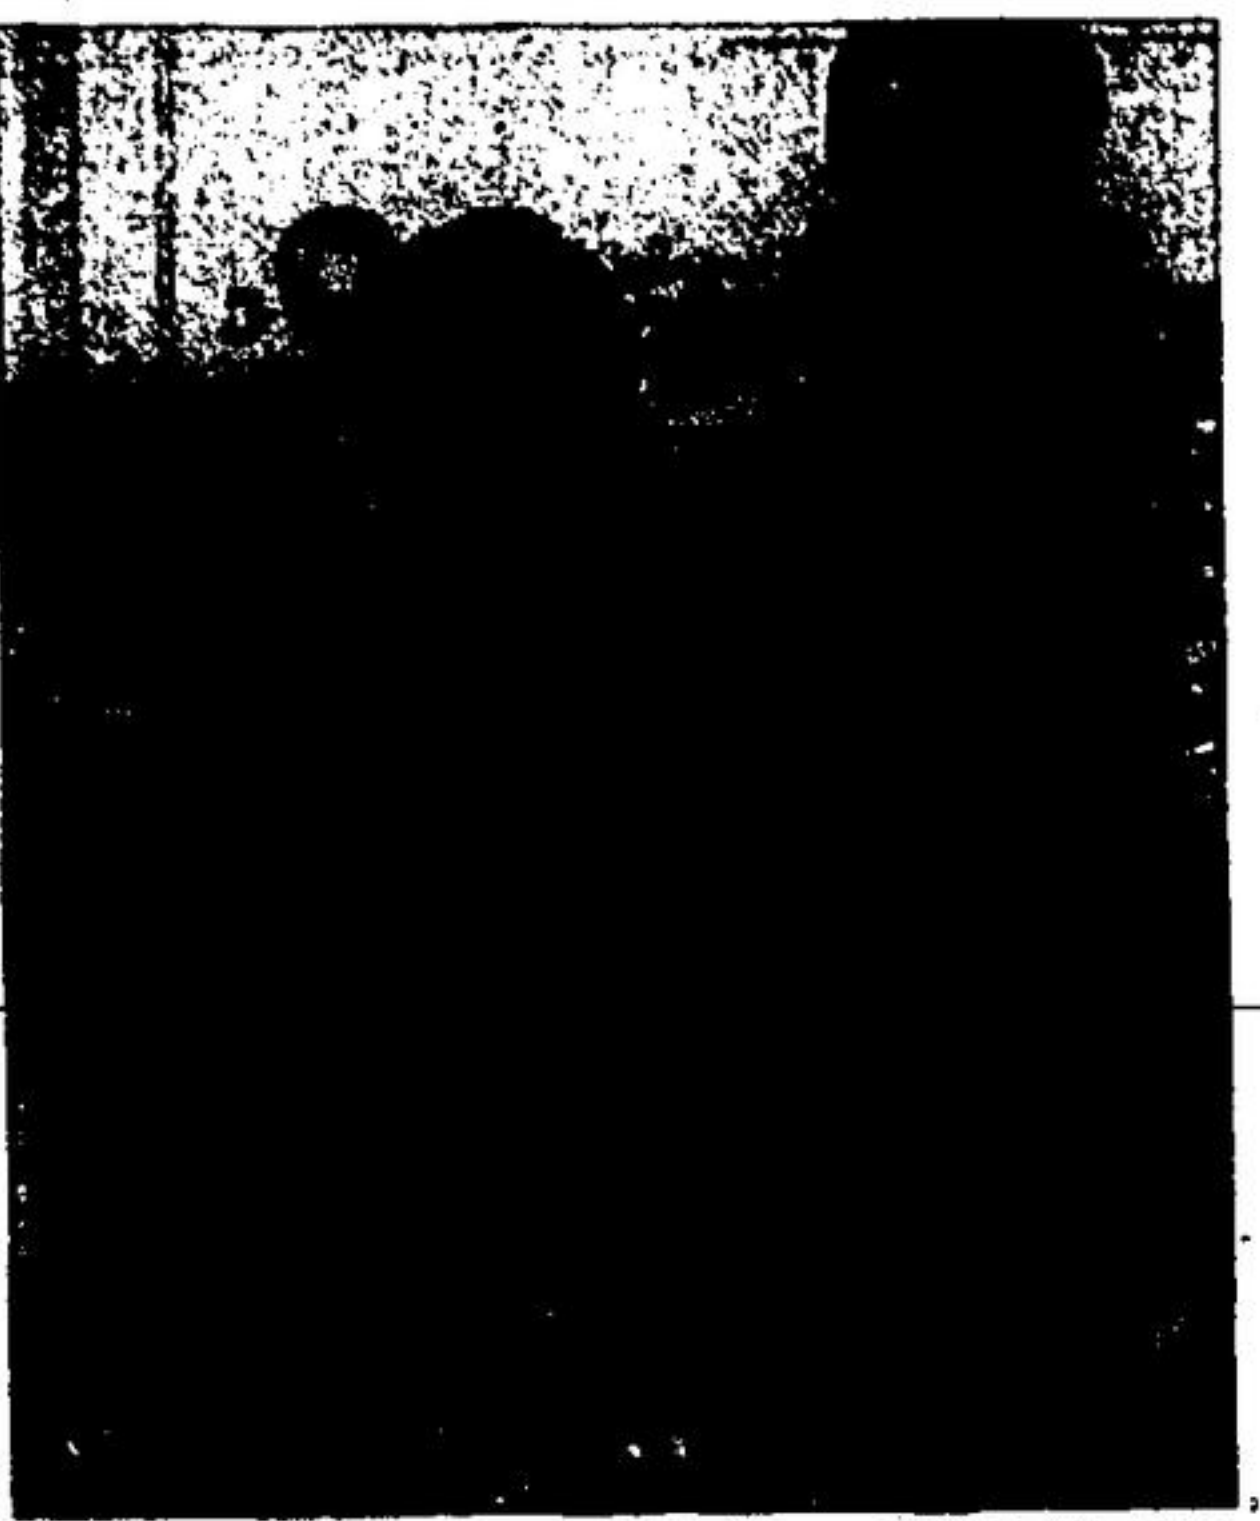

The bridal couple were called forward and presented with a chair by Mrs. Donald Lipday on behalf of those present and Mrs. W. R. Norton gave them a gift from the members of Silverwood W.I. Suitable replies were made by Mr. and Mrs. Chaplin.

A social cup of tea ended the pleasant evening.

Mrs. Foster and Mr. Tush Foster of Toronto were recent visitors with the George Burts.
