Fresh from Press

The second section of this week's Free Press had just started coming off the big press Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 when a familiar face appeared at the door. It was Eddie J. Moore of Washington D.C., whose father H. P. Moore was editor of the Free Press for many years.

Stepping into familiar surroundings, he was surprised and delighted to see his father's picture being published this week on the front page of the section section, in connection with the move of the Free Press to the Baxter Lab building.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore holiday in northern Ontario and drop in to visit friends in Acton each summer. They keep in touch with editor G. A. Dills by letter.

After smelling the printer's ink he used to know so well, he and Mrs. Moore left the shop with the first copy of the second section still damp from the press. They took it with them when they visited Mr. and Mrs. Dills Saturday.

Mrs. Lamb of Milton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richards; Mrs. Mark McMurray; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Toronto; Mrs. John Rutherford; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wallace; Bob, Jack, Patry, Lynn and Beth of Bolton; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dalton of Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. C. Cunningham of Milton and Mr. and Mrs. R. Neelkin of Guelph visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Steele recently.

Reginald Dubois and Ernest Prouty, both 18, whose home addresses were not disclosed, had earlier pleaded guilty to four charges of breaking and entry of cottages and one charge of theft. On the breaking, entry charges terms of 12 months definite and six months indefinite were imposed and for theft three months. All terms were made concurrent which means they will serve the longer term only.
