Two Teachers Married In Guelph on Saturday

A wedding of much interest in Guelph took place in Georh on Saturday afternoon. August 15, when two public school teachers were married. The bride was Miss Ora Carson, a public school teacher in Acton, and the groom was Mr. Douglas Copeland, a public school teacher in Guelph. The ceremony was held in the St. Paul's United Church, Georh, and was officiated by the Rev. Gordon Nodwell, Victoria Harbor. The bride wore a white gown and the groom wore a dark suit. The wedding party included Miss Joan Haws, a cousin of the bride, as the bridesmaid, and Mr. John Haws, a cousin of the groom, as the best man. The reception followed in the church, where friends and relatives gathered to celebrate the occasion.

Silk and Lace
The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, G. E. Miller. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and pure silk organza. The silk organza neckline was highlighted by iridescent paillettes. The bodice of Chantilly lace had a shirred cummerbund of silk organza ending in a bow at the back. The long sleeves were pointed over her wrists. The bodice skirt of silk organza ended in a full flowing chapel train.
Her gown of tiny seed pearls and multi-colored pastel paillettes to match those of the gown had an elbow length veil of silk. Her train was a wide border of Chantilly lace. Her pearl necklace and earrings were of the same gown.
She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses with white carnations and stephanotis.
Five Attendants
The matron of honor was Miss Jessie Galloway, a member of the Acton High School staff and a friend of the bride. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Murray Gagnon, sister of the groom, and Miss Joan Haws, a cousin of the bride. They were given a gift in aqua.

County Debates Farm Purchase Eight Acres Planned for Park

The possibility of County Council purchasing a farm as a park site was discussed at a meeting of the County Council on Tuesday. The purchase of an eight-acre farm in the area of the County Council office was discussed. The purchase of the farm would cost $20,000 and would be used as a park. The purchase of the farm would be a major step in the development of the area. The purchase of the farm would be a major step in the development of the area. Ora Carson Honored At Trousseau Tea

Mrs. G. E. Miller, Georh, entertained at a trousseau tea in honor of her daughter, Miss Ora Carson, who married Douglas Copeland last Saturday. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. Miller and was attended by many friends and relatives. The tea was a beautiful affair, decorated with pink and white gladioli. In the afternoon, Mrs. R. Brundie, grandmother of the bride and Mrs. Horace Haws, aunt of the bride, poured tea. In the evening, Mrs. Wallace Nodwell presided at the tea.

Off to Germany Yvonne Brunelle Leaves City To Teach at Air Force Base

What a pretty school teacher! Miss Yvonne Brunelle will be teaching in the same fundamental of reading, writing and arithmetic this September. She will be in a completely different setting. For the past few years she has been on the staff of the public school in Toronto. This fall, when the term starts, she will be at a desk at a Royal Canadian Air Force base at Baden Baden, Germany. Miss Brunelle will be on the school staff there for two years. Her pupils will be the children of Canadian Air Force personnel, and all the arrangements for her new job were made through the Air Force here.

She will be being right on the case, and thinks she will likely be teaching a full year. Canadian teachers regularly leave to teach in Europe, and this year Miss Brunelle is accompanied with some who are going like herself. None will be at the same base as she is, however. After finishing public and high school in Acton, she went to the Teachers' College in Toronto, graduating in 1953. She is now in town with relatives preparing for her long stay abroad. She sails on August 27, next Thursday, from Montreal on a Greek Line ship, Arcadia. She has learned some facts about Baden Baden, Germany. Baden Baden is a popular resort for the well-to-do. It is situated in the Black Forest in the south of the state. It features hot springs and well-preserved castles.
