

Council Agree to By-law To Curb Air Pollution

 adopted a by-law for air pollution, only smoke.

Mr. Greer enquired if council would be justified in doing this (proposing by-law) for only 137 names (which appeared on a recent petition asking council to prepare a by-law) and suggested perhaps council should have a better cross-section of the town as the entire town would be represented by a by-law.

After several comments it was suggested that it would not necessarily mean the by-law had to be enforced. Councillor Hargrave asked "What is the use of a by-law if we don't enforce it?" He was told by councillor W. McLeod it was for the protection of the town.

Deputy - Reeve Greer informed council that it might be disastrous if it did force the plant in question to shut down and suggested it was not the purpose to do so but to possibly speed up any action to curb the odor.

Reeve Greer reminded council it was rather difficult to get out of their minds the fact that the by-law was directly aimed at one industry but emphasized that it offered relief to a large range as he could think of two or three others it might affect.

The reeve also reminded the council they would be foolish to prosecute in the event any offender was attempting to remedy the situation.

On Thursday last week, the Yankees took the Churchill team to camp at Len Vary's pitched his team mates to victory. The only two runs in the first inning were received by the losers on two hits early in the game with the winners collecting nine in the top inning and two more in the bottom.

Last Game
 A sudden death game on Tuesday evening saw the Yankees win the pennant after the Churchill team took an early morning lead. Len Vary on the mound for the Yankees pitched steady ball and held the batter to a minimum of hits.

The Churchill lads gathered four runs in the top of the first inning. The Yankees attempted to overcome the four runs lead when they hit a fly with only a retaliation of two runs in their half.

The Churchill boys determined to overcome the one-game lead taken by their opposition on Thursday racked up one more run in the second inning, making the score 5-2.

Coming back stronger than ever the Yankees scored six times in the bottom of the second inning to pass the leaders making the tally 5-8.

Churchill led the game up with three runs in the top of the third and the game was touch and go until the Yankees squeezed a run across home plate in the bottom of the third to win the game and championship.

Halton Dairy Princess Defeated

Mary Lou had them worried for a while at least. Perky and pretty Mary Lou Taylor, Burlington, 15-year-old, contribution to the Halton Dairy Princess contest Saturday night in Exeter, Ontario. Although she didn't bring the Ontario Dairy Queen crown back to Halton, all observers and the column gallery was half full of Halton ladies were of the opinion that Mary Lou did an outstanding job in carrying the County banner.

If it were not for the large crowd Saturday and Tuesday evening, and went through her pages in an effortless manner that won her support from many outsiders sitting on the show.

For bearing out four other contestants in Saturday's preliminary, the Appleby Lane beauty received a bronze medal, $25, and a silver Maple Leaf brush set with rhinestones. Had she won the Wednesday night final, she would have received a plate trip to the United Kingdom and a prize purchased calf.

The competition had many aspects of judging. She was judged on her looks and personality on a speech she gave about Halton County's Dairy industry, on an interview with the judges, her ability to prepare and clean the equipment and of course, her milking ability.

Mary Lou's speech about Halton was a good one. She told about the county's situation in the Golden Days of Ontario, and how, despite moves to urbanize the farm land, Halton is still continuing to add many contributions to agriculture and is in the foreground in all fields of endeavor.

Georgetown Council Considers Ward Vote
 Ward voting abandoned several years ago in Georgetown in favour of section by general vote, was subject for a discussion at Monday's council meeting.

"They say the town is growing rapidly," said a councillor. "If one section of town were to elect a councillor, it would be a good idea to have a councillor from that section. It would be a good idea to have a councillor from that section. It would be a good idea to have a councillor from that section."

At the same time I did not mean to imply that a councillor should be elected just to look after one part of town. Mr. Hyde continued. "He should have a long view even. He should represent the spirit of the area."

No Personal Views
 While favouring a plan to have a councillor from each section, Mr. Hyde said he had no personal views on the matter. "I am not a councillor," he said. "I am only a citizen of the town. I am only a citizen of the town. I am only a citizen of the town."

Oakville Ties Up Series In Minor Sports Baseball

Next Sunday afternoon will decide the winner in the Minor League baseball in the Minor Sports Baseball in the Oakville and St. Thomas teams have evened up the series with one game apiece.

St. Thomas took a one-game lead in the playoffs on Tuesday evening, September 8, when a seven-man crew downed the Oakville lads 5-3.

Short-handed but game, the St. Thomas boys never gave up trying from the opening pitch. Headed by Eddie Massey, ace hurler, they led the score in the first inning after the Oakville team had taken a one-run lead.

The losers kept two ahead in the third inning but St. Thomas came back in the bottom half and racked up four runs in a scoring rally and held their opposition at bay throughout the balance of the game.

Buddy Turkum, handling the pitching duties for the Oakville team, turned in an excellent performance but was lagged for three more hits than Massey.

Oakville's St. Thomas's Oakville evened up the series last Monday morning at the park when they eked out a 5-4 win over the league leading St. Thomas boys.

Chieved by a small crowd of supporters, boys on both teams were keyed up and played heads up in an effort to either tie up the series or finalize the championship.

Both teams were well balanced and victory could have gone to either team.

BOOM!
 The Ontario Safety League warns drivers that many so-called "military" cans of gasoline give off dangerous fumes when stored in car trunks. Many such cans are not made for the high temperatures and blocked spaces of a luggage compartment. Several cases of explosions have been reported from police cars equipped with two-way radio, when a spark from a transceiver has set off fumes from a gasoline can stored in the trunk.
