Visit C.N.E.

The annual bus trip in the Canadian National Exhibition was sponsored by the Acton Women's Institute on Wednesday, September 9th. 35 ladies, some from Dublin W.I. and a few friends, enjoyed the day despite the heat. Several places were found where they could cool and comfortable as well as being entertained.

Rev. Jelle Nutma Arrives in Acton

Born in the Netherlands, the Rev. Jelle Nutma, recent graduate of Calvin College in Michigan, arrived in Acton last week and will take the first charge of the Christian Reformed Church here.

Midway Rides Ready to Roll

Anticipation of a carnival has been apparent at the park all week. After operating for a few days last Saturday, the midway is now ready to take over its duties for the day.

Mr. Nutma, his wife and children have settled in the parsonage and the Sunday will mark the ordination of the new minister at the Acton church.

Alarmed if Tannery Closes Writer Claims Not Utopia

Acton, Ont. September 11, 1959. To what it may concern. Yes, Acton needs an industrial base. It needs many more things than it has. For many reasons, including lack of money, space, and the need of the land.

Keen sense of smell. I have lived in this area for about 12 years. I stayed here because I could make a good living and yet get a decent living from a landlord.
