

A DAY AT THE FAIR means little to the tiny tot, without a ride on the ponies but in this case, Billy Clarridge takes a turn on a donkey. With Billy holding the donkey in tow is Alan Hall of Acton. Many children enjoyed the pony rides and kept Mr. Hindley, the owner of the concession, busy throughout the day. The donkey took the excitement of the children in his stride and marched around the enclosure quite unconcerned.

LUCKY WINNERS at the Acton Fair on Saturday are pictured above holding their prize money contained in envelopes. Left to right are Janet Glendenning, third in the best tricycle class; the tricycle entered by Susan Lawrence which won first but Susan was camera shy and high tailed it through the midway. Joanne Wasowicz, second in the doll buggy class, Elizabeth Hurst, first and Teddy Saitz, second in the tricycle class.

"One thing," that Mrs. Dills was saying had to make was to aid other people who are lonely, as much as she can. She now devotes many evenings a week to visiting organizations where old people live. We can touch their lives," she continued. They actually get a kick out of being lonely. Many of them, and often grand-children, was never so near them.
