

Anniversary Service Held Bible Society Plans Activity

Anniversary services on Sunday were largely attended at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. C. M. Lewis of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Kitchener, was guest minister for the day. Special music by the choir was enjoyed.

At the morning service, Misses Donna and Marilyn Kingsbury of the United church contributed a vocal number, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings". Autumn flowers adorned the front of the platform and added dignity to the day's services.

Rev. G. A. B. Moore was at Speedside United church Sunday for anniversary services. Rev. Mr. Newham conducted service at the United church Sunday morning.

Monday evening the executive committee of Rockwood and Everton Bible Society met in the Sunday School room of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Charles H. Harris conducted a brief devotional period, with Mr. J. Birch leading in prayer. Ross Gordon, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Considerable discussion was indulged in regarding society activities. Books for the fall canvass were handed out to be distributed.

There was a fair representation of community churches present, as Disciples Church, Everton, Stone Church, fourth line United Church and the Presbyterian church, Rockwood. At the conclusion of the meeting Rev. G. A. B. Moore led in prayer.

Miss Pearl Hamilton, treasurer of the Bible Society, gave a financial report.

Among those present at anniversary services Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Mary Reid and friend John Garbutt, Nurval, Mrs. Thomas Matthy of Pseudich, Mrs. M. Reid was a former teacher in Rockwood public school.
