

Rollin' Down the Alleys

WITH KEN HULFORD

Boardroom

September 28: With high average men, Bob Agency sitting on the sidelines nursing a broken bowling flipper, Cusole failed to dint the win column against the Chrome. The three game win put the Chrome in top spot. The top fearsome foursome for Chrome were Jeff Fryer 705, Ed Phillips 686, Jim Lillie 653 and Ben Rody 608. Al Roach's 666 might have been a winning hand in a poker game but being the only tricornet of any account for Cusole, it failed to get results.

win number two. Saws kept sawing away in the tried to make with a win and averted a shut-out. Martin Oehrich was sharp for the Knives with a 687 tricornet. Beryl Jordan marked in a 208 single for the Knives' cause. Shirley Moore worked hard for the Saws, posting a 608 triple. Joanne Duval came up with a 231 single to round out the Saws' play. The two and total win put the Knives in first place.

Motors wheeled off with the first two games but the Benonites stepped into the win column by latching onto the final game. Making with the singles for Prouse Motors were Nan Hurst 228, Elate Swirk 211-208, and Ruth Hulford 204-223. In the role for Benson's were Joan McCallum 263 and Bea Anderson 223.

Acton Major

October 1: Nicol's Tiger Cats wrestled first place from Dominion Hotel via the two and totals route. The Cats tried to make it a clean sweep but the Hotel crew snared the last game by 14 pins. The Cats had their bowling arms in shape for this one - Mike Bennett 705, Norm Morton 677, Ken Hulford 630, Bill Williams 433 double and Don Green 473 likewise. Leo McGiloway 736 and Fred Kenner 680 were falling the pins down for Dominion.

Flyers Fly High

Ken Rigo, minus the facial hair, was zooming for Casarin Flyers with 745 (320). This, along with Harry Lawson's 691 and Mario Casarin's 682, damped down the Firemen with many a win. Firemen have as yet failed to hit the win column and captain Pat Walde is wondering what ails his crew. Pat himself turned in a 620 effort on the night's bowling. With Jeff Fryer 717 (307), Wayne Spire 694 and Ralph Burton 627, Acton Billiards racked up a three game win from the Ten Pros who, despite scores of Phil LeShure 692, Hank Earle 685 and Paul Lawson 494 double, saw the hopes of picking up a few points go aglimmering.

League standing: Nicol's Tiger Cats 16, Casarin Flyers 15, Dominion Hotel 14, Acton Billiards 14, Ten Pro 4, Firemen 0.

Acton Friends

October 1: With the Acton Friends, it was a two and totals night down the line with Wash Outs washing out the Bluffers, Phantoms making the Happy Seven unhappy and Turfies turning the tables on Debatables.

In the Bluffers - Wash Out, an Ed Ryan stood out with a 673 triple for Wash Outs with a single of 202 from Jack McCutcheon being Bluffers' best. Phantoms' Lila Atkinson's 212 single was tops in the Happy Seven - Phantom affair and in the Turfies - Debatables match, Had Deform's 622 triple, Glenn Banks' 205 single for Turfies and Wig Storey's 244 single and Alice Sidy's 202 likewise topped the scoring for the Debatables.

Acton Ladies

September 30: Looks as if "gasoline alley" is ruling the roost at present. Prouse Motors and McCallum Services are both perched on the top rung of the ladder. The McCallum Services got there by taking Lawson's over the jumps for a two and totals win. Serving them up for McCallum's were Marion Storey and Ina Melon with singles of 267 and 206. The two Pegs, Ballentine and Lawson, were pegging them in for Lawson's with singles of 230 and 217 respectively.

Prouse Motors Win

Benson's Shoes appeared to be in for a three game loss when Prouse

Upper Leather moved into the upper brackets when they got into the shut-out act by knocking the Beamhouse on their beam ends for a total loss. Uke Zajac 694, Bill Shannon 683, John Robson 620 and Sonny Townsley 611 made the wine easy for Upper Leather although Beamhouse made it close in the second - they dropped the decision by 20 pins. A little support to Gord Cunningham's 770 and Bill Buchanan's 640 might have put Beamhouse in the winning picture.

Rolling Room took things a little too easy in their first game against the Office Girls and the girls sneaked over a win. Unable to stand the jibes of their fellow leaguers, the Rollers settled down to business and wrapped up the second and third games along with the odd point for totals. Ed McGiloway and Hoc Lambert, with 686 and 631 tricornets, trotted off home with protruding chests. May-be now the "Girls" have latched onto a win, a few more victories will come their way.

Legion Ladies

September 28: Angels were gleefully flapping their wings around cloud eight after shutting out the Lazy Susans with nary a win. The three game win has the Angels leading the league parade. Some nice single efforts were trundled in this go by Phyl Angell 284, Doris Angell 266, Lois Gordon 210 and Marilyn Hiltz 203. Dot Earle popped up with a 202 solo for the Lazy Susans.

Frisky Belles rang the gong for three consecutive wins when they met up with the Threebees. Joyce Buchanan was the friskiest of the Belles with a 212 single. Ivy Martin with a 221 effort topped the single scores of the Threebees. A 597 triple from Dot Earle headed up the triple tries with Doris Angell in the second slot with 565.

Blue Springs Nursery

September 29: Violets wasted no time in winning games one and two from the Carnations and were all set to make it a clean sweep but the Carnays thought enough was enough and eked out a third game win by 11 pins. Beryl Constantine with singles of 217 and 215 paced the Violets, while Sharon Owens with a neat 238 in the last game for Carnations took the honors.

Take First Two Games

Mums were not mumbling to themselves when they tallied up the scores and found themselves the winners of the first two games against the Roses. In the third, came the revolution and Rose rose up and grabbed the win. Millie Stitt with 204 and Audrey Urquhart with 216 led the hit parade for Mums.

Asters showed plenty of early foot and got away to a fast start by making every game a winning one from Glads. A single of 214 from Carol Wallis, along with a 944 triple from Gayle Hulford, sparked the Aster win. Pauline McHugh for Glads came up with a good single of 250.

H. K. Porter

September 29: Saws and Knives were in a close tussle for the first game with Knives cutting in for the win by 18 pins. Knives also had the edge in the second, to make it

Teen-n-Under

October 3: The quiet and peaceful Saturday mornings are a thing of the past at the Bowling Lanes, the Teen-n-Under is in full swing. Raiders with a two and totals win from Blue Bombers took over first place. Junior Tiger Cats were a one and total winners from Eagles as were Comets from Golden Hawks.

Headpin Hilites

The Martin family, Ivy and Bob, almost made a clean sweep in the weekly awards. Bob ran up an 810 triple to win the Paul's Clothing Store award, while Ivy made off with the "Taps Cleaners" and Ledger's I.G.A. awards with a 742 triple which included a 310 single.

Ken Rigo's 320 single withstood all onslaughts to win the Gordon's Hardware award.

Picking up the Reinhardt's, Coca-Cola and Seven Up awards were Teeners Marg O'Rourke, Lorna Macpherson, Bobby Turkoz and Joe Duffield. Jim Pope lets it be known that while the ex-Avro-Orenda league is the nucleus for the seven o'clock Friday night league, new couples will gladly be accepted. Names can be left with the Lanes' management or show up personally Friday night. That winds it up for now, amigos. Adios.
