All the attendants wore street length gowns of emerald green shot taffeta with matching accessories and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Speaker Recaps Recent Visit To Conference

An imaginary trip to Scotland and other points in Europe was taken by members of the Friendly Circle group of the United church Wednesday evening when Mrs. G. Somerville, recent delegate from the Women's Institute to a conference in Scotland, recalled highlights of her visit.

Mrs. Somerville, a past president of the Halton District Women's Institute, attended the conference held by the Associated County Women of the World in Scotland recently. One of 14 delegates from Ontario, the guest speaker joined with 1,100 representatives from 30 other countries for the conference. Mrs. D. Bathwell thanked the guest for her most interesting talk and on behalf of the club presented her with a token of appreciation.

Devotions held Mrs. Bothwell took charge of the devotional period and read psalm 100. Miss M. Z. Bennett read a story of being thankful and led the group in prayer.

During the business session, in charge of vice-president Mrs. M. Nellis, it was decided to make a donation to assist the C.G.I.T. in furthering their important work. It was decided to attend a meeting with the ladies of the Christian Reformed church next month following the receiving of an invitation. At the conclusion of the business, the ladies enjoyed lunch and a social time.

Burlington Dries Win Four Liquor Questions

Burlington's "drys" forged defeated the "wets" in the town liquor vote yesterday (Wednesday) by defeating cocktail lounges and dining lounges in the whole town and brewers' warehouses and government liquor stores in the Aldershot area. A 60 per cent vote in favor was needed on each of the four questions.

C.W.L. Bazaar Successful Anniversary at Stone Church

The Catholic Women's League in connection with Rockwood and Oustic churches held a successful bazaar in St. John's church parish hall last Wednesday evening. Toward the close, preparations were made for draws. Mr. John Root of Orton, Mr. J. Oakes, township reeve and Rev. A. S. Callaghan spoke briefly.

Those who had tickets for draws secured some handsome prizes, while others did not fare so well. The hall was decorated for the occasion and numerous tables carried different lines of articles for sale.

The tea room did a thriving business. Hot dogs and pop were disposed of before long, by the young people who were present.

Anniversary services were held at the Stone church Sunday with no service in the United church here. Guest preachers were Rev. J. W. Oliver, a former pastor, for the morning service, and Rev. M. J. McLeod of Trinity church, Guelph, for the evening. A turkey supper was held Tuesday evening. At the Presbyterian church service Sunday morning, a few members of the United church were present.

Service at St. John's church Sunday afternoon was Laymen's Day. Rev. H. B. Stokroff had charge of the service and Dr. Anthony Kingscote of O.V.C., Guelph, gave the address. Mr. John Lloyd read the two Bible readings.

New Position Miss Mary Jolliffe, who has been publicly diverter in connection with the Stratford Shakespearean Festival since 1953, has joined the publicity and promotion staff of the new centre for performing arts now being built in Toronto. Miss Jolliffe will commence her new duties November 2.

Mr. Thomas Gellatley's new store is gradually taking shape. The flooring is nearly completed. Counters and shelves are in evidence for goods.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kingwell on the occasion of their recent wedding. Walter Gray was among those who scored high on the first day of the big plowing match at Dundas last week.

Mrs. R. McEnery Hostess to W.A. W.I. Quilt Draw Raises $112

Mrs. Robert McEnery was hostess for the October meeting of the W.I. on Wednesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Edmunds, presiding, the meeting opened with the theme song and all repeating the Creed and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Scripture study was taken by Mrs. Edmunds. Hymn 490 was sung and minutes were read and approved. Business followed the report of the treasurer. Plans were made for the turkey supper to be held for all young people in the community of Ballinfad, Churchville and Melville, in Ballinfad church basement of Friday at 6:30.

Other items of business were dealt with. Roll call was answered by 10 members and one visitor with a Thanksgiving verse on prayer. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. The program by Mrs. F. W. Shurtliff included a reading and a con-table and four chairs, also a glass rolling pin full of money. The W.I. presented Mrs. Wilson with a W.I. cup and saucer. After thanking all for the lovely gifts, the rest of the evening was spent in dancing.

Young People's meeting was held in the church on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sinclair, Brian and Katherine, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonnell on Sunday.

Snow Storm It looked as though winter was on its way on Sunday when the snow storm was on. The maple trees have put on a beautiful array of color. What is more beautiful than to see the maples at this time of year? It is worth while to take a drive to see them.

Tickets were drawn on a quilt October 13 at a meeting in Georgetown. The quilt was made and donated by Ballinfad Women's Institute in aid of the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital Women's Auxiliary Fund. Draw was made by Mrs. John Gurn, convener of ways and means committee. Mrs. Calvin Aitken, R. R. 3, Acton, held the lucky ticket. Proceeds amounted to $112.67.
