It was noted school neighbors had protested to council about the excessive street parking when the 525 members of the night class gather. Members arrived at no solution.

A letter from a teacher requesting permission for a National Defense overseas posting was to be referred to the new district board concerned.

Chairman M. M. Coles expressed the board's sympathy to trustee E. E. Forgrave on the loss of his wife recently and to trustee W. Coon on the death of a nephew in an automobile accident.

Trustee W. Coon voiced complaints on completing small jobs on the Acton high school addition. The secretary was to contact the architect that the board was concerned over completion details at both Acton and Georgetown and ask a report for the next meeting.

Accounts totaling $38,344.11 were approved for payment. The need to co-ordinate the introduction of home economics at Acton and shop at Georgetown was outlined by the secretary. At present, home ec pupils take the course in Georgetown and shop pupils take that course in Acton.

Mr. Homer McAvoy, final year student at Knox College, conducted the service at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday while Rev. Alex Calder was taking part in one hundredth anniversary services at a former charge near Norwich, Ont. Mr. McAvoy was guest of the A. A. Bentons while here.

We extend sympathy to Mr. S. Lindsay and family in the passing of Mrs. Lindsay following a long illness on Friday morning also to Miss Angus Lawson and family on the very sudden death of Mr. Lawson on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Meredith visited Mrs. Oscar Loecker on Sunday. Winners at a Hall Board raffle when ten tables were played on Saturday evening in Limehouse Memorial Hall were Mrs. Craig and Mr. Frank Robinson for firsts, and Mrs. W. T. Sinclair and Mr. Meldrum Stack for seconds. Mrs. Arthur Wilson sat on the lucky chair. Lunch was served at the close.

Funeral Monday. Funeral services were held at the Roman Catholic Church in Acton on Monday at 10:30 a.m. for the late Mrs. M. J. McEwen. Burial was in the Acton cemetery.

NEW JOBS. A survey of the nine Ontario and Quebec towns that have acquired new manufacturing industries shows that for each 100 new jobs, factories 117 others were created in the towns.

Choose Officers Board Advised (Continued from Page One) The new Georgetown high school auditorium, Georgetown Principal Lambert noted the difficulty of maintaining a gymnasium floor if public dances were allowed. Members indicated they did not favor the use of the gymnasium for public dances.

A letter from Andew Construction, builders of the recent Acton high school addition, replied to a letter from Action clerk McGoogan that they would review the alleged damage to the pavement in front of the school. They also noted they would consider payment of the building permit when they received certified copies of the town building by-laws, and an invoice for the amount. Plumbing permit fees would be discussed with the sub contractor.

Board members advised their secretary to keep in contact with the town clerk and final payment to the contractor was to be made only after the necessary permits had been paid for.

WELCOMED TO KNOX. In the evening, the congregation of the United Church worshipped with Knox members in Knox church and were warmly welcomed.

Mr. Adams expressed the church's sincere appreciation to the public school board and Knox Presbyterian church for the use of their facilities and kind assistance.

With Mr. Elliott at the console of Knox's organ, the United church choir sang two anthems, including "Larghetto For the Beauty of the Earth."

The usual nine o'clock service was held in the church basement.

The city slicker and his country girl friend were walking through a field, when they saw a bull and cow rubbing noses in bovine affection. "Ah," he said watching the girl for her reaction, "the very sight of that makes me want to do the same thing."

"Go ahead," she replied, "It's father's cow and he won't mind."

Well, that wasn't quite the reaction he was looking for. But I think you'll react favorably to the used car "boys" we're offering right now. Why not come down and look them over? There's no obligation. Ask for a demonstration of

Spooks Out Early At Costume Party

Jack O'lanterns glowing outside the house set the theme for the Halloween party held by the Y's Menettes last night (Wednesday). Members, in a weird variety of costumes, brought their husbands and guests for the masquerade party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rogvaldsen. The hilarious judging of costumes was followed by playing of "prize" euchre - winners pre-empting prizes from the losers. Sandwiches were followed by a timely pumpkin pie and whipped cream as the group of twenty concluded a highly successful social evening.
