

Matron of Honor, Flower Girl From Acton at Toronto Vows

Relatives from Acton formed part of the wedding party when Marilyn Faye Douglas, R.N., and George David (Butch) Cheney were married in Chalmers United Church, Toronto, on Saturday, October 10. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Douglas and the late Mr. Douglas of Toronto. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cheney of Toronto.

Baskets of yellow and rust mums decorated the church for the double ring ceremony conducted by the Rev. M. P. Smith, M. Senior played the wedding music, and Gerry Gough was soloist. The bride chose a full length gown of white organza with an embroidered bodice with a deep V neckline and long lily pointed sleeves. A beaded crown of pearls held her shoulder length veil. She carried roses and mums.

Wear Peacock Green
Matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Norman Douglas, R.R. 4, Acton. The bridesmaids were Miss Joan (Billie) Graham and Miss Barbara Brown, R.N.

They were dressed alike in waltz length gowns of peacock green chiffon over satin with headresses to match. They carried bouquets of yellow and rust mums.

The flower girls were Heather Mulholland of Willowdale, niece of the groom, and Gail Douglas, R.R. 4, Acton, niece of the bride. They wore short pink dresses of dotted Swiss voile trimmed with lace and pink rib roses.

Brother Gave Her Away
The bride was given away by her brother, Norman Douglas, R.R. 4, Acton. The groomsmen were George Walford, Toronto, and the ushers were Bob Brown, Rexdale, cousin of the bride, and Reg Northcott, Milton.

In the evening, a reception and dance were held at the Army and Navy Club, Toronto. The bride's mother wore a navy sheath dress with navy shoes and purse, dusty rose hat and gloves and a corsage of pink roses.

The groom's mother received in a cinnamon brown with beige accessories, and a corsage of yellow and rust mums.

Trip to Florida
The couple left on a trip to Florida, and for travelling the bride wore an olive green ensemble suit with contrasting burnt orange accessories. They are making their home in Toronto.

Guests attending from this district were Mrs. Ald Neilson, Miss Grace Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Cripps and Paul from Guelph; Dave and Margaret Douglas from the Boyne, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. William Ritchie, Rockwood; Mrs. Nell Douglas, Mrs. H. Sayers, Mrs. Gordon Johnston and Norman and Will Douglas from Acton.

Wife Speaks
The afternoon session was held at Grant Avenue United Church where the banquet took place. The president, Miss Margaret E. Holt, of Oakville, introduced the guests to the assembly.

After luncheon vice-president H. Henry, B.A., of Georgetown introduced the guest speaker Rev. Aubrey R. Jones, M.B.E., B.A., of the Centenary United Church, Hamilton, who gave a thought inspiring address. Rev. Jones challenged his listeners to "Awake and Think" that Canada needs more people to shake off "sleepiness" and protect our Christian and Democratic way of life.

R. F. Burdick, B.A., M.Ed., Inspector, spoke on behalf of the Hamilton No. 1 Inspectorate saying that seeing such inspiring results in the face of such difficulties, teachers of sighted pupils would be spurred to the high attainment.

Presentations Made
Presentations were made to retired teachers Miss Isobel Anderson of Acton and Miss C. M. Dennis of Oakville. A cheque was also presented to the School for the Blind on behalf of the teachers.

Officers for 1959-60 were elected during the business meeting. They were: president, H. Henry, B.A., Georgetown; past president, Miss M. Roberts, Oakville; vice president, Miss J. Dawson, Nassagaweya; secretary, Mrs. B. Robinson, Milton; treasurer, F. Brown, Oakville.

Rural representatives, R. Gibbons, Esquimaux; Mrs. A. Paul, Nassagaweya; urban representatives, J. Kolberg, Oakville; Miss M. Searle, Georgetown; K. Black, Acton; special subjects, Miss F. Fedorko, Oakville.

Wild Life Film
The monthly meeting of Guelph Camera Club was held in the projection room of the O.A.C., Guelph, Friday evening. Some splendid enlargements of water falls were discussed. A film "Hunting With A Camera" was shown on the screen dealing with wild life which was interesting.

End Meetings
Owing to lack of interest among members of the Men's Club of the United Church, the meetings have been discontinued. There were always good programs and different ones selected to give talks or addresses on different subjects, followed by refreshments and social times.

The two young suburban matrons were showing their claws a little as they sarcastically boasted about the devotion of their respective spouses. "My Bill is so attentive," said the first matron, "he's always taking me out to dine. Why only last night we ate up the street." "Really?" retorted her friend, "I didn't know you liked asphalt." Well, that's women for you, those gals are probably the best of friends really. You know there's nothing like a brand new car in the driveway to put some color in your life and to make you the envy of the Joneses (it's just a suggestion). MR. AND MRS. Richard George Mason are pictured entering Clarendon Hall, Toronto, for their wedding reception. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason of Guelph and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Mason, Acton.

Groom's Twin Sisters Attend Heather Philp

A wedding of Acton interest took place at Christ Church Deer Park, Toronto, on Saturday, October 31 at three o'clock when Heather Ann Philp became the bride of Richard George Mason.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Joseph Philp of Toronto. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William George Mason of Guelph, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Mason of Acton.

Guests attended the wedding from New York, Vancouver, Montreal, Ottawa, Elmville, Birmingham, Michigan, Guelph, Fergus, Brantford, Detroit, Barrie, Toronto, Bowmanville, Stirling, Simcoe, and Acton.

They were ushered to their seats by Paul Robinson, Edwin Chart and Ernest Philp.

Canon F. Arthur Smith officiated, with John Lovick playing the organ.

Hellfire Veil
The bride entered the church on her father's arm, wearing a floor length gown of ivory Italian peau de soie with long sleeves and a portrait neckline. A cascade of white roses fell from the back of the basque bodice. Her Mary Stuart cap held an exquisite heirloom veil of rose point lace, which fell to the hem of her chapel train. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis with a sprig of white heather.

The bridal attendants were Miss Lynn Westaway, the maid of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Sandra Lindsay, Miss Jane Mason and Miss Judith Mason, the twin sisters of the groom.

Their dresses were of bitter-sweet organza with a seersucker skirt and fitted bodice, and they wore matching bows in their hair. They carried mums in autumn tones.

The groomsmen were Frank Mason, brother of the groom.

A reception followed in Clarendon Hall, Toronto.

The couple left on a trip to the Laurentians, the bride travelling in a French wool ensemble of golden brown with matching accessories. They are making their home in Guelph.

Some pranks were indulged in, window panes in two homes were broken, a fuel tank left in front of the barber shop, an outhouse was removed from its place and left on side of the roadway on Main Street. Window panes bore signs of soaping or waxing.

During service at St. John's church Sunday afternoon, Mr. Douglas Dittich assisted, Rev. H. B. Stokroff conducted the service.

Lois Greenlees Married To Jack Wood on Oct. 10

St. David's Presbyterian church in Campbellville was decorated with standards of white chrysanthemums and green ferns on October 10, 1959, for the double-ring wedding ceremony of Lois Muriel Greenlees and William Jack Wood, both of Campbellville. Rev. Harold Marr of St. David's performed the ceremony while Miss Shirley Chester of Campbellville played the wedding music and David Locke of Milton sang The Lord's Prayer and O Promise Me.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. W. J. Greenlees of Campbellville and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood of Campbellville are the parents of the couple. Mr. Greenlees gave his daughter in marriage.

Chantilly Lace Gown
The bride chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace with sequined neckline, a corset back and a full skirt over satin with lace appliques. Her waltz length headpiece of lace with pearls and sequins held an elaborate tiara veil in place and she carried a cascade of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis on a white ribbon.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Elliot of Campbellville, the bride's sister, while Miss Marilyn Langton of Loyalist, the bridesmaid, and Miss Suzanne Mason of Acton, the groom's cousin, were bridesmaids.

The four young bridesmaids wore gowns of white tulle with white tulle necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. Matching sequined bodices and headpieces with white gloves and cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums completed their outfits.

Pretty Flower Girls
Carrying cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums, Miss Nancy Bickers of Milton, friend of the bride, and Miss Katherine Auliffe of Greenville, cousin of the groom, made pretty flower girls. They wore white velvet dresses with gathered skirts and Peter Pan collars, matching head bands, white velvet white gloves and black patent leather shoes.

The bride's attendants wore cultured pearls and earrings while the flower girls wore cultured pearl necklaces, gifts of the bride and groom.

Groomsmen were Laverne Blacklock of Milton, Larry Wood of Milton and Robert Wood of Campbellville, brothers of the groom, and Bert Benton of Limehouse and George Greenlees of Kildee, cousins of the bride.
