

Dolls, Streamers Decorate Hall For St. Alban's Guild Bazaar

Dainty dolls and colorful streamers adorned the tables and hall at Lutton Memorial Hall November 14 as a large crowd attended the St. Alban's Guild tea and bazaar. The many visitors enjoyed tea served from one of the 12 tea tables after shopping around the various novelty and bazaar counters. In charge of the bazaar were Mrs. Sid Newton and Mrs. George Williams with other members of the Guild sharing the work. The tables were in charge of Mrs. V. Bristol and Mrs. H. Denny with Mrs. S. Snow, Mrs. H. B. Stewart and Mrs. T. H. Cochrane pouring tea. The tea tables were gaily decorated with miniature dolls and attracted the visitors as they passed for tea and cookies. Many items for sale. In the hall auditorium six tables were set up offering the crowd homecoming, aprons and knitted goods, candies, cookies, odds and ends and a table for children called the "Wishing Well". In charge of the homecoming were Mrs. M. Rowley, Mrs. E. Footitt and Mrs. G. Lee. The aprons and knitted goods were prepared by Mrs. W. Coon, Mrs. G. Fountain and Mrs. C. Lindsay. The candy table was supervised by Mrs. W. Dabois and Mrs. S. Dwyer. The white elephant table was in charge of Mrs. W. H. Denny and Mrs. G. Holmes and the children's wishing well table was supervised by Mrs. G. Williams and Mrs. C. Taylor and Mrs. T. Cooke. The cookie table, Mrs. T. Franklin assisted by taking tickets at the door. As lucky draw for a child's smoked dress was won by Mrs. C. Taylor with the lucky ticket being drawn by Mrs. T. H. Cochrane. The ladies termed the tea very successful and were pleased with the large crowd in attendance.

District Meeting Reviewed At Busy Bees' W.I. Meeting

The November meeting of the Busy Bees' Women's Institute was held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. David Henderson, Moffat. Most of the members were present with the president presiding. The Institute Ode was sung, followed by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was "A Canadian made article used in your home." This was followed by business in connection with the bazaar which is being held Saturday. There is also a quilt ready to be quilted in the near future. Mrs. S. Robinson gave a few interesting reminders from the district directors' meeting and Mrs. R. Lindsay, delegate to the Guilph area convention, gave a report of the two day convention. Ten dollars was voted to be sent to needy children for milk. The thought for the day was given by Mrs. M. MacLeod. This was followed by a paper by the Canadian industries convention, Mrs. Allen. She described her visit and tour of a copper mine in New Ontario, which was very interesting and informative. Mrs. E. Cuxe and Mrs. Hayward gave amusing readings, after which Mrs. A. MacLean conducted two contests which were won by Mrs. M. MacLeod and Mrs. Beck. The meeting closed with the singing of the Queen. The W.I. Grace was sung and Mrs. Lindsay thanked the hostess for her home and hospitality.

Acton, Milton, Georgetown Hold Annual Urban Board Banquet

Members of the councils of Acton, Milton and Georgetown, with their wives and civic officials attended the annual dinner of the North Halton Urban Board at Hilltop Lodge, Erin, on Saturday, November 14. Mayor S. G. Childs of Milton, chairman of the board, presided for the evening that began with members' choice of turkey or steak dinners. Speaking at the conclusion of the dinner, Mayor S. G. Childs presided, the cooperation of the three councils and the continuation of the Urban Board.

Archers Still Keen As Instructor Back

All Long, former Canadian archery champion, who acts as senior archery instructor at the Y.M.C.A., returned after a few weeks' absence. Mr. Long participated in a plastics convention which took place in Duesseldorf, W. Germany. Due to the tight schedule of the convention he did not have too much time for sight-seeing, but was impressed by the structural and economic recovery which he observed during his stay overseas. He said his return had been impeded by the boys of his archery group and he found that the keen interest in this popular sport had not diminished during the short and tired period of his absence. The archery group was at full strength and enjoyed an evening of target shooting and bowmanship under Mr. Long's able leadership. The Acton Y is much indebted to Mr. Long for putting much of his own equipment at the disposal of the archery group, since unfortunately their own supplies for this sport are rather limited.

Halt's M.P.P. Stanley Hall spoke of the growth of Halton county and his hope that one day the entire county might be an amalgamated municipality such as the City of Halton with each of the present municipalities forming a part of that unit.

Mayor Jack Armstrong, Georgetown, a past chairman of the Urban Board, urged future councils of the area to keep the urban board going. He praised the work of Jack McGeachie, who has served as secretary of the board since its inception in 1954.

Urges Continuation Mayor Walter Cook, Acton, also noted the advantages of councils of the three towns reviewing mutual problems and urged the continuation of the board.

Presiding mayor S. G. Childs welcomed the ladies to the event and added more words of praise for the work of J. McGeachie for his part in the activities of the board. Cards and dancing followed the dinner.

FIRMLY EMBEDDED in its new location in the new plant, the Goss press purchased recently was moved from the former publishing house on Mill Street to the Willow Street plant last week. Pictured above in the foreground is the press expert from Chicago who supervised the move, A. East, with George Ware and Albert Schupp, press operators, in the background. From the time the Free Press began its move to the new quarters not one publication of the paper was missed.

Bannockburn W.I. Tours Micro Plant

The Bannockburn Women's Institute held their monthly meeting on Thursday evening at Bannockburn school. The roll call, "Name a beauty spot in Ontario" was answered by 11 members. Arising out of the business was a $5.00 donation to be forwarded to the TB fund. A $5.00 donation was to be forwarded to the Fund for the World Refugee Committee of Canada. Plans were made for the coming evening.

The program theme, Agriculture and Canadian Industries, was in charge of Mrs. A. Brooks and Mrs. T. Gordon. They toured the new Micro Plastics plant and Mrs. A. Brooks described the various operations they saw and showed several samples of the raw plastic material used in making different articles for use in and around the home.

Rockwood Writer Shows Photographs

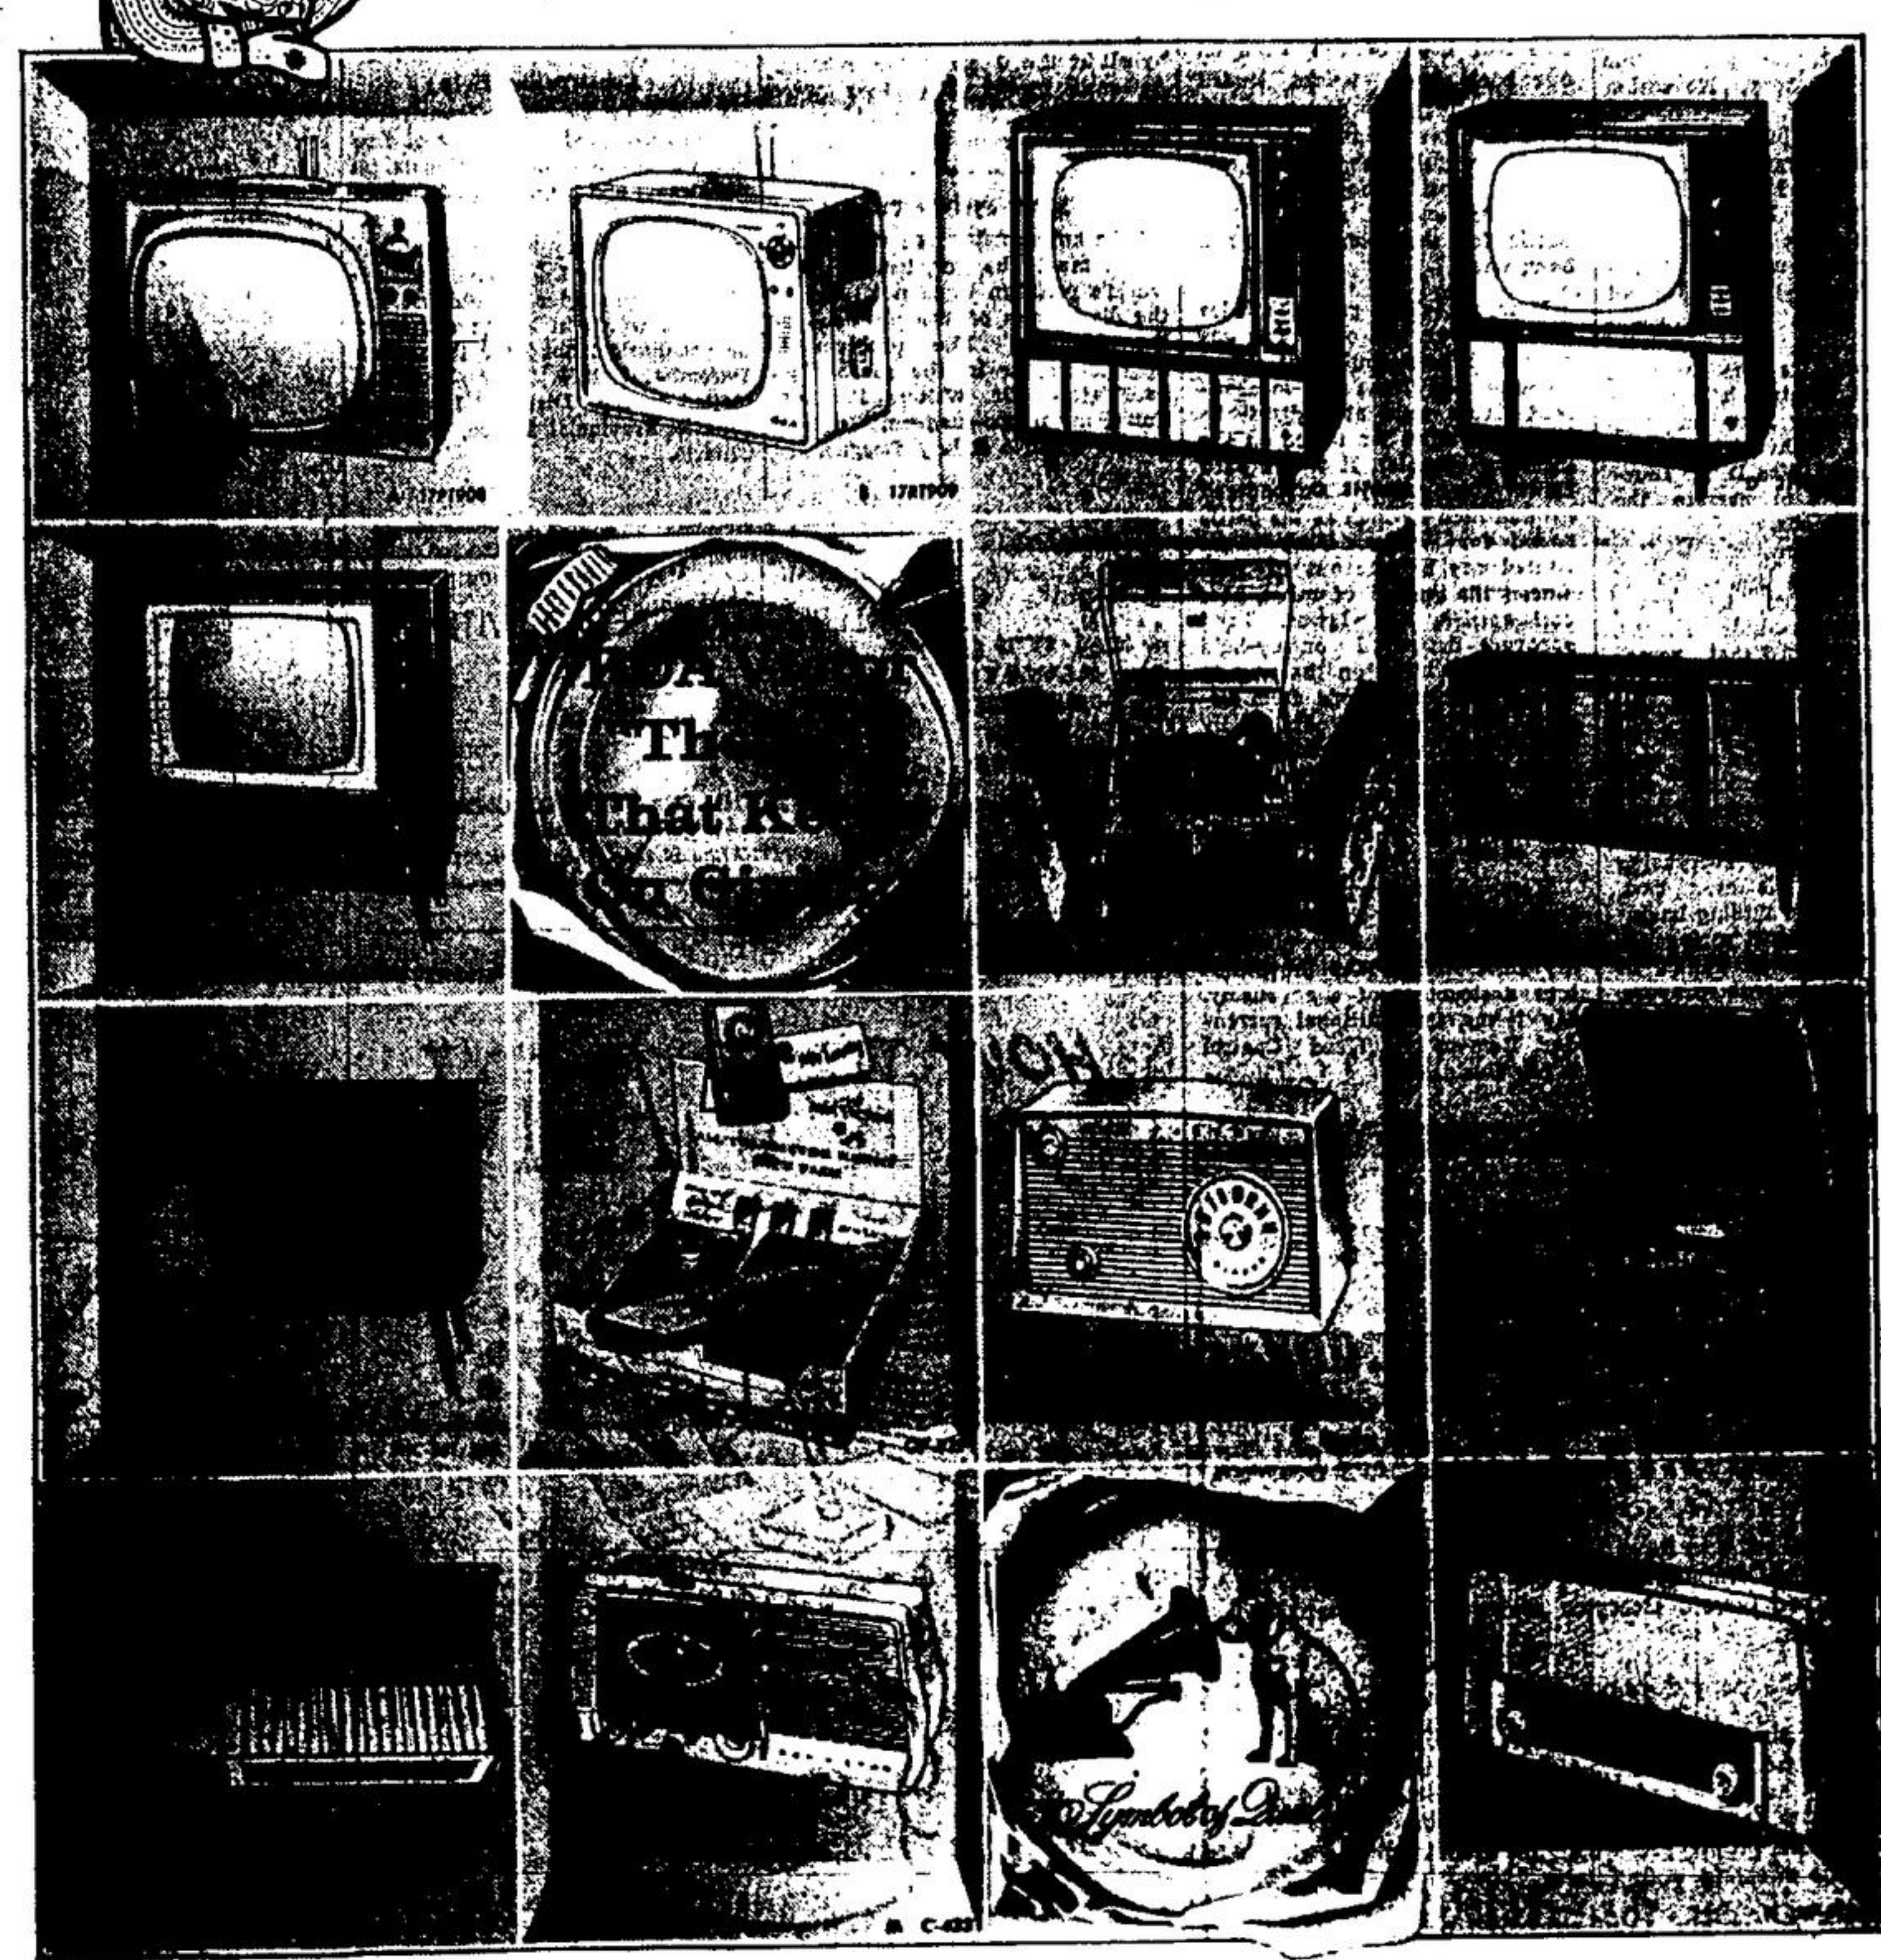

Although the Rockwood correspondent, Richard Harris, failed to mention it in his news column, he himself had several exhibits in the 12th annual Guilph Creative Arts exhibition held in Guilph recently. He had five color prints 8 inches by seven inches of Belwood lake, Elora and Rockwood, and another large card mounted with maps of local scenery and the Exhibition in Toronto. He also mentioned that he won a consolation prize of a silver dollar a few weeks ago in the Canada

In pictures contest sponsored by the head office of the Toronto-Dominion Bank in September. A letter informed him the sensitivity and composition of his entry won special mention from the judges. Mr. Harris is termed the "dean of Free Press correspondents" as he has written his interesting column for many years.
