

SPILLING FIVE PINS AT ACTON BOWLING LANES

By
KEN HULFORD

High School

November 30: Whizbangs have won their last six games in as many starts and now are in first place. Banging the Cornets around for the works had its reward as far as the league standing is concerned. Cornets threatened to stop the Whizbang streak in the third game but fell short by 22 pins. The best scores were confined to the singles with Gary Masales 202, Wayne Mason 206 and Don Price 230 for Whizbangs. Ian Jefferson 204 and Gary Walker 254 were Cornets' best.

Win Second by 2 Pins

Sliders gave Whizbangs an assist when they emerged with a pair of 4's to go from the crest of the leader. Hula Hoops, Hula Hoops tried to retain the top spot. They tied the first game, won the second by two pins and then skidded far to the rear in the finale when the Sliders hit for the big ones. Best triples and singles for Sliders were Duke Brown 618, Bob McCurdy 281 and Vic Roach 215. Hula Hoops' best were triples — Ray Toth 266 and Pete Homer 630.

Move Into Contention

Flyers moved up into serious contention when they outgated the Alley Gators for a two and totals go. Gators latched onto the second, go to stay on the win sheet. Best triple and single for Flyers were "Rolling John" Duffield 607 and Mike Rogers 228. Gators' best was a 216 single from Trudy Scott.

League Standing

Whizbangs 33, Hula Hoops 31, Flyers 30, Alley Gators 29, Cornets 28, Sliders 17.

Beardmore

November 30: Chrome continued their winning ways and with a two and totals win from the Curry. Chrome's still barreling along in front of the pack. Curry, after eating a humble pie in the first two, rounded up in the third to annex a one game win. The bright boys for Chrome were Wayne Spires 614, Eddie Phillips 635 (314), Jeff Fryer 629 and Bob Skidmore 846. Curry's top trio were Wes Allen 601, Joyce Masales 616 and Owen Masales 660.

Three Game Win

Wearry and exhausted from their long train ride from Pittsburgh, rookies John Vardorwensch, Ed Parent and Ed Janks were at a disadvantage in their first appearance for the Beamhouse and the Rolling Room had not too much trouble in racking up a three game win. Fred Kenner 754 (325), Ed McGilroy 636 and Phil LeSueur 651 paced the Rollers' win. "Bustling Bill" Buchanan, skipper of the Beamhouse, feels that, quite "once our rookies get shaken down, I feel that we'll make it tough for the rest of the league," end of quote.

Two and Totals Win

Cutsole cut capers with the Tan Yard in the first. Then the Tan Yard did an about face and tanned the Cutsole in the next two for a two and totals win which had "oor Arry" all smiles. Top mangle mashes in this go were Rogers 655 for Hanners and Bob Hall 628 for Cutsole.

Advance to Third

Upper Leather advanced to the third rung at the expense of the Office Girls, the Gals dropping the works. Bill Shannon 617, Uke Zastac 707 and Johnny Robson, 606 were top triples for Upper Leather with Ben Bayless chiming in with a 440 double. Eva Williams with 694 (212) was best for the office shemales.

League Standing

Chrome 63, Rolling Room 53, Upper Leather 54, Curry 33, Tan Yard 28, Cutsole 21, Office Girls 16, Beamhouse 11.

Legion Ladies

November 30: The front running Lazy Susans won a close first game from Frisky Belles by 20 pins, then the Belles started raring and wound up with the last two and totals a 213 single from la belle Dot Thompson and a likewise 217 from Lazy Susans. Dot Emmerson were the highlights of this go.

Faller In Last Game

The Threes tried to make a three game win from the Angells but after winning the first two faltered in the last and had to be satisfied with a two and totals win. Phyllis Angell with a single of 235 for the Angells and Joan Bullough with a ditto of 226 for the Threes were in the spotlight for this affair. Top triples trumpeted by the ladies for the evening were Joan Bullough 378, Dot Emmerson 503, Phyllis Angell 505 and Cory Nap 504.

Blue Springs Nursery

December 1: After being knocked about by the rest of the league for the past three weeks, Asters got back on the win trail with a vengeance. They took the luckless Carnations for the works. For Asters it was Carol Wallis 201 and Gayle Hulford 301 in the first. Carnations' Jeanne Heppler's 254 topped Hulford's 246 in the second but it was still an Aster win. Terry Arbie came up with a 213 in the Carnation cause in the third but Betty Hardie 214 and Hulford 222 paced the third Aster win.

Mums Avert Shut-out

Pauline McHugh with a 201 paced her team to victory in the first over the Mums. Cheryl Morton flashed a 228 for Mums in the second but Effie Bowman took up the slack for Glads with a 256 and Glads latched onto a repeat win. A 210 by Mums' Ruth Hulford sparked a last game win and Mums averted the shut-out.

Roses Keep Climbing

Roses kept 'climbin' with a two and totals win from the Violets. Adele Nolan with 250 in the first and Marg Ware with 219 in the second sparked the wins. Beryl Jordan's 216 in the first went a'boogin' for Violets but her 206 in the third, along with Joanne Innescoe's 225, was the Violet payola. Top triples for the night were Gayle Hulford 670, Effie Bowman 621 and Joanne Innescoe 608.

League Standing

Asters 35, Violets 32, Carnations 27, Roses 25.

H. K. Porter

December 1: Files figured to file the edge off the Knives, but 'twas not to be. Knives had the edge and wound up with all three games. Beryl Jordan 233 and Mike McCristall 203 were the up and at arms for the Knives in the first. Files tried — they lost by 22 pins. Martin Ochrich 211 and Jordan 228 cut the mustard for Knives in the second. With Alice Doby 212 and Gerry Funk 218 pacing them, Files thought they had a chance in the third but Jordan trundled a 264 to cut Knives in for their third win by 18 pins.

Rules Take Hits For 3

Despite Ernie MacKenzie's 281 in the first, along with a 217 in the third plus Bill Pendleton's 213, Bits failed to measure up to the Rules' scores and it was a three game loss for the Bits. The second chucker was close, 17 pins deciding the issue. Ruling the Rules' single rout were Bob Wade 209-217, Keith Livermore 257-244 and Carl Jackson 215.

Saws Sharp for 2

Saws made sawdust out of the Trowels for the first two games to make it a two and totals win. John Cozens was no cousin to the Trowels—his 230 in the first and his 234 in the second kept the Saws keen. Larry Portes' 225 in the last got the Trowels on the winning track. The fearsome foursome on the triple plateau were Beryl Jordan 713, Keith Livermore 673, John Cozens 655 and Ernie MacKenzie 650.

League Standing

Knives 52, Files 40, Bits 39, Saws 39, Rules 34, Trowels 27.

Industrial-Commercial

December 2: Ledger's I.G.A. threatened to haul down the Jolly Rogers' colors after winning the first game by 33 pins, but someone fouled the halyards and the Rogers' colors refused to come any lower, which is by way of saying the Jolly boys took the next two and totals to remain on top of the totem pole. Bob Agnew with a flash of his old time form 783 (322), plus Ed Ryan's 625 and Arlie

White's 628 sparked the Rogers' win. Dave Manes with 610 topped the Ledger's trundling.

Taxi Take Woodcraft For Ride

Acton Woodcraft were in the clear for their first game against the Reliable Taxi, then apparently got lost in the woods and the Reliable Taxi, wheeling along the freeway in fine style, caught the checked flag for the next two and totals. Top trio for the Woodcrafters were Pete Turkosz 689, Eddie Phillips 627 and Don Grein 613. Tramping on the gas for Reliable Taxi were Ches Peycha 751, Roz Morton 669 and Bruce Big Canoe 624.

Go's Snap Losing Struck

Rising like Phoenix from the ashes, Go's Cartage snapped their losing streak by cutting inside A-1 Delivery and won all three games. Could be the Go's are finally highballing. Go's top scores came from Junior Creasey 652, Ed McHugh 606, Bud Webster 627 and "Scutch" McCutcheon, yipe, 732! Turning in the best efforts for A-1 Delivery were Dee DeForest 692 and Carl DeForest 617.

League Standing

Jolly Rogers 55, Ledger's I.G.A. 43, Acton Woodcraft 41, A-1 Delivery 40, Reliable Taxi 37, Go's Cartage 36.

Acton Ladies

December 2: McCallum Services served Lovell Bros. with a zero count on the score sheet when they took the foul line with "Mat Maids." Marion Storey gave McCallum's a lift in the first with a 231. Dottie McGilroy came up with a 206 for Lovell's in the second but McCallum's had Joan Knight with 207 and Shirley McKeown with 217 to cinch win number two for McCallum's. Lovell Bros. almost got in for the third but lost out by 25 pins when Marion Storey rounded out a 671 triple with a 244 to finish the clean-up for McCallum's.

Win Third by 8 Pins

Lamb Real Estate had Prouse Motors stalled in the first but the Prousettes got even in the second when Elsie Swift 239 and Marion Pope 231 sparked the win. This was a toughie for the Lambs to lose as Diane Spielvogel and Doreen McIntyre came up with 218 and 230. In the third, Prouse were the winners by eight pins despite the 208 from Lamb's Mae Wilds.

Footwear Opponents

Benson's had on their tramping shoes and tramped all over their rival footwear opponents, the Corona Shoes, for all three games. Gives the Benson's a big step up in the pinnt ladder. Joan McCristall with a 205 single for Benson's was the best score in this go. Joan McCristall 569 and Doreen McIntyre 552 were next in line to Marion Storey's 671 for triples.

League Standing

McCallum Services 53, Prouse Motors 46, Lamb Real Estate 37, Lovell Bros. 30, Benson's Shoes 30.

Acton Major

December 3: Casino Flyers zoomed into the Nicol's Tiger Cats and tied knots in their collective tails for the first two games. The Cats go the knots partly untied in the third game. They managed to get a tie in this one. The six point win gives the Flyers possession of first place. The Flyers were up for this go. Harry Lawson 663, Mario Casarin 759, Primo Rigo 779 (316), Ken Rigo 648 (330) and Bruno Casarin 642 (301) double left nothing to be desired. The Cats were bringing — Norm Morton 756, Jack Brough 755, Ross Morton 697, Don Grein 695, Bill Williams 649 and Mike Bennett 417 double.

Billiards Take 2 and Totals

Fire men lost no time in going one-up on the Acton Billiards and then just as quickly went two down when the "cue boys" equalized in the second and romped home in the third for the two and totals verdict. Marking them up for Acton Billiards were Cy Ryan 671, Ed Ryan 610, Ralph Barton 605 and Wayne Spires 411 double. Mikey Holmes with a 720, tricolor stood out "Horatio at the bridge" for Firemen.

Ten Pro Upset Dominion Hotel

Ten Pro upset the Dominion Hotel's tomato juice when after losing out in the first, they found the range and packed away the next two and totals. Top trundling trio for Ten Pro were Hank Earle 696, Phil LeSueur 637 and John Robson 604. Ditto for the Dominion were Ches Peycha 613, Bob Skidmore 604 and Bill McCullen 602.

League Standing

Casarin Flyers 39, Nicol's Tiger Cats 38, Dominion Hotel 47, Acton Billiards 36, Firemen 27, Ten Pro 25.

Acton Friends

December 3: Washouts with Garrett DeBryun 207 in the first, Ted Jennings 233 and Ena Gibson 215 in the second and DeBryun 216 in the third to pace them, hung the Dubatables out to dry for all three games. The three game win landed Washouts up for a share of the top rung. Debatables just didn't have it — mentally, figuratively or lawfully.

Happy Seven Takes Odd Point

Happy Seven, sparked by Harry Rogers' 255 in the first, overpowered the Bluffers by plenty. Rogers again led the Seven in the second with 212 but Bluffers nudged them out by 18 pins. Rogers again in the third with 204 and Ray Atkinson 209 tried to pace the team for their second win but Beth Ritchie with a 218 gave the Bluffers the idea of pinning and they followed the idea to a conclusive win. The Happy Seven retained a share of first place when they made off with the odd point for totals.

Turtles Take Phantoms For 2

Doug Ruddleick 290, Glenn Banks 292 and Turtles sashayed off with the first game from the Phantoms. Phantoms put up a battle in the second but Turtles were again the winners with Had DeForest 203 heading up a close 14 pin win. Phantoms averted a shut-out when Harold Ferguson and Mary Ruddleick paced the win with 201 and 206 respectively. Harry Rogers 671 and Ted Jennings 608, topped the men's triples, Ena Gibson's 569 and Beth Ritchie 540 headed the shemales.

League Standing

Happy Seven 49, Washouts 49, Turtles 46, Phantoms 43, Bluffers 43, Seven 42, Bumper 41, Bluffs 40, Jokers 40, Red 40, Kippers 40, Jokers 39, Bumper 39, Bluffs 38, Jokers 38, Red 38, Kippers 38.

Thursday Toppers

December 3: It was an afternoon of shut-outs for the Thursday afternoon bowling femmes. Chumps made Tiger Cats jump through the hoops for a three game loss and Top Notchers struck out the Strikers for a three game win. Chumps' three game win was highlighted with singles of 204 and 213 from Eleanor Goy and Shirley Drew in that order.

Top Triples

Top Notchers and Strikers go depended on who got the counter pins with Top Notchers coming off best. Top triples for the afternoon were Shirley Drew 534, Betty Hatch 506, Eileen Frank 481, Mary Conroy 462 and Verna Arbie 478. The result of the afternoon's roll-fest tightened the league standing up considerably.

League Standing

Strikers 29, Top Notchers 25, Tiger Cats 22, Chumps 22.

Acton Mixed

(EX AVRO-ORENDA)

December 3: Broken Arrows were much too powerful for the Eagles and chalked up three impressive wins with Ed Ryan 754, Ches Peycha 724 and Phil LeSueur 622 welding the chalk. Beryl Jordan 619 and Blackie Gaston 616 headed up the futile flutterings of the Eagles.

Jesters Win Third by 8 Pins

Jesters clobbered the Little Rascals in the first, eked out an 18 pin win in the second, then hung on to win the third by eight pins for an all-out win. Best scores in this affair were singles, with Fred Wallace 205 and Bob Drinkwater 208-200 for Jesters. For the Rascals, it was Jim Pope 213, Marion Pope 201 and Art Johnson 212.

Jokers Take Two

Bud MacDonald's 247 paced the

Joker's first game win from the Bombs as did Ron Whitman's 253 in the second. Whitham 211 and MacDonald 212 were still hot in the third for Jokers but the combo of Jack and Betty Hatch with 263 and 228 triggered the Bombs and they snaffled the last game by 27 pins to rack up a win. Ron Whitman's 636 tricolor looked good on the Jokers' score sheet.

League Standing

Broken Arrows 45, The Bombs 38, Eagles 33, Jokers 30, Jesters 27, Little Rascals 16.

Teen-n-Under

December 5: Blue Bumpers blasted Comets out of the sky as far as games were concerned and made off with a double win. Comets tried to get into orbit in the second but missed out by 17 pins. Best for the Blue Bombers were Jill Hurst 126-168 (304), Fred Landry 171-131 (302) and Bob Turkosz 134-154 (288). Comets' tops were Frank Morton 155-156 (313) and Brian Sheridan 137-136 (273).

Eagles Screaming

The Eagles were screaming in their go with Raiders. Both games were borne aloft in their eager talons. Keith Andrews with 161-163 (324) soared for the Eagles.

Hawks Have Double Win

The scratches on the Tiger Cats' backs were put there by the Golden Hawks. The Hawks made away with a double win from the T.C.'s, John Dunn 209-134 (343) and Phil Graham 165-128 (293) were the "golden arm boys" for the Hawks. Jane McCrea 145-113 (258) was yawling for the Cats.

League Standing

Blue Bombers 35, Raiders 27, Golden Hawks 25, Tiger Cats 23, Comets 20, Eagles 20.

Headpin Hillies

Acton on the inter-county league front saw the Van Norman Electricians play hust to the Streetsville Strikers with the Strikers going back to Streetsville via highway 401 with a two and totals win. Down Dixie way, sub, the Acton Merchants were faring better than their town rivals. They took the Dixie Jets for a two and totals win. Next Saturday afternoon the Merchants and Electricians will toe the foul line here at the Lanes. Methinks there will be blood on the moon for this go. Maybe I should leave town.

Award Winners

"Youth will be served" as Paul Nielsen will find out when Pete Homer trots into his clothing emporium with a "Paul's Clothing" voucher clutched in his hot little mitt. All "Pistol Pete" did was put together 272-298-265 for a 855 to win the award. "Squeek" Rigo, of the rolling Rigos, with his 330 single can make a selection from Gordon's Hardware. Any time this gal Martin toes the foul line attired in slacks, look out. It means "Hivy" has her mind made up to do some hot bowling as her 723 which included a 278 single will attest. Wins her the Ledger's I.G.A. foodstuffs and the Custom Cleaners cleaning jobs.

Win Refreshments

The star performers in the Teen-n-Under for bowling the best over their averages to win the Coca-Cola, Reinharts and Seven Up liquid refreshments were Eleanor Wallace, Gerald Dick, John Dunn and Jane, McCrea in that order. And in conclusion: Don't blame it on the ball, don't count the pins that wobble, just count the pins that fall. Adios amigos.
