

MAP OF THE TOWN OF ACTION

a decade of development

ACTON
1950
TO 1960

Truly the years 1950 to 1960 can be described as a decade of development for the Town of Acton. With the incorporation of the municipality in 1950 as a town, the community has shown a 38% increase in population, a 90% increase in area and a 156% increase in assessment.

This, then, is the story of a thriving town in an expanding market. It is a story that will go to all corners of the world proclaiming Acton as a progressive town where citizens are striving to make it a better place in which to live, to work and to raise their families.

Acton is a town which can reflect pleasure and pride in its past and which can face the soaring sixties confident that the town will continue progressing parallel with the expanding economy of Canada and the mushrooming area in which it is situated.

This, then, is Acton's story!
