

-livestock, seed and land judg. Toronto up for the weekend

Three Competitions

weya area. Organization meetings ture, Milton, before April 1.

COTTONS MAY BE SMART was the topic of the Halton homemaking club girls in their recent project, and displays by various clubs were entered at achievement day along that theme. Dublin Cotton Queen Jean Britton and Jean Moffat are shown assembling their display, under the guidance of home economist Miss Frances Lampman.

Elect Roy Coulter President It was decided that in addition; for all clubs will be held in Mil-

Council, made up of volunteer to the 4H forestry club now orgo ton on Saturday, April 2. leaders interested in 4H club anized, other projects to be of work, met in the board room of fered would include a beef club, the Extension Branch. Ontario dairy clubs, a torage club, a sil-Department of Agriculture. Mil- age corn club, a tractor club, a ton, on Wednesday, February 3. potato club and a swine club. The leaders were guests of the 4-H club work in the province Ontario Department of Agricul- has doubled in the last ten years ture for a luncheon held at the and in planning our expansion Milton Inn.

Directed by Brunch

4H club work is directed by the Extension Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, with local direction by the agricultural representative J. A. Francis and assistant D. E. Jackson. Considerable help is given to this program by the local club leaders, who assist in meetings throughout the year and the planning of local 4-H events. The 20 4-H club leaders present during the day elected Roy Coulter as president and John Willmott as vice-president of the 4-H Club Leaders' Council for 1960.

Plan Drama Festival During Joint Meeting

Sandy Buchanan, president of the Halton Junior Farmers' Association and chairman of the County Board, spearheaded a meeting on major events planning for the County of Halton. The meeting was held on Wednesday. February 3; in the board room of the Extension Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. Milton.

Keen competition is expected between the Palermo, Norval and Milton clubs in the 1960 Drama Festival. Acton club is to be host for the evening. The three one act plays will be held at the Acton public school at 8 p.m. on riday, March 4. Annual Meeting The Junior Farmer County Board is made up of directors from each of the four clubs in the county. Each year it is nec essary to have a meeting with representatives from Palermo. Milton, Acton and Norval clubs to select the executive to repres ent the county. This year's an nual meeting is to "be held to March 12 at 11.30 a.m. No organization operates with out some social event. Thus to start the new year off in good order, the Junior Farmer banquet and dance is being held on Fra day, March 18, at 7 pm. in the Masonic Hall, Milton,

Stewarttown hall on Saturday,

$1,800 Damage To Three Cars

Three cars involved in an acci dent on Highway 7 near Penson's Corners on Thursday received a total of $1,800 damage, but no one was injured. Const. Ray Andress of North Halton O.P.P., who investigated aid a car driven by James Starett of Acton had stopped on the highway when it was hit in the rear by a car driven by Ronald Corbett of Alton The Corbett car then collided with an on coming car driven by Clarence Pringle of Islington.

Damage was $500 to Starett. $1,000 to Corbett, $300 to Pringle.

Playoffs to Start

For Pee Wee Team Acton pee wee hockey team start their playoff schedule next Tuesday night when they play host to the Georgetown club. In the Halton county zone. Georgetown, Milton and Acton will meet and the winners compete against the Hamilton zone winner. Schedule to date, is: George town at Acton, Tuesday, February 16 at 6.30; Milton at Acton, Thursday, February 18 at 6.30; Acton at Milton, Saturday, February 20 and Acton at Georgetown, Sunday, February 24.

Five Years

The Campbellville man found guilty of manslaughter last week by a Supreme Court Jury was sentenced to five years in penitentiary by Mr. Justice Schatz on Friday at the Milton Court House. Twenty-eight year old John Da vid Cutts was found guilty the November shooting of Preston hotel owner, Geral Schmaltz, who was alleged! prowling in a barn on the fact where Cutts was a boarder. The case was one of four heard in the past two weeks at the spring Supreme Court sittings.

An Oakville man, accused of two counts of armed robbery. was freed Friday on a technical ity. The judge ruled there was tnsufficient evidence to convict the

Receive Guests On Anniversary

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDougall on the occasion of their 25th wedding auniversary held at their home, Main St., January 23, Other mem

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Davis and daughters of fourth line Framosa spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McDougall and tamily. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day and members of the family of Ancaster in village during the weeknd. The three judging competitions Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allan of ing - will be held this year, as with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pearen well as a parents' night, which in and Miss-Elva Pearen. 1959 took the form of a Salety Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winlow and son Tommy of Wheatley Any new members, interested were weekend visitors, program for Halton county, it in joining a 4-11 club in 1960; Preparatory service was held was decided that a calf club be should contact the office of the Sunday morning at the Presbyoffered in the Acton - Nassaga- Ontario Department of Agricul- terian church with John Birtch

Mark 25th Anniversary

"Cottons May Be Smart" Achievement Day

Halton County completed the "Modelling Mollys" took part in members in 1935.

Judge Cotton Dresses judge a class of four cotton dres. Sharton Joubert, Mary Atkins, this spring is "The Milky Way", opinions were put forward for sample of slip stitching, one of spart in their demonstration. The activities visitors had a chance to Gail Kilmore and Betty Ann bers of the family circle and relagexamine, the record books, and Brown. ives were present to the number dresses which each girl had made of 27. Mr. and Mrs. McDougall during this project and which were recipients of presents and were displayed around the room, of the Halton County Women's

In the afternoon, various ment bers of the clubs commented on the exhibits set up by their clubs The topic of the exhibits was "Cottons May be Smart". Dama Wrigglesworth, Gisela Hein, Jean Moltat, Hertha Brucker, and Doris Mollat commented on their respective club exhibits from the Asherove "Cotton Cuties", the Drumonin "Cotton Queens", the Dublin "Cotton Queens", the Hornby South "Cotton Deb U Teens", and Nassagaweya "Colton Triplets".

Many Demonstrations Smart" was carried through the sterling silver homemaking club

Twenty-live véars ago, the first! demonstrations and skits as well, spoon. Of special interest was interested club menthers or club 4H Homemaking Club Achieve, Mervl. Flock, Eleanor. Taylor, the presentation of provincial leaders are asked to get in touch ment Day was held in Halton Barbara Rose, Bette Rose, Helen Honors certificate and pin to with the Home Economist. At County. Twenty-lour members Auckland and Judy Breckon pre Diane Wrigglesworth of the Ash Saturday's gathering, the girls completed the project "Cottons sented a skit representing the grove club. Provincial Honors were given the opportunity to May be Smart": On Saturday 135 Nelson "Cotton Queens". All are awarded on the completion, vote on their choice for the fall homemaking, club members in members of the Hornby North of 12 projects.

same project and attended their a fashion show illustrating "Cor-

During the morning program to go with them was presented of Palermo club. ses and, as well, a class Barbara Kerton, and Dorothy The training school for local the event. Each girl also made a small; Scotch Block "Caheo Dolls" took ton, on February 16 and 17. Anyissing. the techniques which she had last demonstration of the after fearned during the eight or ten noon was presented by three meetings of her club. While club, members of the Limehouse "Cot members were busy with these fon Belles" club, Eleanor Karn,

W.I. Greetings

Mrs. Velma Norris, president Institutes brought greetings from the group which takes such an active interest in these homemak

A highlight of the afternoon program was the dress parade. Black club member modelled her dress or skirt and blouse and at the same time, had a chance to tell the audience some interesting facts about her garment.

At the close of the afternoon program certificates of achieve ment were presented to each girl who had completed two projects. Each club idember who success fully completed "Cottons May be The therge of "Cottons May be Smart" was also presented with a County Honors Also presented with certificates achievement day. Under the tons May Be Smart". The Nelson this time County Honors for the direction of the Home Ecohomist, West "feen Circle" presented a completion of six projects were Miss Frances Lampman, the pro- tashjon show of cottons with Sandra Carney, Adrienne Nurse, St. Alban's Guild gram was held in the Milton high Carolyn Hawthorne. Sheila Phil- Dorrs Picket, of the Ashgrove school auditorium. The large lips, Karen Harrison, Shirley club; Lorraine Coxe and Phythis Sets Bazaar Date furnout of interested parents and Wagstaffe, Ann Hamilton, Claud Forest of the Dublin club; Barb St. Alban's Women's Guild held triends of club members included in Histor, Run De Grautt, and ara Break, Caroline Hoes, Carol: their monthly meeting on Wedseveral ladies who had been club, Sharon Chadbolt taking part. Howden of the Hornby South nesday, February 3 with Mrs. E. An informative skit on select | club; Marilyn Sherwood of Nel Blunn, president, in the chair, project. The unanimous choice was "Sleeping Garments", This unit will begin in the fall of 1960.

ing cotton materials and patterns, son, Faith Davis and Judy Heslop. Business was, discussed and a date set for the Christmas bazaar club members had a chance to by Linda Whewell, Marie Adamo. The project to be undertaken in November. Many ideas and of four materials as to their Tovell of the Palermo "Cotton leaders will be held at the De After a successful meeting spitability to a certain pattern. Cut Ups". Aff members of the partment of Agriculture in Mily lunch was served before disper-

ANNOUNCEMEN

MK, GECKGE G. PUKD

has become associated with the Mutual Life of Canada and will be the company's representative in the Central and Northern areas of Hal-

$50.00 TRADE-IN FOR YOUR OIL BURNER

If you're having trouble with your oil burner, why pay costly repair bills? United Gas will give you $50.00 allowance when you trade it in for a domestic gas heating unit.

RENT A GAS CONVERSION BURNER

In just a few hours a dependable, trouble free gas conversion burner can be installed in your present furnace. No down payments, no carrying charges, no installation costs. The rental fee starts at $2.95 per month, depending on your heating system-and service is FREE!

If your present furnace needs replacing, a gas heating system can be installed in a few hours, with the following advantages:

BUY FROM DEALER PAY ON GAS BILL

You choose the dealer from whom the gas heating unit will be purchased, and then pay for it on your monthly gas bills

5 YEARS TO PAY THE BALANCE

When you purchase now, no down payment is required for 90 days. the balance can be spread over 5 years, and is payable on your monthly gas bill.

See Your Gas Heating Dealer or

GAS LIMITED

