Leonard Tubman Dies at 44 Funeral in Rockwood Tuesday

Leonard Tubman was born in Elmvale, Ontario, 44 years ago. He received his education in Acton, where he worked for several years before moving to the Eden Mills district. He was an employee of the Guelph Sand and Gravel. He was a member of the Rockwood United Church.

Besides his wife he is survived by his daughter Doris, and by his niece, Eloise Watson. He was the son of James and Laura Tubman, brother of Warren of Cooksville, Kenneth, Mrs. R. Wilson (Evelyn) and Mrs. O. Wells (Eleanor) both of Peterborough.

The service was conducted by the Rev. G. A. B. Moore of Rockwood United Church assisted by Jack Birch of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church.

The pallbearers were Jack Forbes, Jack Black, Walter Pinder, Thomas Atkinson, Charles Davidson and Wilmer Davidson.

Interment was in Rockwood Cemetery.

Plan Projects During Meeting

The Bannockburn Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at Bannockburn school on Thursday evening.

Eleven members answered the roll call. "If I had a chance to live somewhere else, where would it be?"

Many items of business were dealt with. A donation of $500 was made to the Music Festival. Plans were discussed for canvassing for Georgetown hospital. Layettes are to be sent to the Unitarian Service.

Plans were made for the yearly banquet and meeting in March. A nominating committee of Mrs. C. Coles and Mrs. S. Morrison was named to plan for the election of officers in April.

Mrs. S. Morrison then gave two readings, "Resolutions" and "My Get Up and Go has Gone and Went". Lunch concluded the evening.
