Board Hires Five New Teachers To Fill Public School Vacancies

Eighty-Fifth Year.-No. 41.

Mr. Watson, along with principals G. McKenzie, E. Smith and secretary W. Middleton, succeeded in hiring five teachers to fill positions left vacant by resignat-Jons in the two schools. It was the most successful jaunt he had ever made to a leachers' college, Mr. Watson said. "We were able to hire teachers at a grade never anticipated and never achieved before," he con tinued, "All the candidates hired were of the highest calibre obtainable and it was good to be able to sit back in April knowing both schools will be fully staffed for the fall term."

Reports Excellent
