HALTON MANOR

Auxiliary Program Has Music, Presentation

On Wednesday evening, April 27, a very fine program that featured both sacred and secular numbers was presented for the residents of the Manor by about 25 ladies belonging to the Alert Evening Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian church in Acton.

joined in many enjoyable chats with their guests, the residents. This ended another in a long list of delightful evenings given by this auxiliary for the residents of the Manor.

Medical Numbers The next portion of the program consisted of musical numbers and readings. Ted Hansen was the very talented accompanist for the greater part of these numbers.

Helped to Title Price played hockey for Milton Merchants in the O.H.A. Inter-

They began with a choir. A solo by George Memorial and Norman Elbert. At other times throughout the program Mrs. J. L. Davidson sang "He Loves and Bless This House". Mrs. Davidson and Mr. Munn sang "God's Word is the Best Way" and Mr. L. J. J. sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere".

Seven towns registered entries in the minor division of the Halton county baseball league at a meeting last night (Wednesday) in Milton. Altogether a total of 19 teams entered the five loops of pee wee, bantam, midget, juvenile and junior.

Miss Irene Bennett sang a solo. The Moon Two instrumental solos were played. A violin was Silver Threads. Among the songs by Jane McPhedran and a bag pipe solo a medley of Scottish airs by Leslie McPhedran.

Big Bantam Loop The most entries were realized in the bantam league where seven teams will do battle. In the pee wee league, four teams are entered with four in the midget.

Makes Presentation In an interval between two of these numbers, Mrs. Young thanked all who were taking part in the program.

Merchants Off to Flying Start Price May Join Hamilton Cards The champion Campbellville Merchants' ball club is off to another flying start this year.

She then called on Muriel Thompson, the secretary of the class, to come forward and accept these gifts. Miss Thompson expressed the gratitude of the directors and members of the class for these very generous and acceptable gifts.

Season Opener The Merchants open the season on the road this year and will play in Milton Saturday, May 21. Their opening home game will be played on Monday, May 23, and will be followed by the village's annual fireworks demonstration the same day.

A very pleasant hour followed when the auxiliary ladies served a delicious lunch of tea, sandwiches, tarts and cookies and and one juvenile and three junior teams will go together for an other league.

Service When You Need It... that's the kind of service that counts the most, and it's the kind of insurance service you can get only from a home town agent who is always nearby, eager and able to serve you.
