OBITUARY

Many at Services Saturday Mourn Death Mrs. J. Ridley

Mrs. Jack Ridley, who died on Wednesday, May 4, at Guelph General Hospital after a short illness, is mourned by her family and a wide circle of friends.

She is survived by her husband and two sons at their home, 44 Guelph St., her mother, Mrs. Agnes Jocque, brother Joe Jocque, sisters Mrs. Sam Tennant and Mrs. John Gray all at Acton, and a sister, Mrs. Matt Tyler of Phoenix, Arizona.

She was born at Oshawa, but had lived in Acton since 1924. She went to public and high school here, and went on to Guelph college. She was married here in 1941.

She was a member of the Thursday Toppers bowling league.

The funeral service at the Ramble Shoemaker funeral home on Saturday, May 7, was attended by many relatives and friends. The Rev. H. B. Stokroel conducted the service there and sat Fairview cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ed Footitt, Lorne Youngblut, Art Ford, Bern Van Fleet, Fred Laing and Kerwin McPhail.

They explained how apartheid began and the extent to which it goes. At swimming beaches the segregation lines reach three miles out into the sea.

They also noted, "The gold-rich South African government has spent millions of pounds for the native population."

Mrs. K. McPhail's group was in charge of the meeting which began with a pot luck supper. Mrs. W. Spielvogel was in charge of the business.

Further plans were made for C.G.L.E. Mother and Daughter banquet to be held later this month.
