Two Veterans Attend Boer War Reunion

Willfred Coles of Acton and Ernest G. Sheppard, R.R. 2, Acton, joined over 250 other Boer War veterans during their second and last reunion celebrating the 60th anniversary of the Boer War Veterans Association.

Mr. Coles attended the church parade held Sunday at St. Paul's United Church, Bloom St., Toronto. Both he and Mr. Sheppard attended the banquet on Tuesday evening at the King Edward Hotel.

Mr. Coles was impressed by the color party, bugle notes and beautiful organ music during the Sunday service.

Col. C. Gray of Acton was unable to attend the reunion as he is a patient in Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Toronto.

The three Acton area men are believed to be the last remaining Boer War veterans in the vicinity.

Transportation was provided by S. J. Brunelle.

Many were away from town, quite a few went north to open over the holiday weekend and their summer cottages.

Minor Sports Baseball Starts Play Two Games Tuesday Night

Minor Sports little leagues got off to a flying start Tuesday evening when two games were played at the M. Z. Bennett public school playground in the International league.

Bernie Benton, Barry Elliott, John Davidson, Jack Pringle, Roy Shultis, Billy Semine, John Mason, Steven Wolfe, Brian Wilkinson.

In the first game, Buffalo whopped Rochester 11-4 and the second tussle saw Toronto edge out a 10-9 win over Montreal.

Toronto 10 - Montreal 9
Toronto eked out a close win over Montreal on the same bill at the M. Z. Bennett school and after a battle to the final pitch, came out on top of a 10-9 score.

Buffalo took an early lead racking up two runs in the first inning while they held the Rochester squad scoreless. One more run was notched in the second for the winners. Rochester, taking advantage of all breaks, marked up a score when Mike Sargent belted a homer.

Although Montreal took a two-run lead in the first inning, the lead was short-lived as Toronto hit their stride. After nothing one run in the second and one in the third to tie the game up, they put 'bombs on ice when a fourth inning rally netted them six more runs.

Three more runs were scored by Buffalo in the third inning two in the fifth and three in the sixth. Rochester was held down to one run in the fifth and two in the sixth.

Toronto scored their final two runs in the sixth inning. Montreal, passing hard for victory, had two in the fifth, two in the sixth and three in the seventh but fell one run short of the mark to tie the game up.

In spite of damp weather, the boys were keen and eager and spectators can look forward to a lot of good ball this summer from these lads.
