Church Shows Steady Progress In Brick Work

After a setback with wet weather and a shortage of materials, work is well underway at the United church site. This week masons have begun the brick work on the new church sanctuary.

Laminated trusses were erected a few weeks ago and until the present time little work on the outside was visible although workmen have been busy on some inside construction.

Matching of existing brickwork posed a problem but this has been overcome and once again progress is being shown.

The tower to house the organ and balcony is beginning to spring up as well as other sections. Contractors expect to show steady progress until completion of the church.

Couple Exchange Rings In Campbellville Church

In a double ring ceremony in St. David's Presbyterian church, Campbellville, at four o'clock on Saturday, June 18, Marilyn Innes Moore and Kenneth Harold Elsie were married. The Rev. Harold C. Marr of St. David's was assisted by the Rev. Robert H. Armstrong of Erskine Presbyterian church, Hamilton, at the double-ring ceremony.

Standards of white chrysanthemums and candelabra with white candles decorated the church and Miss Shirley Chester played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Thomas Moore of Campbellville. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cecil Elsie of Guelph.

John Kitching of Moffat was soloist, singing Because, The Lord's Prayer, and O Perfect Love.

The bride chose a summer gown of gardenia white silk embroidered Swiss organza. The smoothly fitted torso bodice fashioned with a high portrait neckline had short capped sleeves and was accented with cut-outs of a forget-me-not pattern around the neckline. The full skirt patterned with clusters of forget-me-nots was detailed with a band of organza dipping softly to a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a dainty headress of maline flowers and pearls.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were Miss Daphne North, St. Catharines, as her maid of honor; Miss Marilyn Smith, Guelph; Miss Judith Elsie, Guelph, and Miss Ellen Post as bridesmaids, with Miss Anne Marsh as flower girl.

Pale Pink Gowns

All were gowned alike in waltz-length full-skirted dresses of pale pink nylon organza over taffeta designed with a fichu neckline caught at the fitted waistline with an organza bow. They wore picture hats of pink tulle and carried white baskets of sensation roses.

The bride's father gave her in marriage, while T. Brian Moore of Downsview acted as best man. The ushers were Kenneth Moore, Terrence Moore, Campbellville, Norman Marsh, Guelph and Herbert Hoegler, Kitchener.

Couple Exchange Rings In Campbellville Church

In the schoolroom of St. David's church, the wedding party received about 130 guests from Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Buffalo, Lindsay, Michigan and London as well as this district.

Mums, ferns and candles decorated the room where dinner was served.

The bride's mother received wearing a sheath of hyacinth blue chiffon over taffeta with softly shirred bodice, scooped neckline and short sleeves with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother chose for the occasion a two-piece ensemble of moss green pure silk shantung with box jacket and matching accessories, with a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Trip to Cape Cod

The couple left on a trip to Cape Cod, and after two weeks there will be making their home in Guelph.

For travelling, the bride wore a two-piece costume of brown pure silk shantung with pink hat and accessories, beige shoes and bag. A corsage of pink gardenias completed the ensemble.

The groom is a graduate of Toronto University faculty of Pharmacy, and is employed at Cooper's Drug Store in Acton. The bride is a graduate of the Hamilton General Hospital school of Nursing.

Showers, Tea

Before the wedding, the bride was the guest of honor at several showers. Her hostesses were Miss Daphne North, Hamilton; Mrs. Pauline Marsh and Miss Judith Elsie, Guelph; Mrs. John Kitching, Moffat; Miss Marilyn Smith at the Royal Hotel, Guelph, and Miss Katherine McPhedran, Campbellville.

A trousseau tea was held at the bride's home on Saturday, June 11, when 150 guests attended.

Knox Ladies' Aid Meeting at Church

Mrs. A. M. McPherson presided for the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid held in the church on Tuesday afternoon, giving a lovely thought for the day. The worship service included an old hymn, I've wandered far away from God and the president led the scripture lesson from Proverbs and members read it responsively.

The prayer was also given in unison reading the words of hymn 140. For the beauty of the earth and concluded with special thought for the absent, sick and shut-ins given by Mrs. F. Anderson.

Projects Discussed

In the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. J. Dennis gave the reports of the past month and reported other committee plans for a wedding to cater for late in July, were made and other business included discussion on the lighting at the front of the church and some painting to be done at the manse.

Mrs. A. J. Murray extended an invitation to hold the picnic at her home in July. Volunteers were named to plan the program for that event.

Quick Recovery

Mrs. J. Dennis contributed a reading "Jimmy's quick recovery" and the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

Ladies adjourned to the kitchen where a period of social fellowship was enjoyed convened by Mrs. J. Dennis.

Mrs. C. G. Jones passed on a vote of thanks to her and the assistants.

Mail Carrier for Many Years John A. Locker Dies Suddenly

Family and a host of friends were shocked to learn of the sudden death of popular mail carrier John Anderson Locker. He had gone to the station to get the mail from the 1 a.m. train early Saturday morning, and when he did not return, his wife notified police.

Constable Dave Kress found Mr. Locker at the loading platform at the post office where he had collapsed and died. Dr. W. Kenney was summoned.

A lifelong resident of this district, he was 63 years of age. He was born on May 29, 1897, in Nassagaweya township, son of the late James Samuel Locker and Margaret Anderson. He and his wife, the former Maud Barlow, were married in Rockwood, December 2, 1922. They came from Rockwood to Acton 27 years ago. Their home was at 87 Bower Ave.

As well as his wife, survivors include a daughter Olga (Mrs. Frank Thompson) R.R. 2, Acton, a brother Elwyn, Brantford, sisters Margaret, Rockwood and Phyllis (Mrs. H. Hauser) Guelph, and two grandchildren.

War Veteran

He served with the 164th Battalion for four years during World War I and in the occupation of Germany. He was a member of the Legion and there was a Legion service in his honor Sunday evening. He served with Acton

Rovers Pipe Birthday Cake To Guides at Closing Picnic

Nearly 100 Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies swarmed over the grounds of the Robert Little public school Monday evening as they took part in a picnic sponsored by the Scout and Guide Mothers and Group Committee, to wind up the season.

Games, songs, awards and a birthday cake highlighted the evening as keen competition kept the young boys and girls on their toes throughout the different events.

Leaders put the youngsters through their paces as they reviewed the year's training in the form of games. Red, white or blue ribbons were awarded to the winners.

Members of the Rover crew, headed by Laurie Doby in kilts and Scout shirt and hat and playing a stirring march on the bagpipes, carried aloft a large birthday cake, which they presented to the Girl Guides in honor of their 50th anniversary.

With everyone assembled around a huge campfire, the Rover crew made their way from the scout house to the group to present the cake to guide captain Mrs. T. Watson.

After several cheers and congratulations were offered, everyone retired to the scout house to taste the cake.

Present Certificates

Fire chief Jack Newton was present to award certificates to guides who had completed their fire training course. The following girls received certificates: Joan Ramsden, Margaret Guthrie, Jill Hurst, Gail Barbeau, Gail Green, Pat Blundell, Ruth Ann Leathertian, Sandra Hargrave, Jean Hart, Anne McCabe and Christine Blum.

A number of parents were present to join with the youngsters and take part in the sing-along.

As the last of the scouts, cubs, brownies and guides were seen leaving the scout house, members of the Rover crew were busy dousing the dying embers of the campfire.

Citizens' Band Plays at Erin

Acton Citizens' Band played before a crowd of over 300 Erin and district residents on Sunday when the Horticultural Society sponsored the annual Memorial Day Service.

The service was held in the cemetery and the band played hymns during the afternoon.

They were the only band in attendance and favorable remarks about their appearance and music were heard.

Stage Field Day At Two Schools

Postponed due to inclement weather last week, the annual field day of the Robert Little public school was staged Tuesday when pupils took part in races, games and track and field events. A sudden summer thunderstorm climaxed the day's activity.

Perspiring under the hazy sun, the boys and girls took an active interest in the day's activities, burning off excess energy prior to school closing Wednesday.

The M. Z. Bennett public school held their annual field day Friday of last week with everyone participating in the events.

Shorts, jeans and running shoes were the order of the day at both schools.
