S.S. Picnic, Services, Deaths New Merchant, Visits in News

The annual picnic of the Presbyterian Sunday school was held Saturday afternoon in Exhibition Park with a good attendance. John Birch had charge of all events in the games with assistance of members of the congregation.

Prizes were given for those who won in events. Mrs. George Scott won a prize for the number of peas in a jar. Richard Harris was recipient of a prize for the oldest one at the picnic. Following the sports a bountiful supper was partaken and all departed for home after a pleasant afternoon.

Amusing Games at W.A. Picnic on Lawn Tuesday

On Tuesday, June 28, the W.A. of Acton United Church held their picnic on Mrs. Roy Brown's lovely lawn on Bower Ave. Mrs. Earl Lambert gave the devotional.

The parlous committee reported on the work done on the parsonage which has been completely decorated. A new chesterfield, and bedroom suite etc., have been purchased.

Induction Service
Plans were made for lunch to be served after the induction service for the Rev. D. I. Engle which will be held in Knox Presbyterian Church on July 6.

Mrs. Evans read a short address and Mrs. Wilderspin presented Mrs. W. Ballentine with a gift on the occasion of her leaving to make her home in Guelph. The Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close.

Program of Games
Mrs. Ballentine, Mrs. J. Harris and Mrs. S. Holmes were in charge of the games as follows: most safety pins, Mrs. Lindsay; nearest birthday, Miss Mainprize; most articles in purse, Mrs. Agar; spot race, Mrs. McLean; Mrs. Veldehus; indian game, Mrs. E. Lambert; Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Shoemaker; clothes pin in bottle, Mrs. McEwan and Mrs. Johnson.

Most buttons on dress, Mrs. Lindsay; coin in bottle, Mrs. Lindsay. For the orange race the winning side received a sucker each.

Enjoy Pot Luck
A pot luck supper was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Ballentine entertained with one of her humorous readings. Mrs. Bennett gave a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Brown. All were very pleased to have Mrs. Harry Burns of Alliston present on this occasion.

Hold Family Reunion
Stage Games, Picnic
On Saturday, 45 members of the McCutcheon clan gathered on the church grounds for a reunion. There were games for the children, horseshoe pitching for the men, guessing games for all. The oldest lady present was Mrs. Will Smith and the oldest gentleman, Morgan Graham. Coming the farthest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Baidy, Markdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jestin, Paty and Nancy, visited in Rockwood Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNeil were Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay of Waldemar.

A number from the village attended the funeral on Tuesday afternoon for Wilbert Guild of Rockwood who died suddenly on Sunday. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Guild and family.

Neighbors were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Omar Manard in Toronto hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Manard purchased the log cabin and moved in last December. Sympathy is extended to Mr. Manard and family.

We welcome to the village Mr. and Mrs. Alan Lillie and son who moved into the church manse on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae West and Mrs. Hazel West, Acton, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Peavoy.

Dance Championships At Milton Saturday
The Junior Pipe Band took part in a full day's program at Milton Saturday when the first annual Ontario Highland Dancing Championships were held at the fair grounds there. About 500 fans watched 179 competitors. The event was most successful and may return next year.

ROCKWOOD

Funeral Service for Wilbert J. Guild

Funeral service was held Tuesday at the Rumley-Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton, and interment in Rockwood Cemetery. The late Wilbert J. Guild is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Jolliffe, Rockwood, and nephew of Rev. Charles J. P. Jolliffe, Rockwood.

Waterloo Student
In the absence of Rev. G. A. B. Moore who is on his vacation in company with Mrs. Moore and children to the west, a student from Waterloo College had charge of service at the United church Sunday morning.

During the service at St. John's church Sunday afternoon, Holy Communion was celebrated with the rector officiating and E. Slipp serving.

Following their moving to Port Credit last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd and members of the family were back again Sunday for the afternoon service.

New Members
Service at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning was well attended in connection with the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper being observed. Rev. Fred Williamson of Guelph was present for the occasion.

Dying the service Mr. Williamson officiated for a reception of new members into fellowship with the congregation, and also for a baptismal ceremony.

John Birch was at Ospringe Sunday in connection with anniversary services there. A few from Rockwood were present for the evening service.

Among those present at the service in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning were David Bauer and friend from Sudbury, Ontario.
