John E. Moles Gets Hydro Job

A Farm Sales Department has been set up by Ontario Hydro to assist farmers in making the best possible use of electricity in their farm operations. Manager of the department is John E. Moles, well-known radio and TV personality, who for the past four years was producer of "Country Calendar", CBC-TV's Sunday afternoon roundup of rural news and opinion.

Mrs. Leaman Thomson Passes on Holidays

Friends were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Leaman Thomson at South St. Marie Hospital early Sunday morning. They were on holidays when Mrs. Thomson took suddenly ill.

Mrs. Agar W.M.S. Hostess Minister's Wife Introduced

The July meeting of the United Church Women's Missionary Society was held in the evening of July 12 at the home of Mrs. Agar with 23 present. Mrs. D. Engel, the new minister's wife, was introduced to those present.

Slugs Anyone?

Yesterday, the busiest day of the week, Free Press printers kept taking time off to admire the newest machine in a plant already full of machinery — an Elrod strip caster. Many man-hours of tedious work are over with its arrival. It automatically and efficiently makes leads, slugs and base material... and if you really want to know what that means, drop in and have a look.

Health Unit Reports Chicken Pox Hits 13

June report of Halton county health unit showed 13 cases of chicken pox reported in the county, seven cases of measles, five cases of mumps and one case of scarlet fever. There were no polio cases reported.

BALLINAFAD

Meeting at Belwood Cottage Camp Award, Visits in News

Mrs. F. J. Shortill was hostess for the July meeting of the Evening Auxiliary. The president opened the meeting with hymn 260. Devotional was taken from Romans 1: 1-7. A sermon by Rev. J. A. Davidson relative to Christ's servant was read. Mrs. Mike Norton read a paper on Temperance.

It was decided to send used clothing to the Fred Victor Mission in Toronto. Mrs. Leo Jamieson showed pictures on India where children have been aided by UNICEF. Members are now more aware how much is gained by donations and also how deep the need is for help. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ray Swindhurst and Mrs. Jesse McEnery.

Meeting at Cottage

The W.A. held their July meeting at the cottage of Dr. and Mrs. Reid at Belwood. The meeting opened with the theme song, creed and the Lord's prayer in unison. The president, Mrs. T. Given, presiding. Mrs. George Edmunds was in charge of the devotional, the theme being "Children of Light". Roll call was answered by your favorite hobby.

Items of business were dealt with. It was decided to forward enough money to finish paying for the new organ in the church. Mrs. Robert McEnery, in charge of the program, gave a reading and two contests.

Supper in Tent

All sat down to a lovely supper under a big tent which Dr. Reid had put up and everyone enjoyed it. After the president had thanked Dr. and Mrs. Reid for the lovely afternoon spent with them the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

July Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. David McEnery attended the wedding of Miss Catherine Elliott and Mr. Wm. McHugh, Mrs. McEnery being a bridesmaid.

Miss Beth McEnery left last week for a holiday in Tennessee visiting at the homes of her uncles, Mr. Joe and Ross Dampier. Mr. and Mrs. Smith of St. Catharines visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Burton.

U.S. Visitors

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean last week were Mrs. Nona Gorton, Redd City, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Quiftenberry and family of Okem, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beswick, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dick of Hamilton.

4-H Club Girls Receive Silver Forks From W.I.

Limehouse Women's Institute held their July meeting in the Memorial hall with Mrs. Roughley presiding. 12 members, five visitors and nine 4-H girls were present. The meeting opened with O Canada followed by the Mary Stewart collect. Roll call was answered by when and how I use cheddar cheese.

After several items of business were discussed Mrs. Gishy, convener of agriculture and Canadian industries took over the meeting. It is always a pleasure to have the 4-H club girls attend and take part in the program.

See Milk Dishes

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, convener of Historical Research, read an article on vanishing village smithies. Mrs. Bert Benton gave a commentary on milk for the convalescent, showing various ways of serving attractive milk dishes. The club girls books were also on display. Current events were well taken by Heather Clarke. The ladies were favored with accordion solos by Diane Foster who plays remarkably well for her age.

family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Wanless of Agincourt.

Camp Award

Allan Snow enjoyed a week at Humber Glen Camp, Bolton. The boys of his cabin placed second in general proficiency.

Two Misfortunes

Miss Doreen Smith had the misfortune to have her leg hurt. While on a hay ride, a car side-swiped them. We trust she will soon be better.

We are sorry to learn Mrs. Maurice Baker is confined to bed for a few weeks with a cracked disc in her back.
