

Night School Offers 27 Courses Registration Night October 14

With night school application deadline September 30, the forms are snowballing at the home of applications secretary Mrs. J. Creighton. She pointed out this week that applications will still be accepted until registration night, October 14, however, stressing "We certainly don't want to turn anybody away!"

Forms have been printed in this paper and were handed out at the fair. More are available in many of the stores through town, as well as the Free Press office and stationery store. Classes are again Mondays and Tuesdays in the high school.

All Courses Listed
DRESSMAKING will again be one of the most popular courses. Six classes are offered altogether, one each night for elementary sewing, advanced sewing and tailoring. Elementary teacher is again Mrs. Edwards. Mrs. Cleaver of Guelph, who is teaching night school here, will teach advanced sewing and Mrs. Hartley returns to teach tailoring.

Other Monday classes are: CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH class will be directed by Mrs. Reed, high school teacher who is just back from a trip to Europe.

METALCRAFT course, taught by Mrs. Bull of Caledon, will include hammering of bowls, ash trays, bookends, boxes, planters etc.; aluminum etching and copper tooling if it's wanted and jewellery — not wire jewellery, but hammered and cut metal pieces.

FLOWER ARRANGING lectures take the first six Mondays before Christmas. Bruce Robinson of Guelph will direct the group, all of whom will be asked to bring garden flowers, weeds or branches suitable for Christmas decorations. Everyone will be taking part. The six Mondays after Christmas will be devoted to HOME AND LANDSCAPE GARDENING taught by Prof. Weale of the O.A.C. These courses are completely separate, and applicants may take one or both.

Missionary Describes Hardships In China at 40 Hours Devotions

On Sunday, September 25, the Forty Hours Devotions were officially opened in St. Joseph's Acton, with High Mass at 10:30 a.m. and closed with evening devotions on Tuesday evening following at 7:45.

This special devotion is an adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in memory of the forty hours during which the sacred body of Jesus Christ was in the Sepulchre. The devotion began in 1534 and is celebrated once a year in every parish, college, convent, novitiate and religious community.

Delivered Sermons
Rev. Hugh F. X. Sharkey, S.F.M., Scarborough Foreign Mission Society Missionary, of Nazareth House, St. Marys, Ontario, conducted the Forty Hours Devotions and delivered the sermons each evening.

Father Sharkey had spent many years as missionary in China. He said not only the priests and Catholics were driven out of China by the Communists but also the ministers and people of other Christian denominations.

Father Sharkey also served as missionary in the Dominican Republic, the West Indies, in the lesser Windward Islands, Barbados, South America and California, U.S.A.

In the course of his sermons during the Forty Hours Devotions, he told many interesting stories of the manifestations of the practice of the faith in these countries and the voluntary hardships and sacrifices suffered by the good Christian people.

Visiting Priests
Assisting at the evening devotions were Monsignor W. Hawkins, Junior Vicar General over the Diocese of Hamilton and pastor of St. Joseph's Parish; Monsignor F. McHugh, chaplain of the Mother House of The Sisters of St. Joseph, Bridgeview, Hamilton; Father J. L. McBride, former pastor of St. Joseph's, Acton; Father A. Callaghan, pastor of Rockwood Parish; Father J. Noonan, pastor of Our Lady of Guelph Parish; Father T. Clarken, pastor of Holy Rosary Parish, Guelph; Father R. Mc-

Donag, Father Minister of Ignatius College, Guelph; Father Oker Devent, pastor of Holy Cross Parish, Georgetown; Father Frank Morgan, assistant pastor of St. Clement's Parish, Preston; and Father V. J. Morgan, pastor of St. Joseph's, Acton.

During the Forty Hours Devotions, there was an early Mass at which Holy Communion was distributed at 6 a.m. each morning for those who could not attend the High Mass at 7:45 a.m. Father Sharkey preached at both Masses Sunday morning and celebrated the opening High Mass as well as those on Monday and Tuesday mornings.

Altars Decorated
The altars in the Sanctuary were most beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers and the choir under the direction of the organist Miss Irene Mulholland prepared special music for the annual devotions.

During each day of the Forty Hours, the parishioners took turns in vigil before the Blessed Sacrament exposed on the altar.

ROCKWOOD

Hold Anniversary Services At Presbyterian Church Sun.

During the offering, Mrs. Portland sang "Beside Still Waters" and played the accompaniment herself.

Autumn flowers presented a beautiful appearance in front of the platform. Weather conditions were very appropriate for the occasion. John Birch had charge of Mr. Marr's service at Campbellville during the morning.

In the evening, Mr. Birch was present and conducted the service and Mr. Marr had for his subject "The Hard Pillow." During the service a quartette set a record was contributed by Albert Gray, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Denham and Andrew Elliott.

Facts About Dancing...

It's a fact that you girls spend a fortune for hair-dos and make-up. It's a fact that this beauty costs so much because it lasts for such a short time and must be renewed over and over again.

It's a fact that if you would spend just a fraction of that amount only once — to learn how to dance — it would add natural beauty, poise and personality to your whole appearance for a lifetime and hours of fun to your social life. Dancing is so good to you as physical training and a relaxing hobby.

It's a fact that many girls think that if your partner can dance you just have to follow and you are dancing, if not it is your fault. But you are so wrong because even the best dance partner can't make you dance if you don't know how to do it yourself.

It's a fact that social life, more than ever, is based on modern ballroom dancing and that the trend is toward the Latin American steps.

It's a fact that men are reluctant to step out on the dance floor, because they don't know how to do the steps and therefore feel lost and insecure. Learning how to dance gives confidence and well balanced movements.

It's a fact that children, before they make their debut into the social world, should learn how to dance, because it helps them to popularity in their social circles.
