Outline H.S. Curriculum For Parents at Meeting

The Home and School general meeting Monday evening in the Robert Little school saw an increase in attendance that members hope is setting a new trend towards greater attendance in the future.

A well planned program by the high school staff headed by E. A. Hansen and Mrs. J. Galloway gave a comprehensive coverage of the curriculum from grade IX through to grade XIII. The public school parents circulated to various rooms to discuss the routines and curriculum problems with teachers representing both schools.

Pictorial Tour To West Coast

Mac Sprowl was the guest speaker of the Y's Men at their meeting last Thursday night and took the members on a pictorial tour from Huntsville to Victoria and back. The slides were very good. The running narrative was equally clarified and for several of the members there were fond memories awakened. Mr. Sprowl was formally introduced to the club and following the travelogue Clarence Rogvaldson thanked Fred Koch who in turn responded by giving thanks to Earl Brears who in turn made the presentation of an engraved letter opener to Mr. Sprowl.
