Extinguish Blaze At Resident's Home

The Esquering fire truck answered a call to the home of Robert Holmes on Monday evening and soon had the fire on the first floor under control.

Mrs. Mitchell attended the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Edna Proctor Gowlin, in Toronto on Tuesday of last week.

We extend sympathy to Robert Linham, who received a cable informing him of the death of his brother Ernest near Bristol, England, soon after his return from a visit with high.

Mrs. D. S. McDonald and Keith visited the Gibby's during the weekend. On Sunday all visited in St. Thomas.

The O. Mulder's of Georgetown and Mrs. Foster of Baden visited the James Noble's on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton and Neil Benton visited the W. Greenlees, Campbellville, on Sunday and attended St. David's Presbyterian anniversary.

Church services at Limehouse Presbyterian church will be withdrawn on October 16 in favor of Knox Georgetown anniversary services. Sabbath School will be held as usual.

Jack Quinton of Norval and Miss Anne Beamish of Mount Forest were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Benton. Bill Sanford was home from Pickering College over the weekend.

Freak Accident Kills Girl, 15

A 15-year-old Georgetown girl was killed and three others received minor injuries Monday afternoon in a freakish accident on Highway 7's "Wildwood Curve" near the outskirts of Georgetown.

Constance Bastelo of 7 William St., Georgetown, was killed instantly when she was run over by a car driven by a man who was not seen by the police. Const. William Bennett of North Halton O.P.P. explained the girl was a rear seat passenger in a car driven by William F. Engleby of 11 Kennedy St., Georgetown, which went out of control on the curve. It reportedly hit a signpost and as it rolled over, the girl was thrown from the car. Mr. Wright, following the Engleby vehicle, did not see the girl for the dust caused by the first car, and police believe his car hit the girl. She was pronounced dead at the scene by coroner Dr. Chamberlain of Georgetown.

Baking, Rummage Sale Success for Circle

The Friendly Circle of Acton United church held a successful baking and rummage sale in the basement of the new church on Friday, October 7.

There were bargains galore and customers picked up many useful items of clothing for a few cents. The baking tables, a most popular spot, were soon sold out—with homemade bread and buns the first to go.

Mixed Feelings

Close Nassagaweya S.S. 9 Doors Stage Wiener Roast Friday Night

Sorrow was mixed with merriment at the closing wiener roast staged at S. S. No. 9, Nassagaweya, Friday evening when pupils and parents gathered for the final event in the history of the school. Closing its doors after nearly a century, the school was shut Friday when children were transported to the new central school at Brookville.

Very few children were overjoyed at the thought of attending a bright, shiny new school and longed to return to their one-room school again. For many parents at the wiener roast, it meant looking back three or four generations.

Recollections were plentiful for Bill, Bob and Catherine Lasby, children of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lasby, as they were brought up to date on being the fourth generation to attend the old school.

Their great grandmother Mrs. Wallace Lasby, the former Jessie Anderson, trekked the miles from her home to the school as did their grandfather Charles Lasby. More recently their father Wallace Lasby attended the school and has vivid memories as did Mrs. Moffat. Presently attending the school is Norma Moffat, who makes the fourth generation to learn the three R's there.

Add Color to Phone Book Issue 1,655 Copies Here

Color is being introduced into another field of telephone service. C. S. Keith, Bell Telephone manager for the region said this week.

This year's edition of the telephone directory for Acton, Mr. Keith said, features a turquoise-colored cover. It marks the first time in years that the directory for this area has not been buff-colored. There is also a sketch of the covered bridge at West Muntrose on the cover. This illustration will replace the one of the Llet Rock at Elora carried on last year's book.

Telephone users were warned not to use their new directories until Oct. 16 for calls to Galt, Ayr, Elora, New Dundee, Rockwood and Plattsville, all of which will be converted to dial service that day. At the same time, new numbers will be introduced for all telephone subscribers in those five centres.

Acton subscribers will receive some 1,655 copies of the book of telephone numbers this year, compared with 1,571 last year. Circulation throughout the area served by the directory will total 109,800 up 6,300 from last year's distribution figure of 103,500.

HOT DOGS and freshie were the order of the day last Friday when parents and pupils staged a wiener roast at S.S. No. 9 Nassagaweya school before the doors were locked for the final time. Pupils are now attending the central school at Brookville. Shown above, left to right front row are Barbara Britton, Catherine Lasby, Bill Lasby, Ralph Nellis, Marlene Britton and Sharon Britton. Back row, Bob Lasby, Mrs. W. Lasby, Mrs. M. Nellis and Mrs. C. Britton. Everyone took a turn at roasting wieners over the roaring fire in the school yard.

HOT WORK roasting wieners by a roaring fire seems to be the thought running through everyone's mind at S.S. No. 9 Nassagaweya school as they brandish their sticks over the fire. Pupils, teacher and parents held a wiener roast to mark the closing of the school.

Tips on Fire Extinguishers

If you have a fire extinguisher in your home but don't know how to use it properly, you're in a fool's paradise. If you rely on it to close jobs in emergencies...

Know what the extinguisher is capable of doing. Some types are ineffective in certain situations. Know what these are.

Because extinguishers in general have a short operating time, there's no point in starting yours now, when you're 90 feet away from the fire. By the time you close in on the blaze, its effect may be lost.
