

Jones-Varey Vows Given At Double Ring Ceremony

The Church of Our Lady, Guelph, was the setting for the recent marriage of Miss Valerie Pearl Varey and Henry Joseph Jones. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Varey, 290 Arthur St. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jones, R. R. 1, Puslich, are the parents of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Father J. H. Newstead, Mr. John Harris, organist, played the traditional wedding music and George Glyn said "On This Day" and "Ave Maria". The church was decorated with white gladioli and tall white tapers.

Full Length Gown
For her wedding, the bride chose a full length dress of peau de soie trimmed with Chantilly lace. The bodice was fashioned with sweetheart neckline and long lily pointed sleeves. The full skirt was made with a bustle back effect and had a large bow from which flowed a short train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a coronet of tulle, studded with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Her only attendant was Miss Marilyn Rogavaldson, R. R. 4, Acton, as maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of pale lime green taffeta with hat to match and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by his brothers, with Edgar Jones as best man and David and Jim Jones acting as ushers.

Reception Held
The wedding reception was held in the Canadian Legion in Guelph. The bride's mother received her guests dressed in a suit of pale blue lace with bone colored accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations. The groom's mother chose a dark blue floral dress with accessories of pink and black. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The couple left for a honeymoon in Niagara Falls. For travelling the bride wore a wine colored dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias.

Out-of-town guests were from Acton, Toronto, Willowdale, Oakville, Arkell, Georgetown and Puslich. The couple will reside in Milton, Ont.

Mary Hunter, Jack Handy Wed In St. Alban's October 15

Saturday afternoon, October 15, the Rev. H. B. Stokreef heard the marriage vows of Mary Bertha Hunter and Jack George Handy. White mums decorated the church and Mrs. F. G. Oakes played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Irene Hunter, 31 Church St., Acton, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Handy, 34 Norton Cres., Georgetown.

A full length gown of ice white, fashioned of tulle and lace, was worn by the bride. The bodice of lace was fashioned with a pointed basque showered with sequins and pearls. The sleeves were long and scalloped. The bouffant skirt alternated floored and bands of lace and shirred tulle, ending in a wide tulle hemline. A dainty coronet of pearls and sequins held her finger-tip veil of tulle with appliques of lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses with stephanotis.

Miss Marleen Hunter, Acton, sister of the bride, and Miss Joan Handy, Georgetown, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Barbara McDonald of Brampton was maid of honor. They wore lilac embroidered taffeta, the bow-trimmed bouffant skirts slightly belled and the long torso bodice featuring brief sleeves and rounded necklines. Yellow floral headresses and yellow carnation bouquets were chosen to complement their waltz length gowns.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Ronald Hunter, and the groomsmen were Harvey Handy, Ushers were Marvin Hunter and Doug Tucker.

Out-of-town guests were present from Georgetown, Brampton, Toronto, Picton, Kitchener, Haliburton, Alton and Glen Williams. In spite of a recent operation, the groom's grandmother attended from Haliburton.

Trip to Florida
A reception was held at the bride's home when her mother received wearing a printed silk dress with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a two-piece broadcloth powder blue suit with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage.

The couple left on a trip to Florida, and are making their home in Georgetown. The groom is employed by Trans Canada Air Lines.

For travelling the bride wore a powder blue suit with pink accessories, with a pink orchid.

EBENEZER
W.A. Leads Program At Centennial Manor
(Intended for last week)
Ebenezer W.A. spent a very enjoyable afternoon down at Halton Centennial Manor. Members of the W.A. conducted a short program of music and humorous readings, which everyone enjoyed.

Several ladies from Ebenezer joined in fellowship with the Aberfoyle ladies for their thank offering meeting which was held in Aberfoyle United church. Mrs. Ken Griffiths was the speaker for this meeting.

A number from Ebenezer attended the program, tea and bake sale which was held in Eden Mills United church. Eden Mills W.A. reports a nice remuneration for their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Early and Mr. J. D. Lewis returned to Colborne on Monday. It is almost unbelievable the amount of snow there is between Orangeville and Singhampton. The snow plows were out at Singhampton and some of the hills were very treacherous.
