

Marjorie Mallon Weds Calvin Sprowl Oct. 22

The altar of St. Joseph's church, Hamilton, decorated with pink and white mums for the marriage of Marjorie Mallon and John Calvin Sprowl at noon on Saturday, October 22. Rev. Father Hofmann C.R. heard their vows.

The bride, who comes from Ireland, had been living in Hamilton and two of her sisters who live in Hamilton now were her attendants. Another sister flew from Ireland for the wedding. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mallon of Lislahy, Derry, Northern Ireland.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sprowl, R. R. 4, Acton, and is a well-known well driller.

Mrs. Louise Robertson played the organ and accompanied Nicholas Jennevoise, who sang Ave Maria.

Tiers of Tulle Lace

The bride's gown, in traditional white, was floor length. Over tulle, Chantilly lace formed the bodice with wide boat neckline and long sleeves. The gracefully flowing skirt was formed of tiers of gathered tulle and Chantilly lace on the tulle overskirt, which featured two wide panels of lace from waist to floor. Her fingertip-length veil was very full and fell from a small-crown type cap studded with pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses and white carnations with white satin ribbons looped loosely among the blooms.

Miss Bridget Mallon was the maid of honor, and Miss Lillian Mallon was bridesmaid. They wore shrimp-colored dresses with full flaring skirts and matching hats and shoes. They carried semi-cascades of white carnations and red roses.

The bride's cousin, Vincent Mallon of Whitby, gave her in marriage. Groomsmen were Mac Sprowl, Acton and Tim Connelly, Hamilton. The ushers were Jack Marshall of Acton and James Daly, Hamilton.

Many Guests

Guests were 7 present from Northern Ireland, Whitby, Brampton, Georgetown, Guelph, Hagersville, Hamilton and Acton. They gathered after the ceremony for dinner at the Hillcrest restaurant, Hamilton.

A friend of the bride, Miss Margaret Roth, received for her wearing an autumn haze dress with matching hat and shoes, accented by white flowers. Mrs. J. R. Sprowl wore for her son's marriage a blue two-piece dress with matching hat and shoes and pink flowers.

The couple left on a trip to New York City and for her going-away ensemble Mrs. Sprowl wore an autumn haze suit with beige accessories and a pink and white corsage.

They returned the end of last month and are living at 8 Home St., Apt. A, Guelph.

W.I. Plans School Reunion Open House Held at School

A former resident, Mrs. Margaret Robertson who now resides in Guelph was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute. Nine ladies were present to hear a splendid address on "Public Relations" by Mrs. Norman Jamieson at Elbra, district president, who said public relations is basically following the Golden Rule and 9/10 doing and 1/10 talking. She also said your community and your Institute branch is just what you make it.

The speaker also stressed, patience, humour and good sense when working with others, be kind and regard other people's feelings.

Mrs. R. Taylor gave an informative report of the recent workshop conducted by Miss Frances Hucks of the Department on "Eat to Live". She cautioned all to do something about our way of eating and watch our food buying.

Mrs. E. Archibald presided and gave a report of the District Directors meeting when contests were planned for the District Annual - Hooked rug - new made in 1960-61; loaf of homemade bread and a two-egg cherry pie.

Mrs. K. Stubbington read the minutes, financial statement and thank-you notes.

Plan Reunion

A committee to plan for a school reunion next summer and the dedication of the Cairn was named - Mrs. M. Jackson, Mrs. C. Storey, Mrs. Allan McCrae and Miss E. Jones.

Plans were also made for the members' Turkey dinner to be held at the next meeting and a Christmas gift exchange.

Mrs. W. Arvey extended a vote of thanks to the speaker, hostess and all who had helped make such a pleasant afternoon possible.

Mrs. H. Theaker conducted a geography quiz with Mrs. McCrae being the prize winner.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. S. Fuller served refreshments and a social chat enjoyed.

Mrs. S. Anderson, teacher and pupils of the Junior room held a Halloween party at the school, when the mothers were guests. A short program was enjoyed and lunch was served.

Open House at School

On Friday afternoon Mrs. N. Rathbun and pupils of the senior room held open house when again the mothers were guests. All had an opportunity to hear the children's speeches which had been prepared for the recent public speaking contest. Each one was quite interesting and several budding orators are in the making - the speeches were interspersed with several choruses which added variety.

Gail Fuller chose as her topic, "Bottleneck of the St. Lawrence Seaway".

Beverly Bruce "Documents in Miniature".

Linda Ferguson "A New Look at Niagara Falls".

Bobby Bruce, "From Sunlight to Ice Cream".

Muriel McCutcheon, "Alexander Graham Bell".

Carolyn McEwan, "What is a Little Girl?".

Brian Fuller, "What is a Little Boy?".

Barry Bruce, "The Polaris Missile".

Maryanne Robertson, "The Most Romantic Castle in the World".

Marnie Buck, "Judging by appearances".

Phyllis Lorraine Tyler Wed in U.S. Ceremony

A very lovely wedding of interest to Acton relatives and friends took place September 2 in Phoenix, Arizona, of Phyllis Lorraine Tyler daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt A. Tyler, formerly of Acton, to Richard Gail Gritman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gritman of Beloit, Kansas. In St. Paul's Episcopal church the double ring ceremony took place by candlelight at 7:30 p.m. Baskets of white gladiolus, spiral settings of white markers and white carpet formed the setting for the wedding.

Carried White Orchid

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father wearing a white embroidered floor length tulle gown with a fitted bodice and tiered bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of fine illusion veiling was caught to a scalloped head-dress of iridescent sequins and tiny pearls. She carried a white orchid pinned to a white prayer book with 24 stephanotis and white satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Carol Wallace, sister of the bride wearing a dress of crystal blue nylon over tulle with fitted lace bodice, large puffed sleeves and full skirt, with crystal blue crown shaped veil head-dress. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Bridesmaids were Betty Ann Tyler, sister-in-law of the bride and Ola Mae Barnes, friend of the bride, dressed alike in shrimp nylon and deep shrimp tulle with fitted lace bodices, large puffed sleeves and full skirts with shrimp crown-shaped veil head-dresses. They carried cascades of white carnations tipped with pink and white streamers.

In White Jackets

Attending the groom was a friend, Richard Stout. Ushers were Robert Tyler, brother of the bride and Michael Lackner, friend of the groom. The men all wore white jackets and black trousers.

The organist was Mrs. Nan Henrich, the soloist, Dick Benner, who sang The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church hall for 150 guests with the bride's table decorated in palms and fern.

Toastmaster was Clifford Wallace, friends of the bride's family, and many lovely telegrams of congratulations received from relatives and friends were read by the bride's brother Robert Tyler. A second reception was held for the wedding party and guests on the patio and lawn of the bride's home decorated with colored lights and patio candles.

Mothers Receive

Receiving for the bride was her mother dressed in copper lace over beige tulle with green and brown accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Receiving for the groom was his mother, dressed in sandalwood embroidered silk with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For her going away outfit the bride chose an American Beauty wool sheath dress with black accessories, and white orchid. For two weeks' honeymoon the bride couple went to Colorado and Kansas and will reside in their home at 1829 E. Cambridge, Phoenix, Arizona.

The bride is employed with the Valley National Bank and the groom employed as a cable splicer with the Mountain States Telephone Co. The bride was formerly employed with the Bank of Montreal in Acton.

The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother. The bride wore the same wedding gown her sister was married in September 1, 1956. Guests were present from Texas, Kansas, Northern Arizona and Phoenix.

A tea was held for the wedding party and close friends the night of the rehearsal.

Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Tyler for a miscellaneous shower. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride, gams were played and a lovely lunch served.

A reception was given by relatives and friends of the groom in Beloit, Kansas for the couple. A tea was given by the bride's mother and sister September 14 at the home of the bride's parents.

Thank All Assistants UNICEF Hallow'een

Once again we should like to thank you most sincerely for your really splendid coverage of this year's "Hallow'een for UNICEF" campaign.

There is an increasing awareness of the real meaning of this crusade - by children - for children.

It is only by educating our young people by telling them of the hunger, sickness and poverty in so many countries of the world that we shall enlist their help, and encourage them to share their Hallow'een fun.

We should like to thank, through your column, all those who helped in this year's drive, the service clubs, the industries, and various organizations of the town who so generously contributed in time and with donations, to the success of the evening.

Yours very truly,

Margaret Wilson and Ileen Buckner.

Cocooners for UNICEF in Acton.

LYNDA MANN and Robert Paul exchanged marriage vows in Knox Presbyterian church parlors on October 29. The groom is a student in chemical engineering at the University of Waterloo and the couple are living in Kitchener. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Mann, Acton.

Euchre Party Aids Retarded

A party was held at the home of Mrs. W. Elliott on Saturday, when a pleasant evening was spent playing euchre. Numbers were smaller than expected, but many generously sent their admission fee and the sum of $20.15 was handed over to the principal of the Sunshine school for Retarded Children ($10.00 of this donated by A & B Supermarket) to start the drive in Acton.

On view were some of the articles made by the Retarded Children themselves, car cushions and attractive beach or shopping bags, place mats etc. Some of these were sold, and orders were given by several of the guests, which was very encouraging for the teachers and children alike.

Prizes were won as follows: 1st ladies, Mrs. Joe Kenner; 2nd ladies, Mrs. Doris Kenner; 1st gentleman, Mrs. Mary Fountain; 2nd gentleman, Mrs. Anderson; Ladies low, Mrs. Lyle Cripps; men's low, Mrs. Wm Elliott; and the door prize was won by Mrs. Mildred Sterritt. Prizes were donated by Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. R. Buckner.

A very nice lunch was served, cream was donated by Lorne Masales; playing cards by Geo. Gould; T. Mullen and Mrs. Ted Elliott.

A large quantity of felt strips from a hat factory in Guelph was taken to Milton by Mrs. Jeffares to be used for handicraft, through the kindness of Mrs. W. Dumarch.

—Brace yourself — only 37 shopping days until Christmas! —Starting next Thursday you'll be able to travel west on highway 401 to highway 8 near Preston.

Slides on Angola At Mission Circle

The Baptist Women's Mission Circle held their November meeting November 3 at 8 p.m. in the Church Auditorium. The president Mrs. C. Land-borough opened the meeting with the singing of Hymn "Come Let Us Sing of a Wonderful Love and Prayer."

Miss Alice Pilkington read the minutes of the previous meeting and called the roll. Treasurer Mrs. T. Hillyer read the financial report which was most encouraging.

Miss Pilkington opened the devotional period reading the Scripture from the 1st Chap of John's Gospel and showed a beautiful film slides called "Soft Voices in Angola". Mrs. J. Rudd closed with prayer.

A social hour followed with Mrs. C. Baillie and Mrs. G. Ralston as tea hostesses after the hymn, "He Leadeth Me" was sung by the members.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick de Jong of Kathleen St., Guelph. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer John Fisher, R. R. 1, Guelph.

Rev. J. Hawkes of Erin officiated for the ceremony. Organist was Mrs. G. Sunter of Osprings.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of nylon chiffon over tulle and tulle, styled with draped neckline and brief shirred sleeves. The gown also featured a set in yoke of alencon lace with matching lace applique over the hipline. The bouffant skirt was enhanced by soft panels flowing down the back from the neckline. She also wore elbow length gloves. A full crown of sequins and pearls held her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion and she carried a white Bible decorated with pastel flowers.

Mrs. Arlene Archibald of Acton attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Audrey Mann and Miss Beth Simpson of Guelph while Miss Laurie Archibald, R. R. 3, Acton, was flower girl.

They wore identical ballerina length gowns of nylon organza over net and tulle, styled with fitted bodices and shirred waistline giving a cummerbund effect. Large stand-up collars flattered the shoulderline. Matching petal caps with face veils and bouquets of pink and white carnations completed their ensembles.

Frederick de Jong Jr., Guelph, attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Frederick Archibald, R. R. 3, Acton and Frederick Weber of Guelph. Young Steve Archibald was ring bearer.

For the reception in the Club Room of the Royal Hotel, the bride's mother received her guests wearing a sheath dress of blue broaded silk with matching bolero and corsage of pink rosebuds.

The groom's mother wore a fuchsia jersey dress with matching feathered hat, beige accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds.

For a honeymoon trip to New Brunswick and the north-eastern United States, the bride wore a chocolate brown suit with green and beige accessories.

The couple are residing in Guelph.

Out-of-town guests attended from Acton, Erin, Stamford and Vancouver.

Demonstrate Lessons On Television Show

With Retarded Children's Week coming up, Mrs. Robert Buckner and two Acton girls appeared on Elaine Cole's Telescope program on Kitchener television Wednesday at one o'clock. Mrs. Buckner explained the need for a new school in this district, and told of some of the teaching.

Ann Gordon and Terry Dowling, M. Z. Bennett school students, got time off to demonstrate exercises, songs and action songs that are taught to the retarded.

They were on the screen about 10 minutes.

Good Sale

Pappy Day campaign chairman Vic Patrick reported an excellent sale of pappies during the canvass last Friday.

He expressed his pleasure at the response in this worthy cause to raise funds for veterans and their families.

Scottish Dance Club Executive Meeting

A full meeting of the executive of the Acton Scottish Dance Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson to discuss the forthcoming St. Andrew's Night Dance, to be held in the Legion Hall on Nov. 25.

It was announced by Bob Foyers that High School exams had been put forward one week, and on that account it was decided to cancel the "Teenagers' Choice" Dance on Nov. 26. Bill Connal stated he had started on arrangements for the Burns' Supper to be held in the Royal Hotel Guelph, in January. He requested that tickets be printed at once, as he had already been asked for them.

Mrs. R. Buckner commented to draw up a program for the Christmas party Family Night on December 17 with the help of Mr. and Mrs. Izatt, Mrs. J. Donnelly and Mrs. W. Wilson. A "bring and buy" table was agreed upon, which had proved most successful last year instead of the exchanging of gifts.

The names and the prize winners at the Hallow'een party at the Y were Pat Blundell as a rag doll and Elaine Hughes as a coal black mammy. In the grown up party, Laury Duby was first man as "a blonde" and Mrs. S. Newton as "a freckled school-girl".
