ams start in two weeks.

-Final details of Acton's UNI CEF collection will be given at a later date.

o'clock tomorrow morning . . to remember.

-The farmers are quite pleased stand the situation!" with the recent rains. They will help with the spring planting.

unemployment at a minimum.

-Georgetown Golf and Country Club will have its remaining nine holes open for next season.

due the middle of this month. lately?

-Junior Farmers from Halton are participating in the Royal competitions today.

gas during an off breeze. They imagine that?

der construction there, too.

-Georgetown council, through pointment of a city manager. Halton M.P.P. Stan Hall, is seeking an audience with Minis- - For the sake of the baggy town's case for a ninth line ac- in 1960" column 50 years from cess to 401 highway.

toys and gifts - they're all on is the new president of the Unthe counters right now. The bus- ited States. And television sets inessmen are looking well ahead gave an eerie blue shine in darkand anticipate a busy season.

their popular nursery school ag who was a leather finisher at Black Preceptory and a past com- porium, Pennsylvania. ain this year. It was too much Beardmore and Co. Ltd. here for mitteeman of-Grand Lodge of work for too, few.

-We scotchtaped up an apt -Don't forget to pause at 11 new motto in our news office this week - "Anyone who can remain calm in the midst of all this confusion simply does not under-

-It's pretty hard to maintain interest in politics between elect -Don't forget to plan your win- ions. The attendance at the anter works program now and keep | nual Progressive - Conservative Association meeting in Milton Friday was an indication.

invention in the clothing field in years: those gay' and gaudy -Fourth instalment of taxes leotards. Bevies of giggling girls skipping home from school are Heard any other, cheery news as gay as summer gardens on the greyest days.

-Last week's article on the caves at Rockwood was enjoyed Winter Fair's livestock judging by readers, we were glad to hear. Apologies, though: yes, you're right. One of the illustrations -Four Acton men fishing in was missing. Some hocus-pocus in the back shop.

had to row to shore. Can you | - David Hastings, partner in the law firm of Hastings and Payne which has an office here. -The Anglican church in has announced he will not seek Georgetown has initiated a bus re-election as mayor of Guelph. service for Sunday School child- He says he will return to his law ren. A new Baptist church is un practice since the mayor's office has become more than a part time job. He recommended ap-

now, we might as well record something all of us know well -Christmas cards, decorations, enough-Senator Jack Kennedy ened houses late Tuesday night

TARE MANAGEMENT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT Three Local Men Injured When Car Rolls in Ditch

Three young Acton men were treated for minor injuries when their car plunged off the road and New S.S. Lessons into a ditch at Stewarttown early Saturday afternoon. Mill St. received two stitches to United Church heard two guests Ontario Christian Women's Felhis furehead and facial lacerat- at their regular training meet- lowship. ions; Wayne Spires of 18 Main ing Sunday evening. First was The theme address, "Decision church, when plans were made St. required nine stitches to close the Rev. George James of Toron- Determines Destiny" was given for the crection of modern wash a gash in the right eye and also to from the United Church pub by Byron F. Howlett, local min- rooms and other local improvesuffered facial lacerations; and lishing house who suggested ister. Leonard Porte of 58 Lake Avenue ways of using the material isreceived nine stitches to his jaw sued. and two to the right eye plus fac. The publishing house is set. Christ Disciples were well attendby Dr. A. E. McIntosh of nearby riculum which will be ready in table commenced with worship close of the business session.

Georgetown. Flips in Ditch Halton O.P.P. explained their car was southbound on the Seventh Line half a mile south of No. 17 sideroad, when it missed a curve and flipped info the ditch. The car, owned by Edward Footitt of said the lessons are scheduled so 152 Queen St., received about $500

The accident happened about 2 p.m. as the men were driving to Oakville to bowl.

Following dismissal to patrol grocery shower netted items for corners, a quiz of guide history the hampers on the penny sale was organized. There were 20 table. questions. The questions and Members will assist at the answers were read, then the quest blood donor clinic November 17, tions read again while the pat- and were urged to take part in rols wrote the artswers. The the Remembrance Day parade

The Daffodil patrol took the ings so far this year have begun with a pot luck supper. game time until camp-lire. The meeting closed with camplire, Gently Falls the Light of Day and Taps.

industry

To Start in 1964

Driver Kenneth A. Dodds of 109 Sunday School teachers of the G. Robertson, president of the 1963. Beginning next September there will be new story papers. Const. Ron Stratton of North One will still be called Onward, while Canadian Boy and Canadian Girl will be combined in 1961, and called Encounter. Lessons for the first quarter of 1961 are taken from John. He tar ahead, they are already in

Then Miss Wilma Unwin of Burlington United Church spoke on group teaching, suggesting larger classes replace the present

GIRL GUIDE NEWS | Finalize Details For Chapter Bazaar

After God Save the Queen and | Finalizing plans for the chapthe Guide prayer, patrols were ter bazaar the end of this month dismissed to corners to prepare occupied members of 'Lakeside for Friday. On Friday the 1st chapter LO.D.E. at their meet-Acton company will be partic- ing in the Legion Hall Tuesday ipating in the parade to com-memorate Remembrance Day. H. Helwig as conveners. A points were added duto the in- tomogrow. The Christmas party will begin at 8 p.m. All meet-

> -Not all returns from the C N.I.B. canvass are in yet.

SUN LIFE progressive company in a progressive

WM. W. GRAY - 107 Court St. TR 8-2421

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

months and was in his 78th year. key and ball fan.

He was born in 1883 in Montreal and was married in 1912 at Wingham. His wife survives him as well as two daughters and one son, Mrs. C. Ireland, Woodbridge; Mrs. J. M. McDonald, Maple; H. C. Frankum, Weston; a brother Harry T Frankum, Harriston, a sister Miss Lillie Frankum, Harriston; and four grandchildren.

before coming to Acton. He was Laughlin and Charlie Heard, and in charge of mixing the dyes for from Guelph John Whiteside and -Our nomination for the best the light leathers at Beardmore's. Tom Fox.

and interment was in Hillcrest ing. cemetery, Woodbridge. Guelph, and H. Watson, London. He attended school in Montreal ton were C. K. Browne, Joe Me us.

Tossed 36 Feet

Boy Suffers Fractured Skull When Struck by Skidding Car

Leonard Leggett, 11 year-old General Hospital for further son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leggett, treatment. fractured skull and broken leg. Acton O.P.P. Detachment invest- who had never visited there bewhen he was tossed 36 feet when struck by a car near his home Saturday afternoon.

George Frederick Allan, Eden Mills, driver of the vehicle told the point of impact. police he slammed on his brakes but the car skidded and struck the young boy as he crossed the lily recently moved to Acton from McIsaac's garage where he was is also a patient in Guelph hosattended to by Dr. W. G. C. pital where she had her sixth afternoon and we were introducter of Highways Cass to state the eyed reporter writing the "Back Kenney and later sent to Guelph baby on Sunday.

Huntsville when the tannery was The youngster was carried into closed in the north, Mrs. Leggett

Mariana Mariana Mariana and a control of the

EVERTON

William Stewart Named Central Area President

A number from the local con-service at 9.30 a.m. followed by gregation attended the Central Sunday school. District Rally at Hillsburgh on Sunday evening.

Wm. Stewart had the honour ian Youth FellowshipiG presented by Wm. Stewart, for which concluded with the readthe church, by Miss Donna Kings. ing of the immortal poeni, "In bury, president of Ontario Christ- Flander's Field." ian Youth Fellowship by Mrs. D.

Winter Time Table

Services at the local Church of

The minister, Byron F. How lett, chose as his theme "Who of being named the new presid- will rule the world?" Special ent of the District. Reports were prayers were made in observation of Remembrance Sunday

Plan Improvements

On Monday evening a congregational meeting was held at the ments. The church gratefully acknowledged a recent bequest by a friend of the congregation.

Donuts and coffee, served by ial lacerations. All were treated ting up a completely new cur- ed on Sunday. The winter time the C.Y.F. were enjoyed at the

Harvey Laverty Heating

SALES AND SERVICE

REPAIRS TO ALL MAKES OF FURNACES CUSTOM SHEET METAL WORK OIL AND GAS FURNACE INSTALLATIONS CONVERSION BURNERS

MAIN STREET N.

SOLAR SLICED

200 OR 300

10 LB. BAG

KLEENEX

ROCKWOOD

20 OZ. TINS

PKG.

(FORMERLY STEINBERG'S)

OUR MOTTO:

PERSONALIZED SERVICE

OPENING SPECIALS

WATCH OUR

TOP

QUALITY

MEATS

LOW

PRICES

PHONE UL 6-9934 ROCKWOOD

24 Hour Service

Students Report

Active in LO.L., Wally Frankum Was Tannery Employee 50 Years Classes Easier in Snowy Emporium

ember 3, for Wallace James Fran- member of LOL 467, Acton, an After enjoying one week in Ac-

50 years, had been ill for four Ontario West. He was also a hoc- luggage into the car, but to no avail; there just wasn't enough especially beautiful. Funeral service at Woodbridge room. Fortunately, Rotarian Ron on Thursday, November 3, was Lewis managed to borrow a sta- to "Charlie's Tavern" where we conducted by the Rev. B. F. And- tion wagon and we pulled out of had spaghetti and meatballs. The rews and the Rev. Dr. Howick, Acton at 11 o'clock Sunday morn- proprietor and other guests got a

> Acton, W. Street and B. Flanigan, us. He led us back to Emporium Later wa tried our hands at ten tended classes on Problems of Attending the funeral from Ac- waiting with a warm welcome for decide whether it's easier or har-

12 Inches of Snow

We awoke the next morning to blizzard, during which 12 inches of snow fell on top of the mounam making it impossible to reach the next town. There was no school Monday because of a Teachers' Institute, which is comparable to our Teachers' Convention, so we managed to catch up towns.

on a little lost sleep. In the afternoon we were taken on a tour of the Sylvania plant where television tubes are made. This was very interesting to us igated and stated the Allen car fore. Tuesday morning was spent in skidded approximately 110 feet the classrooms of Cameron before the impact and the young boy was found 36 feet ahead of County High School. At noon, we attended the Rotary Club meeting where Mr. Hansen gave an ex-Mr. and Mrs. Leggett and famcellent outline on the Canadian system of education.

Seniors Honored

began to play as they marched was nearly turned over.

That night one of the girls held a pizza party. This was a new experience for us as we had never ade of 60 high school bands from ! tasted pizza before.

Municipal Treasurer at the

INSTALMENTS ARE DUE AS FOLLOWS

unpaid after the 16th day of May.

SUPERMARKET

AYLMER

For supper that night we went the Penn State Alma Mater. This real kick out of watching us where our hosts' families were pin bowling. We're still trying to Democracy, band, chorus, choir der than our bowling.

Paint the Town

Thursday morning we attended classes again and in the afternoon we painted Hallowe'en pictures on the store windows. Two students are assigned to each window in town. This helps to cut down vandalism and soaping of A. windows which prevails in most Garbed in our painting clothes. we went to the local radio station where we were questioned about Canada and our impressions of Main Street, Acton, suffered a Corporal Ray Mason of the and also to the American students Emporium. The parents of the exchange students held a party for us that night at "The Moose". The senior class attended also.

We spent all day Friday in class, with lunch in the school caleteria. We went to a Yearbook Dance that night in the school gymnasium sponsored by the Five o'clock on Saturday morning came much too soon for our An assembly was held in the liking. We struggled out of bed and arrived at the school at six ed to the student body. The most o'clock to leave for Pennsylvania impressive thing about this as State University. It was a three! sembly was the treatment of the hour drive from Emporium. On senior class. Everyone in the aud- the way, one of the buses had its itorium stood up and the band rear-view mirror knocked and

60 H.S. Bands

TAX NOTICE -- 1960

MUNICIPALITY OF ACTON

FOURTH INSTALMENT NOW DUE

now payable in four instalments. Taxes are payable to the Town of Acton Municipal Office

(Y.M.C.A. Building)

FOURTH INSTALMENT - NOVEMBER 15th

According to the Tax Collection By-law a penalty of 12 of 1 per cent, per month will be added on the amount remaining other clauses as printed on the reverse side of every Tax Notice and explained in detail on every Tax Bill.

MAKE PAYMENT NOW AND TAKE YOUR TAX NOTICE

WITH YOU WHEN MAKING PAYMENT

J. McGEACHIE, Collector

24 OZ. JAR. EA.

24 OZ. JAR EA.

This penalty applies to each instalment in a similar manner. The attention of Ratepayers is directed to the Penalties and

Attention is drawn to the payment of 1960 taxes, which are

At nine-thirty, there was a parall over Pennsylvania State: In

Funeral service was held at | He was very active in Orange By Doreen Gordon, Susan, Wilson | The next day we attended class the afternoon we saw Penn State Woodbridge on Thursday, Nov- Lodge organizations; was a past Hrian Barbeau & James Ironsides ses again in the morning and in play the University of West Virthe afternoon we were taken on ginia at the new Beaver Stadium -It's unfortunate that the Y kum who passed away in York honorary member of LOBA, ton with the students from Em. a tour of Emporium and the sur- which holds 60,000 people. At Ladies' Auxiliary was unable to County Hospital, Newmarket, the Guelph; a member of 1331 Orange porium, it was our turn to return gounding district by one of the half time the Penn State Blue locate enough assistants to start previous Tuesday. Mr. Frankum, Lodge, Guelph and 877 Royal with them to their homes in Em. Rotarians. From one place on the Band led the sixty high school We tried and tried to get all the whole town. Because of the fall formed the letters P.S.U. Then colors, the surrounding hills were they played five selections, including Autumn Leaves, America and today.

was the climax of our wonderful) Our general opinion concerning their school system was that we When we arrived at Fort Eric wrapping the spaghetti around work much harder than they do. Pallbearers were Fred Stuckey, the secretary of the Emporium our forks and trying to get it to All of their text and work books Stan Collet and John Robson of Rotary club was waiting to greet our mouths before dropping it. are supplied. On one day, we at-

> They have 55 minute classes with 25 minutes for lunch. Instead of having their marks out est mark in the class receives an and art. These are all considered

No Need for U.N.?

This was a very enlightening visit for both Canadian and American students. As one of the Emporium teachers remarked, if student exchanges were continued and the exchange of ideas carried on more exensively there would be no need for the United Nations

Thank you, Rotary!

(Intended for last week) The meeting, this evening opened with God Save the Oueen and subjects for their graduation dip- the Guide Prayer. Following roll call the company was dismissed to patrol corners for a discussion

The Senior Patrol was in charge of 100, they are graded on the of games until camp fire. The curve. These means that the high- Rose Patrol took over campfire. We closed with Softly Falls the Light of Day and Taps.

STROLLERS WOODEN AND CHROME

 DESK SETS · KIDDIE CARS

DOLL CRIBS

LAY-AWAY NOW FOR CHRISTMAS

A deposit will hold your selection

Acton Home Furnishings

We'll

on-time deliveries of cleaner-burning

TEXACO FUEL CHIEF

Dissatisfied with the fuel oil you're getting, or the service? Then call us!

Texaco Fuel Chief is backed by the prestige of the company that gives you famous Texaco Sky Chief and Fire Chief gasoline. It's the finest fuel oil you can buy bar none. It burns completely, is cleaner, smokeless, non-corrosive, and free flowing in cold weather. Most important, we schedule deliveries to meet your needs vou'll never run short.

Number 7 Hwy.

5 Miles East of Acton

WE ARE CONTINUING WITH PINKY STAMPS

FREE DELIVERY

POTATOES

PINEAPPLE 2:43c

9-11 MILL ST., ACTON

STRAWBERRY JAM 39c

PEACH JAM 35c

PRESSWOODS - COMPASS BRAND SLICED - LB.

SIDE BACON 59%