by KEN HULFORD.

High School

November 7: Teddy Bears were bearing down in the first game against the Rebels and wound up with the win. Bruce Shultis made an appearance on the Rebels' lineup and his 243 offset Jim Bullough's 222 and games were even. Bullough re-acted with a 222 and Mike Rogers turned in a 253 and win number two was Teddy Bears. Rebels' big second game win gave them the odd point for totals. Bullough's 640 triple and Bruce Shultis' 414 double featured this game.

Sapphires on Win Rampage
Sapphires went on a win rampage and made it a two and totals win from the El Ca Bongs. Sapphires almost made it a clean sweep but dropped the second game by 12 pins. Bob McCurdy was a torrid trundler for the sapphires with 784 (350). John Foley's 248 came in useful for sapphires. El Ca Bongs were minus both singles and doubles.

Rocks Pin Rocking
The Rocks went pin rocking for the first two games against the Yogs, then struck a rock in the third and had to be satisfied with a two and totals win. Don Price's 635 triple and "Gallop-ing Gary" Masales' 237 solo highlighted Rocks win. "Big T" Masales with a 202 and Don Earle with a 217 topped the Yogs' trundling.

League Standing
Teddy Bears 33, The Rebels 27, Yogs 25, El Ca Bongs 22, The Rocks 22, Sapphires 20.

Ernie Lawson with 657 triple, Harry Rogers 236 and John Robson 201 singles were up for Uppers. Steve Flisnik 682 triple, Ken Papillon 212 single and Erno Favro 228 likewise topped Muskokas' trundling.

Super Sokes Super Shooters
It seems every time the Leath-erettes make with a first game win they lose out on the next two and such was their fate when they met up with the Super Sokes. Super shooters for the Sokes were Phil LeSueur 805 (304), Bill Howell 219 and Ron McElor 256. The Leatherettes did not fare too bad individually—Juvie Masales 609 triple, Eva Williams 202, Kay James 220 and Helen Latemar 201 singles.

Devons Upset by Birds
With Bob Brown's 635 triple and Roger Murray's 225 single to pace them, Whirrbirds made every game a winning one from the Devons. Bit of an upset, it was for Devons too. They didn't expect it. Timm Masales with a 625 triple tried to get Devons going.

League Standing
Uppers 31, Devons 24, Whirrbirds 23, Leatherettes 17, Super Sokes 17, Muskokas 14.

Legion Ladies

November 7: When the last pin had fallen and the scores tallied up U.S. and the Hopeluts found themselves tied for the top spot. U.S. got there by winning two games from the Cornhuskers. Cornhuskers grabbed the odd point for totals by four pins. The two game win verdict could have easily gone Cornhuskers way but the U.S. won the last game by 12 pins. Phyllis Angell came through with a 239 effort on U.S. behalf. In a like role for the Huskers was Dixie Angell with 230.

Hopeluts Jump from 3rd to 1st

Blue Springs Nursery

November 8: Glads were on the short end when they met up with the Asters. In fact, the very very short end. They wound up with a zero count. Lois Brown 248 and Marg Woodhouse 207 paced Asters in the first. In the second, it was Boyd Jordan 263 and in the third, it was June Lang 276. Glads were off the beat scorewise.

Violets Take 3 Games
Violets kept pace with Asters by winning three games from Carnations. A hot 753 triple from Cheryl of the bowling Murtions sparked the Violets' win, along with the singles of Dot Staple-son 221, Audrey Pendleton 219 and Millie Sitt 201. Carnations were having an off night.

Bones Put on the Power Play
Bones put on the power play in the first and clobbered the Mums. Mums got back into the game by winning the second but were discouraged, won the third. Bones rolled enough pins to get the odd point for totals. Bones missed the 600 mark but her singles of 200 and 262 looked good. Eleanor Goy also tossed a 205 in the Mums' double win. For Roses, it was the solos of Sophie Gehrlrich 231 and Verma Church-ill 215 which claimed the spot-light.

League Standing
Asters 36, Violets 35, Mums 31, Roses 25, Glads 22, Carnations 19.

Industrial-Commercial

November 9: Reliable Taxi took a bite out of Al's Snack Bar's lead by winning the first game for the snack bar crew. Al's pals got even by winning the second and nosed out a win in the third by 12 pins to grab off the big portion of the 5.2 go. Al's top trundlers were Don Grein 742 and Bill Johnstone 703. Best for the "430" boys were Bob Agnew 665 and Ben Rudy 606.

I.G.A. Credit All Games
A-1 Delivery just couldn't deliver the goods and Ledger's I.G.A. wended their way homeward with all games to their credit. The big trundlers for I.G.A. were Jack Bullough 739, Wayne Ridley 705 and Bill Shannon 694. 'Twas a sad night for the A-1. Bob Taylor was best with a 631.

Goy's in High Gear
Goy's Cartage were rolling in high gear and barreled down the win highway for a three game win from the Jolly Rogers. After a shaky start, Ches Peycha checked in with a 301 and 309 for a 762 triple to pace the "wall and haul" boys. Bob Bruce 631 and "Scotch" McCutcheon 607 rated the assists. Martin Gehrlrich 606 and Wilo Near 620 were Rogers' best.

Acton Ladies

November 9: Prouse Motors were hitting on all cylinders when they met up with the McCallum Services and won all the games. They looked as if they might run out of gas in the third but they made it by 14 pins. No big triples from either team but for singles, Nan Hurst 213, Peg Balkentine 215, Doris Townsley 226 were in for the motorettes. For McCallum's Donna Krappel 200 and Mary Marks 209.

Lovell's Take 2 Totals
Benson Shoes started out O.K. They won the first from Lovell Bros. then had to get out of step and watch the Lovell aggregation win the next two and totals. The Lovell win was highlighted by the continuing hot bowling of Norma Robinson who tripled a 726 (314). Benson's best were singles with Helen O'Leary 227 and Flo Fryers 214 and 215.

Corona's Hit Win Ring
With the recuperating Peggy Lawson directing traffic from the back, Corona Shoes, after losing the first game to Lamb Real Estate hit the winning ring for a two and totals division. November 10: The Hunters were hunting for points and got em—all seven—at the expense of the Catchers who were caught off base as far as points were concerned. Vera Blanch of the Hunters broke in her new bowling shoes with a neat second game single of 248. Ruth Masales 207 and Eleanor Goy 224 had Catchers' big singles.

Cats Claw Out Win
The Tiger Cats swatted the Busy Bees in the first with Vera's 210 and Joan Young 223 heading up the win. The Cats wound up with the odd point for totals.

Present Brooch
The Toppers, who will be bidding farewell to Emma "Mother" Exams, who is returning to England this month, presented a brilliant studded maple leaf brooch to the departing bowler. Acton Major November 10: While Tiger Cats are still riding high in first place, the other teams are no longer awed by them and are beginning to knock off the old game from the Cats' hides. The Ten Pro Distributors clipped the Cats for one game and it Lady Luck had smiled on them instead ofrowning, would have clipped them for a double win. As it was, the Cats grabbed two and totals. Cats' top trio were Don Grein 731, Jack Bullough 700 and Ken Hulford 666. Ten Pro's tops were Ralph Barton 634, Dave Johnson 627 and Frank Daley 615.

Flyers Wing Way to Win
Casarin Flyers were winging against the Acton Billiards. The Flyers stashed away two last wins in a hurry before the "cue boys" were able to come up to scratch and win the finale win. Avert a shut-out. The flyboys for the Flyers were M. Casarin 806 (303), Run Shannon 757 and Jack Drysdale 651. Firemen Take Hotel in Upset
Big upset for the night was the Firemen taking the Dominion Hotel for a two and totals go. The Firemen were hot for this affair. They almost made it a grand slam—just missed winning the final chucker by 10 pins. Bern Van Fleet 739 and Jack Pink 660 put the icing on the victory cake for Firemen. Ches Peycha's 627 was the only "Wasowicz walloper" to hit the upper bracket.

Sputniks Take 3rd Spot

Bandits 1 Point Behind 1st
Bandits with a three game win from the Wanderers not only knocked Wanderers off the top spot but moved up into the sec-

100 MUNICIPAL officials attended the conference on civil emergency planning for Ontario mayors, reeves and wardens at the Canadian Civil Defence College at Arnprior last week. The 4-day session was co-sponsored by the Federal and Provincial Emergency Measures Organizations. A basement fallout shelter on display was a point of interest for delegates. From left to right are Mayor J. H. Goy, Acton; Mayor W. Anderson, Oakville, and Councillor J. Elliott of Georgetown. and slot one point behind the leaders. Bandits' seven-pointer was highlighted by Mario Casarin in 695 and "Tilly" Wilds 652 in the triples. In the single division Millie Sitt, the Streetsville whistle tooter, had a 216 and Les Gidman looked good with 207 and 239. Wanderers, who were wondering (oh brother)—what it was all about had Beryl Jordan with a 614 trivalent and Blackie Gaeton with singles of 209 twice.

Eagles, who have apparently found their wings, won two games from the Stragglers. True, they dropped the odd point for totals, but the fact remains they won two games. Black Hawks snapped out of their losing streak by grounding the Flyers for a two game loss. Stooges kindly, they won both games for them. Yogs' came up with good games but always seemed to fall a few pins short of winning. Cheer up, kids, when some of those headpins turn into strikes, you'll be on your way.

Headpin Hillies
In the inter-county league, Acton Merchants took to the road for the first time this season and took the short end of a 4-3 go from the Dixie Lynn Stunners. At home, the Van Norman Electricians managed a one game win from the Dixie Bowling squad. Next Saturday the Merchants invade Oakville with the Van Normans making a home stand against the Streetsville Strikers. We'll get you ten that Millie will be on hand with her whistle.

Norma Robinson can make some selections from the I.G.A. shelves with her voucher with her 314 single. Cheryl Morton can use the services of the Acton Dry Cleaners for her 753 triple. Phil LeSueur can splash up to Paul's Clothing Store with his voucher as no one topped his 803 triple. Bob McCurdy's 320 single wins him the Gordon's Hardware voucher and he, no doubt, will put it to good use.

For bowling best over their average, the Saturday morning kids winning the bottled refreshments of Coca-Cola, Seven Up and Reinhardt's were Suzanne Mantell, Sandra Franklin, Bryan Hammond and Gerald Dick. First of the money tournaments this season is the Dorado Lanes' (St. Catharines) Second Annual Bowlers' Sweepstakes.

Wins $ 60
When the post office clock struck three Saturday afternoon young K. Lewandowski of R.R. 1 was $60 richer. His name was the first one pulled from the drum in the weekly merchant's "Free Living" draw. The usual large crowd watched expectantly. The drum was emptied last Friday. It gets a load of new coupons every two weeks.
