Violets Boost Mums
Violets did their share of boosting the Mums. They power-housed a three game win from the erstwhile leading Asters. Violets hit the triple strata with Cheryl Morton 667 and Millie Stitt 627. Beryl Jordan's 210 single saved Asters from a non-mention.

Roses Have 1 Big Game
Everything was rosy for the Roses in the first against Carnations, but then came the dark clouds of defeat. The Carnations grabbed the second game by 21 pins and the final by 47. Roses made with the odd point for totals on the basis of the big first game win. Betty Brown 205, Jo-Anne Inscoc 204 and Terry Arbie 233 singled for the Carnations. Verna Churchill 207, Janice Withers 201, Sophie Oehrich 211 and 244, dittoed for Roses.

A 735 triple from Earl Goodwin, along with a 605 from John Couture, really threw sand in the Rotary gears. Dorkin McBride's 216 stood out for Rotary.

Y's Men Take 2 Games
Y's Men were much too good for the Micro Plastics in the first two, then the Micrus changed their tactics — they got strikes and spares — and won the last game. Paul Lawson with a 243 and Earl Masales with a 210 were soloing in the Y's Men's winning effort. Cyril Leighton's 254 in the last game came in handy for the Plastic crew.

League Standing
Y's Men 17, Wallfords 14, Micro Plastics 9, Rotary 2.

Industrial-Commercial
November 30: Al's Snack Bar caught the A-1 Delivery short-handed and picked up an easy seven points. That didn't stop Don Grein from rolling 739, Wayne Spires 660 and Cy Ryan a 458 double.

Goy's Get Detoured
Goy's Cartage somewhere along the line got detoured and dropped the works to Reliable Taxi. Reliable were stepping on the gas with Pete Homer 773 (339), Jeff Fryer 771, Ed McGilloy 661 and Ben Roddy 619. Ches Peycha 711 and Jack McCutcheon 670 tried to get Goy's rolling, but no dice. Last game almost went to Goy's. They missed by 25 pins.

L.G.A. on Right Side of Ledger
Ledger's I.G.A. were on the right side of the ledger in the first two cantos against Jolly Rogers, then the Rogers got rolling collectively and collected their singleton win. Ledger's sharpshooters were Wayne Ridley 680 and Bill Shannon 686 in the triples. Bob McCurdy's 413 double came in useful. Al's Snack Bar 67, Ledger's I.G.A. 48, Reliable Taxi 48, Goy's Cartage 30, A-1 Delivery 19, Jolly Rogers 19.

Acton Ladies
November 30: Corona Shoes with Helen LeSueur 225, Arlene Bruce 218 and Peggy Lawson 206 made Lovell Bros. take a back seat in the first. Lovell's lost no time in getting even in the second and with Stefanie Peycha 212, Bea Anderson 221, Verna Arbie 219 and Laura Lovell 201 in the third, made it a two game win and totals.

McCallum's Take 2 Games
Donna Krapek's 218 headed up a McCallum win in the first against Lamb Real Estate. McCallum's went for their second win with Marion Storey rolling 226 but the "little lambs" had it by 16 pins with Dianne Spielvogel hitting 206. Joan Barr came up with a 226 for the Lambs in the third but that wasn't enough insurance for the win 'cause McCallum's had Storey rounding out a 605 triple with 239. Joan

Benson's Powerhouse to Win

Nan Hurst and Joanne Duval supplied the margin in the second with 236 and 280 in that order. Benson's came to life in the third and powerhoused the win and the odd point for totals. Benson's did alright scorewise — Joan McCristall 714, Helen Otterbein 639 and Janet Brennan 630 triples.

Jean Masales 209 and Agnes Holmes' 206, both in Tiger Cats' last game, came in mighty handy.

Catchers Point Hunting
Catchers went point hunting and caught seven of them from the Hunters. Eleanor Goy with singles of 203 and 229, along with Lil Marshall's 208, sparked the Catcher three game win. Hunters were knocking at the door but couldn't open it.

Leading Ladies for Triples

League Standing

Acton Major
December 1: Acton Billiards needed a little bit of fur from the Tiger Cats' hides in the first when they nosed out a 16 pin win. The Cats didn't take kindly to this and grabbed the next two and totals with Mike Bennett 717, Norm Morton 677 and Don Grein 692 heading up the win. The "billiards boys" top trio were Wayne Spires 665, Al Roach 647 and Jeff Fryer 624.

Flyers Fly Off with All Games
Dominion Hotel's upward climb came to a sudden stop when the Casarin Flyers flew off with all games. Flying high for the Flyers were Pete Turkow 713, Mario Casarin 680 and P. Jarvis 647. Trying to get the "Wasowicz wallopers" walloping were Bob Skidmore 609 and Tinnie Masales 614.

Ten Pros Latch Onto 2.
Firemen thought as how they might be in for a good night when they won the first from the Ten Pros but the first was all the "nose toters" could win. Ten Pros latched onto the next two plus the odd point for totals with Frank Daley 623, Ralph Barton 644 and Gord Coughlan 767 (320) being the main latches. For Firemen, Bill Knight had a good night with a 612 as did Mrs. Dodd's little boy "Ernie" with a 511 double.

Acton Friends
December 1: Harold Ferguson's 683 triple, along with the singles of Uke Zajac 253, Clare Taylor 210 and 212, got Sputniks into orbit for a three game win. Rarebits were the unfortunate victims. Jack McCutcheon with 241 and Doug Widdis with 224 tried to get Rarebits into the win circle.

Satellites Launch Into Win
The Satellites, after winning the first spasm from Sad Sacks by 32 pins, launched themselves into a second and third game win. League Standing

Sputniks 50½, Sugar Jets 47, Satellites 46½, Rarebits 34, Free-n-Easies 27, Sad Sacks 26.

Acton Mixed

A neat trio of triples were triple by Stragglers — Bob Skidmore 678, Cheryl Morton 620 and Jim Pope 632. Denny Murray should have made the upper bracket with a kick-off 208 and 252, but the last game was slightly off. A faint explosion was heard from Atoms — Gil Malcolm 610 triple and Phil LeSueur 215 solo.

Saucers Hang onto 2nd Place
Saucers hung onto a share of the second place rung with a two and totals win from the Wanderers. Saucers spun some singles to annex the win — Ron Whitham 202, Ed Browne 211 and Bob Martin 206. Beryl Jordan with 201 and Blackie Gordon with 227 soloed for Wanderers.

Headpin Hillies
With the inter-county bowlers, it was the Acton Merchants taking Dixie Bowling for two and totals at Dixie Plaza. At home, the Van Norman Electricians gave the Oakville Oakties a shock when they won two games. The Oakties grabbed the odd point for totals.

Eagles' Fortunes Look Up

YOU SHOULD HAVE BEEN THE ONE THAT GOT AWAY

In the beginning it was a question of who ate whom. For a while it must have been tough and go whether man went fishing or fish went manning. Looking around we assume man went out. At first man competed with earth's other creatures — today men compete with other men to develop nature's energy sources. In the process our standard of living has sky-rocketed.
