

Church Full for Annual Service by Candlelight

Several recitations, solo numbers, and a choir of 18th and 19th century songs, completed this fine service. The choir, which was led by Mrs. J. H. Creighton, sang a number of songs, including "The Christmas Story" and "The First Noel". The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

Husbands Auxiliary Guests End Up Washing Dishes

The Christmas service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people. The husbands auxiliary guests were invited to join in a program of washing dishes. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

Christmas Service

A Christmas service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

ACTON TEEN TOWN

Sponsored by Acton Lions Club
NEW YEAR'S DANCE
THIS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30th
ACTON LEGION HALL - 9-1 A.M.
Featuring "THE TORKAYS" and "THE PREMIERS"

HOME GARDENERS

It's not too soon to plan next year's garden
Get an expert's help at the
ACTON NIGHT SCHOOL HOME AND LANDSCAPE GARDENING COURSE
given by
PROFESSOR JOHN A. WEALL OF THE O.A.C.

NEW Chapel In S.S. Room

The fine furniture in the old United Church, unused since it was condemned, was this week taken from the chilly dark building to the new chapel in the room at the foot of the front stairs in the Sunday school building. The old church was brought over, de-erected in size and related at the west end of the room. The carpet had been related, and carpenter Wilbert Brown is now paneling the wall in the chapel area. The church's existing trim, including the pulpit, lectern, communion table and baptismal font, will be hung behind the new wall. A blue curtain is hung behind the communion table. Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Tractor Crushes John Larkman

Crushed beneath a farm tractor, John Larkman died instantly Tuesday afternoon after his tractor, hauling a load of wood, barn and topped over a 12-foot loading platform. Mr. Larkman was bringing wood into the barn when his tractor went through the end of the barn and carried the driver to his death. A neighbor, Sheriff Pollock of the Guelph O.P.P. detachment.

Death Instantaneous

Investigating officer, Corporal E. Zimmerman and constable Wilbert Brown summoned coroner Dr. C. Finch of Guelph, who ruled the death of John Larkman, 2, Acton, survived by his wife, the former Olive Moon, three daughters, Mrs. R. McMillen, Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Church Full for Annual Service by Candlelight

Several recitations, solo numbers, and a choir of 18th and 19th century songs, completed this fine service. The choir, which was led by Mrs. J. H. Creighton, sang a number of songs, including "The Christmas Story" and "The First Noel". The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

Husbands Auxiliary Guests End Up Washing Dishes

The Christmas service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people. The husbands auxiliary guests were invited to join in a program of washing dishes. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

Christmas Service

A Christmas service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

ACTON TEEN TOWN

Sponsored by Acton Lions Club
NEW YEAR'S DANCE
THIS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30th
ACTON LEGION HALL - 9-1 A.M.
Featuring "THE TORKAYS" and "THE PREMIERS"

HOME GARDENERS

It's not too soon to plan next year's garden
Get an expert's help at the
ACTON NIGHT SCHOOL HOME AND LANDSCAPE GARDENING COURSE
given by
PROFESSOR JOHN A. WEALL OF THE O.A.C.

NEW Chapel In S.S. Room

The fine furniture in the old United Church, unused since it was condemned, was this week taken from the chilly dark building to the new chapel in the room at the foot of the front stairs in the Sunday school building. The old church was brought over, de-erected in size and related at the west end of the room. The carpet had been related, and carpenter Wilbert Brown is now paneling the wall in the chapel area. The church's existing trim, including the pulpit, lectern, communion table and baptismal font, will be hung behind the new wall. A blue curtain is hung behind the communion table. Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Tractor Crushes John Larkman

Crushed beneath a farm tractor, John Larkman died instantly Tuesday afternoon after his tractor, hauling a load of wood, barn and topped over a 12-foot loading platform. Mr. Larkman was bringing wood into the barn when his tractor went through the end of the barn and carried the driver to his death. A neighbor, Sheriff Pollock of the Guelph O.P.P. detachment.

Death Instantaneous

Investigating officer, Corporal E. Zimmerman and constable Wilbert Brown summoned coroner Dr. C. Finch of Guelph, who ruled the death of John Larkman, 2, Acton, survived by his wife, the former Olive Moon, three daughters, Mrs. R. McMillen, Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Church Full for Annual Service by Candlelight

Several recitations, solo numbers, and a choir of 18th and 19th century songs, completed this fine service. The choir, which was led by Mrs. J. H. Creighton, sang a number of songs, including "The Christmas Story" and "The First Noel". The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

Husbands Auxiliary Guests End Up Washing Dishes

The Christmas service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people. The husbands auxiliary guests were invited to join in a program of washing dishes. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

Christmas Service

A Christmas service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people. The service was held at 7:30 p.m. in the church, which was filled with people.

ACTON TEEN TOWN

Sponsored by Acton Lions Club
NEW YEAR'S DANCE
THIS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30th
ACTON LEGION HALL - 9-1 A.M.
Featuring "THE TORKAYS" and "THE PREMIERS"

HOME GARDENERS

It's not too soon to plan next year's garden
Get an expert's help at the
ACTON NIGHT SCHOOL HOME AND LANDSCAPE GARDENING COURSE
given by
PROFESSOR JOHN A. WEALL OF THE O.A.C.

NEW Chapel In S.S. Room

The fine furniture in the old United Church, unused since it was condemned, was this week taken from the chilly dark building to the new chapel in the room at the foot of the front stairs in the Sunday school building. The old church was brought over, de-erected in size and related at the west end of the room. The carpet had been related, and carpenter Wilbert Brown is now paneling the wall in the chapel area. The church's existing trim, including the pulpit, lectern, communion table and baptismal font, will be hung behind the new wall. A blue curtain is hung behind the communion table. Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Tractor Crushes John Larkman

Crushed beneath a farm tractor, John Larkman died instantly Tuesday afternoon after his tractor, hauling a load of wood, barn and topped over a 12-foot loading platform. Mr. Larkman was bringing wood into the barn when his tractor went through the end of the barn and carried the driver to his death. A neighbor, Sheriff Pollock of the Guelph O.P.P. detachment.

Death Instantaneous

Investigating officer, Corporal E. Zimmerman and constable Wilbert Brown summoned coroner Dr. C. Finch of Guelph, who ruled the death of John Larkman, 2, Acton, survived by his wife, the former Olive Moon, three daughters, Mrs. R. McMillen, Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Take-Offs on Staff Favorite Number on H.S. Party Program

The annual Acton High School Christmas party was held last Thursday afternoon at the school. The party was a success, with many take-offs on the staff favorite number, 13. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Big Deal

At the beginning of the program all students joined in the singing of Christmas carols. Miss Irene Vary accompanied the students. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Christmas Club Members Enjoyed Trips

In spite of garbaging, the Christmas Club members enjoyed their trips. The club members were taken to a garage cleaning. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Arena Program Well Planned

Cold weather has proven a boon for making ice at Acton arena and children enjoying Christmas holidays have been enjoying skating every afternoon. The arena program was well planned, with many take-offs on the staff favorite number, 13. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Issue Warning

Corporal R. Macdonald of the Acton O.P.P. detachment issued a warning to all residents that extra police equipment will be used in the area over the New Year holidays. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

"OKAY, FELLOWS, don't forget to rush when I give the signal," seems to be the quiet word four youngsters are receiving from Barney, a boxer dog. The boys were playing hockey on Fairy Lake Tuesday when the pooch arrived on the scene to lend a helping hand (or paw?). Pictured above are Barry Elliott and Steven Townsley with the dog in the front row and John Higgins and Dave Garrett in the back.

Favor $150,000 Water Tender O.W.R.C. to Seek Tenders

Tentative approval was received on Tuesday for the construction of a $150,000 waterworks project. The Ontario Water Resources Commission is seeking tenders for the project. The project includes the construction of a water reservoir and the installation of a water pump. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Tractor Crushes John Larkman

Crushed beneath a farm tractor, John Larkman died instantly Tuesday afternoon after his tractor, hauling a load of wood, barn and topped over a 12-foot loading platform. Mr. Larkman was bringing wood into the barn when his tractor went through the end of the barn and carried the driver to his death. A neighbor, Sheriff Pollock of the Guelph O.P.P. detachment.

Death Instantaneous

Investigating officer, Corporal E. Zimmerman and constable Wilbert Brown summoned coroner Dr. C. Finch of Guelph, who ruled the death of John Larkman, 2, Acton, survived by his wife, the former Olive Moon, three daughters, Mrs. R. McMillen, Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

New Chapel In S.S. Room

The fine furniture in the old United Church, unused since it was condemned, was this week taken from the chilly dark building to the new chapel in the room at the foot of the front stairs in the Sunday school building. The old church was brought over, de-erected in size and related at the west end of the room. The carpet had been related, and carpenter Wilbert Brown is now paneling the wall in the chapel area. The church's existing trim, including the pulpit, lectern, communion table and baptismal font, will be hung behind the new wall. A blue curtain is hung behind the communion table. Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Tractor Crushes John Larkman

Crushed beneath a farm tractor, John Larkman died instantly Tuesday afternoon after his tractor, hauling a load of wood, barn and topped over a 12-foot loading platform. Mr. Larkman was bringing wood into the barn when his tractor went through the end of the barn and carried the driver to his death. A neighbor, Sheriff Pollock of the Guelph O.P.P. detachment.

Death Instantaneous

Investigating officer, Corporal E. Zimmerman and constable Wilbert Brown summoned coroner Dr. C. Finch of Guelph, who ruled the death of John Larkman, 2, Acton, survived by his wife, the former Olive Moon, three daughters, Mrs. R. McMillen, Mrs. K. Montgomery (Mrs. R. McMillen) Weston, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, and one son, Herbert of Aurora, are holding the room will not be completely finished yet as it is still required for Sunday School classes.

Joint Christmas Meeting Enjoyed at Eden Mills

The business meeting of the Eden Mills Women's Club was held recently at the home of Mrs. E. Woodhouse. The meeting was a success, with many take-offs on the staff favorite number, 13. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Fire Damage $500 at Abrams Blaze

About $500 damage was caused at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Abrams, near Crown's Corners, Saturday afternoon, when fire damaged a garage. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Seven Escape Car Tips Over

Seven people were unhurt as a car tipped over the north side of the highway north of the Base Line. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Higher Authority

A harsh supervisor was reminding a policeman of the importance of understanding you've been going over my head. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Supervisor: But Isn't it true that you've been playing for a while?

The supervisor's question was a reminder of the importance of understanding you've been going over my head. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Supervisor: But Isn't it true that you've been playing for a while?

The supervisor's question was a reminder of the importance of understanding you've been going over my head. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Supervisor: But Isn't it true that you've been playing for a while?

The supervisor's question was a reminder of the importance of understanding you've been going over my head. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Supervisor: But Isn't it true that you've been playing for a while?

The supervisor's question was a reminder of the importance of understanding you've been going over my head. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.

Supervisor: But Isn't it true that you've been playing for a while?

The supervisor's question was a reminder of the importance of understanding you've been going over my head. The party was held at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, which was filled with people.