Did you ever try to capture stardust on film? That's what you're doing when you take movie photographs. The art of movie photography is a magic, a science, a craft, a trade. It's a job that's not just about the camera, but about the people and the story. It's a job that's not just about the camera, but about the people and the story.

Tips on Photography

Although many of the movie making details will present no problem to you, there are a few things that you must be aware of. The most important of these are: lighting, sound, and editing. These are the three pillars of movie making. Without them, your movie will be a flat, lifeless affair.
