Both teams were leveling for the decider in the finale, with Carnations getting the nod by enough top scores presented an oddity—all games were an even 200. League Standing

Y's Men in Winning Spirit

Y's Men were in a winning spirit and ran up two quick wins on the Micro Plastics. They were shooting for the bundle but the Plastic crew were not partial to a shut-out and hit the win column in the last spasm by 16 pins. For Micro, Cyril Leighton turned in a neat triple of 615. Harry Rogers' 251 and Jerry Klinck's 260 were enough to give Satellites into the winning orbit in the first. Klinck's 338 and Rogers' 268 combo in the second should have been enough to give Satellites their second win, but Hartley Coles and "Scutch" McCutcheon were pacing the Rare-bits with 278 and 233 respectively and games were squared away. McCutcheon with 219 and Doug Widdis with 209 sparked the Rarebits in the third and they wrapped up the win.
