By KEN HULFORD

January 23: Well, it was a good bowling go for the fall-end Sapphires and Rebels. They both did themselves a lot of good, point-wise. Rebels won the first and third games from the El Ca Bongs and squeezed out the odd point for totals by two pins. Mike Rogers turned in the Rebels' best effort—a 216 solo. For Leatherettes, Joyce Masales posted a new league triple of 613 and Helen LeSueur trundled a 603.

Huskies Win 2 Totals
A margin of 14 pins gave Cornhuskers a first game win from U.S.S. Doris Angell turned in a 201 for Cornhuskers in the second but Mary Cooney took care of it with a 206 and U.S.S. squared the games. U.S.S. tried hard in the finale but the pins were falling in the Cornhuskers' favor and it was a "Fosker" win for two and totals.
