Orangeville Ousts Lions

Four goals moved to the top of an obstacle for Acron's jusselic hockey Lions to erupt in the second game of their Tri-County Juvenile "B" series with Orangeville.

On their own halfweek Saturday night the Orangeville team edged an improved Acron club 3-2 to give them the series seven goals to two but not before they had a few anxious moments.

Bantams Bow Out Sat. Hespeler Cops Crown, 13-2

Elimination from the O.M.H.A. Bantam "B" playoffs virtually assured when they took the first on-courtesy of the hot goal-horned home series 5-0 here, Friday night, Acron's Fire Fighter-Bantams nevertheless tried hard in Hespeler. The following night before dropping an 8-2 decision.

Pounding the Sports Beat

EVERYBODY'S taking a turn, beating the Raiders, lamented the Georgetown Herald.

A last start which saw the Raiders reach the pinnacle of the Central Ontario hockey league in February has swung to the other end of the pendulum. Georgetown is now having difficulty winning.

For the Midgets it was simply a case of forfeiting the series. For the second time this season they failed to ice a complete team.

ONLY BRIGHT SPOT for midget hockey teams from Acron last weekend was the Juvenile's strong showing in Orangeville despite being down four goals to the home and home series.

For the Midgets it was simply a case of forfeiting the series. For the second time this season they failed to ice a complete team.

SUN-DRENCHED Snow

SUN-DRENCHED snow, blue skies and steep slopes made a perfect setting for skiers who flocked to the area over the weekend.

Some have made the jump to the Hockley valley near Orangeville where snow is more plentiful and trees plentiful.

Bearing no resemblance to one another, the Sisters this year are spotty with snow. Some of the trails have ample coverings for a run while others show only coarse brown grass on their best slopes.

BEAT NICKS... Elsewhere on this page is the information that Georgetown will enter an Intermediate "A" team in the Halton County Baseball League this coming season.

Buffalo "Dunked" Leafs, Royals Win In Legion Minor Sports Hockey

Smarting from the whitewash they absorbed last week at the hands of Hamilton, Guelph Royals came back with a vengeance to edge the Red Wings 2-1 in a dog-dog Legion minor sports contest Thursday night.

In the other game of the triple header, Toronto continued to dominate Montreal by posting a 5-1 victory, while Rochester had their hands full with Buffalo in the American league.

That netted them five goals and gave them undisputed mastery of the N.H.L. section of the Legion league. Harris scored two goals and collected two assists, while Gary Murr also bagged a pair and assisted Harris on his first.
