Knox Auxiliary W.M.S. Learn Literature Important Role

The regular meeting of Knox Presbyterian Auxiliary W.M.S. was held in the home of Mrs. R. E. Parker Tuesday afternoon, February 9. The president, Mrs. O. Moran, opened the meeting with a short article on "The Bridge Christ Built for Man" and prayer, followed by singing "Toll Me the Old, Old Story". Mrs. Fred Anderson and her committee took charge of the devotionals and the study on how the Presbyterian W.M.S. shared in providing Christian literature around the world and the various types of Christian literature. Mrs. Anderson described the help given to the non-English speaking groups in Canada. Mrs. A. M. McPherson told of the work across the seas in British Guiana, Formosa, India, Latin America, Africa, overseas China and the Koreans in Japan.

SILVERWOOD

Interesting Husband Recipe Heard at Women's Meeting

The Silverwood Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. K. C. Lindsay with the president Mrs. William Norton in the chair. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode followed by Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was answered by giving a vegetable or fruit starting with one's initial.

Plans were made to celebrate the 10th anniversary with a euchre in Stewarttown hall in March.

To Attend Conference Mrs. Clave Wilson was appointed to attend the president's conference in Guelph, May 4th and 5th. Donations will be sent to the Mental Hospital and Music Festival. Mrs. George Ironside and Mrs. George Hurl attended the 411 leaders' training school in Milton Thursday and Friday.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Hans Lindaur. Mrs. Harry Scott gave the current events. Mrs. George Henderson Jr. gave a reading from an old cookbook published in 1871. Among the formulas for preserving fruits and vegetables was this recipe "How to preserve a Husband".

ROCKWOOD

Benefit Assists Child Euchre Play Prominent

The benefit euchre and dance held in Town hall last Friday evening in behalf of Jimmy Funk were well attended. Jimmy's many friends are glad to know he is gradually improving from his serious spine injury.

In connection with euchre party held in the Parish hall last Wednesday evening, eleven tables were played, sponsored by the Women's Association. Ladies' high score, Mrs. Norman Wilson; lone hands, Mrs. Arthur Ewers; low score, Mrs. Fulman; men's high score, Harvey Jettin; men's lone hands, Oswald Meadows; low score, Mrs. Ewins.

Members of the Golden Age Club from Rockwood enjoyed the film of Rev. and Mrs. Dale, "Trip Around the World". Rev. Dale was minister at Barrie Hill a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shultz are spending some time in Guelph at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plummer, while the Plummer family are holidaying in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCannell are also holidaying in Florida.

Friends of Mrs. Nellie Lovell regret she is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she underwent surgery last week.

Friends of Mrs. John Gystang are sorry she was a "shut-in" for a few days last week, due to an ear infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Don Timms and son Brian of Guelph, visited Mrs. and Mrs. Alex Graham of Oakville Sunday.

Mrs. J. Pierce visited friends in Guelph recently. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Thomas are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day and family in Ancaster.

Miss Rose Marie Harris are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harris while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harris are away on a holiday.

Hear Reports, Make Donation During Limehouse W.I. Meet

Mrs. Roughly presided for the meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute, held at the home of Mrs. Charles Meredith, on Wednesday, February 1.

The meeting opened with all singing "There's a long long trail winding", followed by the Lord's Prayer.

There were 10 ladies present and roll call was answered by "an amusing incident in my childhood".

Send Donation In the business discussion it was voted to send the usual donation to the Halton Musical Festival. Letters of appreciation for gift boxes were read. Mrs. Kirkpatrick reported on the marathon euchre and also presided for the following program as convenor of historical research: Mrs. Harry Brown, Citizenship and Education, Christmas in 1866. Mrs. G. English, Home Economics and churches and help them take the Bible into all the world because it does not interpret the scriptures but provides the scriptures for the various churches to interpret to their people. They also provide the scriptures in Braille.

The offerings received in the World Day of Prayer service go toward assisting in producing Christian literature for many parts of the world.

Mrs. Fred Cole read the scripture lesson, followed by a brief meditation, "Few Who Go", read by Mrs. Anderson. Miss Lottie Moore closed this part of the meeting with prayer.

A season of silent prayer in memory of Mrs. W. Cooper, a past president of the society, was observed. Scripture prayers were offered by Mrs. C. Hansen, Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Mrs. MacArthur, Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Bennett.

After the business part of the meeting was concluded, the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. A social half hour was much enjoyed.

Current Events

Current events were read by Mrs. E. Kain and the motto "Keep your enthusiasm and forget your birthdays" was well prepared and read by Mrs. W. Mitchell. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was a vocal solo by Mrs. E. Kain, "Bless this House" and Mrs. Roughly a pianistic selection, "Deuxieme Valse", both numbers were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick read a paper entitled "Old times in Ontario". The meeting closed with the Queen after which the hostess and social committee served a delicious lunch.
