Mr., Mrs. Fred McArthur Celebrate 40th Anniversary

A surprise celebration was held for Mr. and Mrs. Fred McArthur on Wednesday evening, March 1, for the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary which was on that day. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Swackhamer.

The evening was spent in playing checkers, crokinole, euchre and chinese checkers. Smith Griffin Jr. acted as chairman and a short program followed: Instrumental, Mrs. Ted Freeman; selection on accordion, Verne Denny; instrumental, June Swackhamer; solo, Sandy Cameron; music by the Freeman family; instrumental, Kathy Swackhamer.

Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur were then called on and Mrs. William Thompson read the address. Mrs. Frank Freeman, Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Mr. William Thompson, Wallace Swackhamer and Frank Freeman presented them with a bridge set, white chenille bed spread, lace table cloth and flower table centre. Both Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur made a fitting reply. All joined in singing, For They are Jolly Good Fellows. Different ones were called on for speeches.

The dining room table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Wm. Thompson and decorated by a friend, Mrs. Wm. Butler. The ladies then served lunch.

Win Draw

Congratulations to Mrs. Bruce Leitch who won the draw "Free diving for a week" on Saturday in Acton, the final draw sponsored by the local merchants. Also congratulations to R. L. Davidson who won it a week ago.

Locals

L. G. King, Former Resident Receives Long-Service Award

A former Actonite George King was among 19 hydro superintendents receiving long-service awards during the 52nd annual Ontario Municipal Electric Association meeting held in Toronto last week.

Mr. King received the award for his untiring and unselfish service in Ontario and will be well remembered by many of the older residents in Acton.

Each superintendent who was honored has served from 15 to 18 years with the hydro, making a total of close to 300 years. Congratulations are conveyed to Mr. King from the Acton Free Press and his many friends in the Acton district.

W.M.S. Entertained At C. Mason Home

The ladies of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church were entertained Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mason. On arrival the guests were shown through the greenhouse aglow with color.

In the fore part of the evening the listeners enjoyed the melodies of the best in living records played on stereophonic equipment. Mr. Mason showed colored slides of his garden along with many scenic and historical views of interest in Canada and U.S.A.

On behalf of the ladies, Miss M. Bennett voiced her thanks for the pleasant evening, after which refreshments were served.

SILVERWOOD

Chefs New Name For 4-H Club

The first meeting of the 4-H club was held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Ironside. The new name of the club is the Silverwood chefs. Members of the club are Judy Norton, Bonnie Norton, Caroline Norton, Mary Ellan Murray, Jennifer Jones, Bonnie Bell, Eva Lindeman, Marjory Burt, Alice Wilson and Sheila Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Neilson Bomholt had visitors last week, Mrs. A. A. Holt, grandmother of Mrs. Bomholt and Mr. C. Holt, her father. Welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Beckett and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Penson and daughter who are making their home in the community.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Clare Burns in the passing of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Neilson Bomholt and their daughter spent the weekend in Palmerston with Mrs. Bomholt's grandmother, Mrs. A. A. Holt.

Friends and neighbors of George Henderson will be sorry to hear he is in the hospital where he underwent an operation on his back. We all wish for him a speedy recovery.

SO KIND

Smith was explaining his financial situation to his father scatterbrained wife.

It's got to the stage where the bank is returning our cheques," he complained.

"Isn't that sweet of them?" came the reply. "You would not believe there was so much kindness in the world, would you?"
