

SPILLING FIVE PINS

AT ACTON BOWLING LANES

by KEN HULFORD

High School

April 24: Vogis, paced by Terry Masules 717 (315), and Mike Mattocks 250 single, whistled away a three game win and took over the top spot. Mike Rogers tried to get Rebels up and away with a 659 tricount, but no dice. El Ca Bongs rang the gong for a seven pointer when they met up with Teddy Bears. Teddy Bears almost made with a win in the second but were plus shy by 30. "Ducky" Harris and Pete Homer were Bongs' big combo with 602 and 681. Bears' top duo were Jim Bulloch 630, Wayne Mason 625. Rocks went for a third game against Sapphires but settled for the big part of a 5-2 go when Sapphires won the middle canto. Don Price headed up Rocks' win with a 703 tricount with Gary Masules winning in a 210 solo. Sapphires' best shots were of the single variety with John Foley 209, Roger Murray 210, Carmen Woodburn 235.

League Standing

Vogis 114, Teddy Bears 113, The Rocks 111½, El Ca Bongs 108½, The Rebels 83, Sapphires 79.

April 25: Uppers found themselves back in first place after Joyce Buchanan 646, John Robinson 644 and Harry Rogers' single of 212 placed them for a two and totals win from Super Soles. Super Soles' efforts were centred around Phil LeSueur's 769 triple and singles of Harold Fabian 201, Millie Fabian 233, Jerry Lemarre 206, Ed Parent 226. If Uppers could have bunched their singles instead of scattering 'em throughout the three games, results might have been different. Muskokas were handed a jolt by Whirlybirds. Birds' handed the Muskokas a three game defeat and not only knocked them out of first place, but kept alive their own hopes for a playoff spot. Sparking the Whirlybird win were tricounts, Bob Brown 707, Roger Murray 634 and singles, Doug Ruest 220, Sonny Townsley 238, Pat Wattle 209. Muskokas' best was Bill Buchanan's triple, 603, and singles, John Vardewenesh 216, Al Roach 205. Leatherettes replaced Devons in third slot when, after winning the first game by 13 pins, they turned on the power and waltzed home with the next two spasms. Two payoff tricounts for Leatherettes, Eva Williams 636, Joyce Masules 645. Helen LeSueur soloed with a 220. Tinnle Masules' 608 triple and a couple of singles, Russ Andrews 200, Dennis Crooks 204, were Devons' best.

League Standing

Uppers 115, Muskokas 113, Leatherettes 99, Devons 96, Whirlybirds 94, Super Soles 71.

Legion Ladies

April 25: Phyllis Angell's big 807 (345), along with Mary Courtney's 637, plus Shirley Tasker's 226 single for U.L.S., did not give Wishful Thinkers much of a look-in and it was all games for U.L.S. The win clinched second place for U.S. Dot Earle's 262 single was Thinkers' best. Phyllis 807 tricount, coming on the last night of the schedule, gave her high triple record for the season. Hopefuls, with no hopes of making a playoff berth, still gave it a try and won the first game from Cornhuskers. Huskers were all even at the end of the second and found the range with a vengeance in the final game, to wrap up a two and totals decision. Marilyn Hills hit the triple for the Cornhuskers, a 615. Doris Coker 255, Doris Angell 213, Betty Albany 211, Mamie Allen 210. Hopetots had a mentionable, Bill Bradshaw's 208 solo. So far the semi-final, it will be U.L.S. versus Cornhuskers, with Wishful Thinkers getting the bye.

League Standing

April 25: With first place assured, Mums were not too worried about their go with Asters, but did not take too kindly to a first game defeat and won the second by eight pins. Asters, with their sights on finishing second, did just that by snaring the last game and totals. Beryl Jordan's 672 tricount stood out for Asters, as did Adele Nolan's 644 for Mums. Rolling the singles were: for Asters, Lois Brown 227, Pauline Sternitt 213; for Mums, Eleanor Guy 200, Audrey Urquhart 220, Avelina Bailey 200. Georgina Jordan's 241 for Violets in the son with 676 (331) was Sad Sacks' big trundler. Lila Atkinson 207 and Jessie Coles 207 likewise had the Sad Sacks' singles. Sputniks hit the triple gong twice, Ted Jennings 605, Harold Ferguson 629, Uko Zajac 61 and Mary Ruddick shinged with 213 and 214 in that order. Free-Easies took no chances of losing from Satellites, who failed in their efforts to get launched for a win. Had DeForest's 212 sparked the Easies' win in the first and he repeated in the second with the same score. "Beaver" Baxter took command for their win in the third with 261. Satellites had two mentionables, Harry Rogers 211, Beth Ritchie 201.

April 26: Wanderers rolled a three-game final pinfall of 3272 to go with their first three total of 3358 and their grand total of 6340 gave them the title, but not before Eagles gave them a scare with a 346 pinfall to 340. From their previous M25 for a total of 6591, just 39 pins shy, Wanderers failed to hit the triples but packed in enough high singles to hang on for the win. The Eagles were down going into the final three games, but they took off in full flight and with Martin Ode rich 645, Harry Hunt 604, Don Grein 719 (301), almost pulled the chestnuts from the fire. Satellites, although very much on the lead-off spot and TenPro had a 32pin win. Al Roach had his baseball under control in the third to give Action Billiards a 340 single—but TenPro were clicking and bit into the "Cue Bow" lead with a 44-pin win. Starting the fourth game, it was still Action Billiards by 64 pins and their fans were not dismayed. Billiards were still rolling hot but Phil LeSueur was still in high gear and his 36 single effort was all the spark. TenPro needed and their 1358 game shot them into the lead by 88 pins. It was Action Billiards' turn to come from behind, and believe me, brothers and sisters, they tried but it was here that Ralph Barton, who had been on the head pin all night with not too much success, but the high spots with a 354 and it was a TenPro win by 130 pins. Give the "Cue Bow" credit. They were in there right to the last frame but it was TenPro's night to howl and howl they did. It would be hard to single out any individual bowler for stardom in this go. They all rated, winners and losers alike, with the hot roll of "Fillip" Le Sueur, a five-game roll of 1505 for an average of 301. Is something to crow about. Phil so so ahead and crow. And the sun did not make a mistake and come out in the evening. That was the beaming countenance of Lou Bonette, the TenPro Distributor who, brightened the place up as he received the congratulations from the fans and vanquished team. Well done, Lou, and hail the champs!

April 27: And what a final roll off the Action Billiards and Ten Pro Distributors put on. Man oh man, it was really something. TenPro, who had stunned the mighty Tiger Cats in the semi-final, rolled well in the first game but Billiards were hot behind Bill Grein's 315 and had a 140 pin lead. Grein was hot again in the second with 305, but Phil LeSueur was beginning to hash the ball that won him the Waterloo "B" aggregate title in 1955 and gave TenPro a 361 game in the lead-off spot and TenPro had a 32pin win. Al Roach had his baseball under control in the third to give Action Billiards a 340 single—but TenPro were clicking and bit into the "Cue Bow" lead with a 44-pin win.

April 27: Rabbits, with nary a chance to hit the roll-off station, handed the first place. Sugar Jets a first game loss. Sugar Jets figured as first place holders, they should do something about it, so up and won themselves the next two and odd point for totals. It remained for Jack McCutcheon to be top man on the totem pole in this go—a 610 tricount it was for this Rabbits.

The Jets were on a single sotie with John Cunningham 224, John Chapman 228, Dot Earle 211, Barbara Smith 202. Sad Sacks watched Sputniks go into orbit with a big first game win, then turned around and won the next two and totals from the surprised, to say the least. Sputniks Jim Gib-

Mrs. Henderson took over for the election of officers. This was short session for it was moved and seconded that they all be elected by acclamation for another year. Then the convenors were treated in the same manner and all will be back in office for another term. All sang "Blest be the tie that binds" and the W.I. and the W.L. were all present.

Harold Henry, chairman of the Georgetown Campaign for funds, reported that not enough returns were in yet to make a report at that time.

Retarded Children's Committee Shows Plans of Proposed School

A general meeting of the North Halton Association for Retarded Children was well attended on Thursday, April 20, at the J. M. Denyes school in Milton.

Mrs. R. Ellington, president, gave a talk on the aims of the Association and its interest in all the retarded children in the North Halton area in particular. Reports were made by all committee chairmen to bring the general membership up to date on the Association's activities over the past few months.

Show Plans

G. G. Addison, chairman of the building committee, assisted by Tom Ferguson of Georgetown, displayed an enlarged floor plan of the proposed new school. Visits to various schools for the reviewed in this part of Ontario were made by the committee before a composite plan for the North Halton School was decided upon.

As soon as there is sufficient funds, building can be commenced on the property purchased on the Seventh Line near Hornby.

the important things accomplished through the use of music and rhythm. The important thing to understand about these children, Mrs. Jeffries stated, is that they can learn, and must be given the opportunity to learn, to fulfill their lives and bring them into the full flower of their capabilities, which is every person's right in a country such as ours.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the Milton and Georgetown Auxiliary ladies.
