Wanted Alive Assorted Sizes

A reader sent the Free Press an interesting clipping from the Yellowknife Post. It reads: WANTED ALIVE
Back page of the Sherritt Gordon "Nickelodeon" carried a poster style feature with a photo of a boy flourishing toy guns and a strip of fingerprints under the large-type heading "Wanted Alive". Reproduced in the Safety Counsellor of the Alberta Safety Council, the message read:

Age: 5 to 10 years old (more or less).
Height: Comes in assortment of sizes.
Name and aliases: Toby, Chuckie, Paul, Tom, Al, Billy, Joe, Dickie and perhaps using many others.
General habits: Dashes across the street without looking. Often runs between parked cars. Rides bicycle in unstable manner across alley entrances, up and down narrow streets. Does not signal intentions or warn you of his presence. Depends on motorists to watch out for him.
This boy is wanted! At the school for questioning in the proper use of the ABC's and to learn the meaning of the word safety. He is wanted at home to run errands, to pick up clothing and toys scattered about to watch Lassie on TV.
Most of all this boy is wanted for love!
Be careful: He may be armed with a water pistol or Davy Crockett rifle. In his pocket may be found a penny, a rubber ball, an old flashlight battery.
Approach with caution: If seen from moving vehicle at 40 miles per hour, allow at least 125 feet to stop - 311 feet on ice or snow. While driving, keep your eyes moving, aim high in steering, see the big picture, leave yourself an out and make sure he sees you.
Hopefully,
Mom, Dad and Sheritt Gordon.

Bands Participate In Annual Concert

The two Halton bands of the Lorne Scouts (P.D.&H. Regt.) were among 20 bands participating in the 13th annual massed bands concert of the Canadian Army's Central Command at the C.N.E. grounds on Sunday evening. An estimated 27,000 spectators jammed the grandstand and bleachers to watch this year's show. The Pipe Band had 22 members present and they merged with five other bands to make a marching band of close to 140 men. The Military Band members sat in a massed band with several other brass and reed bands in the centre of the football field. Military marches, light classical numbers and popular selections by the brass bands were mixed with the marching pipe, trumpet and bugle bands performing on the track.
This year's program included a display of physical training by 194 soldiers of Camp Iperwash.
—Residents awakening Friday morning looked out to find a skiff of snow on the ground. Short summer, wasn't it?
