Missionary's Letter Tells of Hindu Life

Mrs. Wallace King was hostess to the W.M.S. of St. David's Church on Thursday. The president, Mrs. Parker, read part of the third chapter of Ecclesiastes, the hymn, Tell Me the Old, Old Story was sung.

Mrs. R. Elliot read the scripture lesson from Timothy, Matthew and Acts. Mrs. Allan Moore read the Glad Tidings prayer. Mrs. Crawford gave the secretary's report. The financial report was given by Mrs. Greenlees. Mrs. Menzies, cheer secretary, reported four letters written and read some thank you notes. The prayer partners for the next month are two friends who are ill.

Hindu Religion
The secretary read some letters received by Miss McPhail from Dr. A. Williams, in which he told of the Hindu religion. It was decided to send used Christmas cards, Easter cards and get well cards.

The roll call was answered by "Thoughts from the Presbyterian Record," "Spirit Divine, Attend Our Prayers" was sung.

Mrs. J. K. Mahon had the topic from the study book, Into All the World Together. The aim of the Women's Missionary Society is to work together that the whole world will become Christian. Much can be done through Christian literature.

"Love Divine, All Loves Excelling" was sung. Mrs. A. T. Moore closed the meeting with prayer. After singing Grace, 17 ladies enjoyed the social period, which followed.

ONE OR THE OTHER
The little boy approached his father, who was standing by the edge of a cliff, admiring the scenery. He piped: Mamma says it isn't safe here and you are either to come away or else give me the picnic basket.
