EBENEZER

Rev. K. Griffiths Ordained During Gowning Ceremony

A sacred gowning ceremony and consecration of the vestments took place in Ebenezer church on Friday, June 9, for Rev. K. Griffiths who, along with several other ordinands, was ordained in Westdale United church, Hamilton, on Thursday, June 8.

Rev. E. E. Bakker, B.A., B.D., preached an inspiring sermon on "The Call of God!" Other officiating ministers were Rev. A. E. Black, B.A., B.D., Rev. H. A. Bagnall, B.A., Th.B., and Rev. M. J. McLeod B.A., B.D.

Sessions Attend

Members of the sessions taking part in the offering of the vestments were R. M. Starkey and L. A. Page, Arkell; W. G. Wallace and N. S. Marshall, Eden Mills; and M. O. Hayward and M. Moffat, Ebenezer.

After the prayer of consecration, the choir sang "Lord, I have Loved the Habitation of Thy House" by James R. Pears. Following the acceptance of the vestments, a choral prayer "God Be in My Heart" was sung very quietly by the choir.

The recessional hymn was "The Church's One Foundation" and Rev. K. Griffiths pronounced the benediction. All retired to the church school for fellowship and refreshments served by the ladies of the three churches after the service.

Communion Service

Ebenezer church was filled Sunday morning, June 11, for communion services with Rev. K. Griffiths officiating for the first time after his recent ordination.

Three infants were offered for baptism and one adult was baptized. Several new members joined the church by certificate and also by profession of faith.

Rev. Griffiths has accepted a call to Brussels and he and Mrs. Griffiths and son David will be leaving the Ebenezer charge the end of June.
