Family Went West Dies in California

Annie Laurel Currie was born at Acton, Ontario, 76 years ago, and went west to Carstairs, Alta. with her family in 1908. She was married to Oliver Dudley in California and after his death 30 years ago she returned for a number of years to Three Hills, Alta., later again returning to California where she passed away on Saturday, July 1, after a six months illness.

Left to mourn her loss are three daughters, Mrs. Marion Girdler and Mrs. Laurel Radley in California; Mrs. Dorothy Nicholson, Calgary, Alta.; two step-daughters, Mrs. Rita Lewis, California and Mrs. Thelma Long, Montana, U.S.A.; also surviving a sister, Mrs. Tina Henry, Victoria, B.C.; a brother, Wm. Ashland, Oregon and a brother Herbert, Drumheller, Alta.

Besides her husband she was predeceased by her parents, sister Mrs. Euphemia Midgley and Miss Katherine Currie, R.N., also three brothers, John, Charles and Robert.

Services and burial took place Wednesday, July 5 in California.

BALLINAFAD

W. I. Debates Hall, School W. M. S., Graduates in News

A meeting of the W.M.S. Association members was held on Tuesday night in the church. Miss Hills in the chair, Mrs. Robert McEnery took the scripture prayer, Mrs. Frank Smith the prayer, Miss Hills read a piece on Stewardship.

Mrs. Black introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. McFadden from Georgetown, who was very interesting speaking on Home Missions in the Western Provinces.

A social half hour was spent over a cup of tea and cookies.

Graduate Nurse
Congratulations to Miss Helena Hills who graduated from the School of Nursing in Toronto on Friday.

Miss Beth McEnery is attending summer school at Toronto.

New Hall or School?
The July meeting of the W.I. was held on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Jesse McEnery.

The president, Mrs. E. McEnery presiding. The meeting opened with the W.I. Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was answered by a Holiday of Your Youth and Means of Transportation. Minutes and business followed.

Mrs. Robert McEnery, historical research convenor, took over the meeting with a two-minute report from convenors, current events by Mrs. Wm. McLean, motto by Mrs. Frank Smith, "Forty is the old age of youth, fifty is the youth of old age" which was well given. Mrs. McEnery read a piece "She left me her cook book" also a contest. A discussion followed as to whether we should build a hall or wait and see about getting one of the schools. The meeting closed with the Queen and a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Hills, Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, Mrs. Snow, assisted by the hostesses.

Good For Garbage

The Scouts are still selling stout big bags as a continuing project to raise funds. The big bags are favorites for garbage and some housewives vow they couldn't keep house without 'em. So far about $70 has been raised through sale of the bags. Syd Newton and George Haggart are the men to call.

New Hall

The Ballinafad area needs a new community hall!

A meeting will be held in Ballinafad Church basement on Monday evening, July 24, at 9 p.m. to discuss this community project which is supported by the Ballinafad Women's Institute. A representative from a ready-built lumber company will be there to explain details of obtaining a hall that way.

Using an old school as a community hall has also been debated.

KNOX CHURCH, Acton, was the setting for the marriage of Rosealee Higgins and Gary Dawkins, Speyside Central School teacher, Saturday, July 1. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Rosealee Higgins, Gary Dawkins Exchange Rings in Knox Church

Speyside Central school teacher David Gary Dawkins took as his bride Rosealee Elizabeth Higgins in a double-ring ceremony at Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, Saturday afternoon, July 1. White peonies and glads formed the setting as the Rev. A. H. McKenzie heard the young couple's vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Higgins of Acton and her father gave her in marriage. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dawkins of Acton.

E. A. Hansen played the organ for the ceremony and accompanied Norman Elliott who sang Wedding Prayer and At Dawning. Drifting Net, Lace.

The bride's traditional long white gown was fashioned with a sequin-trimmed bodice of Alcon lace and a bouffant skirt of drifting white net accented with appliques of lace. Tiers of lace accented the back fullness. Sequins trimmed the lace medallions at the sweetheart neckline. Her billowing shoulder length veil of net was held by a dainty coronet of pearls and sequins. She carried red roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. V. Wilts, of Cooksville who wore a street-length gown of turquoise silk organza with full skirt, shirred bodice and square décolletage accented by shoulder bows. She wore a matching flower-trimmed veil and carried pink bouquets.

Groomsmen were Lieut. Donald Dawkins, the groom's brother; ushers were John Higgins, brother of the bride and Fred Dawkins, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Agar Hostess To United W.M.S.

Mrs. R. Agar was hostess to the ladies of the W.M.S. of the United Church on Tuesday evening for their July meeting. Mrs. H. R. Force chaired the meeting opening with the Call to Worship and the singing of the hymn City of God, How Broad and Far.

The thought for study during the worship service was the Unity of Christ's Church. The Scripture reading from John 17 was read by Mrs. C. W. Mason. Mrs. Force closed with prayer.

The reports of the secretaries were read and approved. Mrs. Force said she had sent a letter to the U.N. in regard to a speaker for the October meeting.

August is the vacation month. The September meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mason.

Miss Lillian Phillips entertained with two vocal solos, Bless This House and He, accompanied by Miss Jean McLean at the piano.

Reviews Study Book
The study book, Ship Under the Cross, was ably reviewed by Mrs. Bert Mowat.

There will be a talent evening on July 26 at the home of Mrs. James Rolston. Her daughter-in-law will show slides taken in Germany and Sardinia while visiting there.

Mrs. Dwight I. Engel expressed the thanks of all to the hostess for her hospitality and to the others who shared in the making of a very profitable and enjoyable evening. The Lord's Prayer repeated in unison closed the meeting.

The hostess served tea and light refreshments.

—Summer having continued in the farm land surrounding town.

Mrs. A. Dunbar W. I. Hostess

The June meeting of the Eden Crest Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. A. Dunbar; 10 members and two guests were in attendance. The roll call, A Water Safety Rule, was answered with members responding with the old safety rules and some new ones devised by mothers with children who live near the water.

Mrs. E. Borden was called upon to give the report of the District Annual and gave the members who had not attended a most descriptive account of the business day accomplished, and of the pleasing program.

There will be no meeting during the month of July. The Eden Mills Women's Institute members were invited to attend the August picnic, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. L. Nesbitt. At this meeting graduating pupils will receive their pins, presented to them by the members of both Institutes.

Mrs. E. Perry and Mrs. R. Martin, convenors for Citizenship and Education, presented an interesting program. Two contests were conducted and won by Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs. N. R. Marshall.

The courtesy convenor thanked the hostesses, Mrs. A. Dunbar and Mrs. G. McDougall and Mrs. T. Thompson for a delightful lunch during which a social half hour was enjoyed.

S.S. 9 School Closing Picnic Highlighted by Sports, Lunch

About 135 persons attended a well organized picnic at S. S. No. 9 school closing. Lunch was a highlight. It was sponsored by the School Association.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Turner, Paul and Carol visited Mr. and Mrs. John Warren and family at Charlton, near Englehart on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas of Port Colbourne with the Walter Linham's for the weekend of July 1.
