MR. AND MRS. ROBERT AGNEW were married Saturday afternoon in Acton United Church and a reception followed at the Legion Hall. The bride is Marjory Corinne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Elgin Beck of R.R. 3, Milton.

Reception at Legion Follows Summer Marriage on Saturday

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday afternoon at Acton United Church in a summery setting of peonies and orange blossoms. The bride was Marjory Corinne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Elgin Beck of R.R. 3, Milton, and the groom Robert Agnew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Agnew, Bower Ave., Acton. The Rev. Dwight Engel officiated and George Elliott played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white Alencon lace over tulle and satin, laced with long lily point sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Lace inserts outlined the square neckline of the all lace bodice; its moulded lines were accented by a row of back buttons. Re-embroidered lace appliques tiered the hooped skirt to the hemline which ended in a slight train.

Carried Roses
A corsage trimmed with sequins and pearls held her shoulder-length veil. The bridal bouquet was red roses and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Aileen Dodds of R.R. 2, Rockwood attended as bridesmaid in powder blue nylon or tulle. Of street length, the full skirted gown featured a lace jacket and a fitted bodice with a boat neckline. White velvet roses formed her sequin-trimmed cap headdress and she carried pink shasta daisies.

Jeff Fryer was Mr. Agnew's best man, with Bill Johnston and Wayne Spires also of Acton, ushering.

For the reception at Acton Legion auditorium, the bride's mother chose a two piece ensemble in white and ginger tones, with a bronze chrysanthemum corsage and white accessories. Mrs. Agnew wore beige nylon with matching beige accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

Wedding Guests
Wedding guests were present from Brantford, Maple, Richmond Hill, Woodbridge, Shining Tree, Kitchener, Hamilton and North Bay.

Klinck-Hilts Vows Saturday

A quiet ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton with the Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiating, joined in marriage Helen May Hilts of Milton and Gerald Bruce Klinck of Acton on Saturday, July 8. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hilts of 70 Charles St., Milton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Klinck of 62 Guelph St. W., Acton.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lime green dress with white and beige accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Her attendant was her sister, Miss Irene Hilts, wearing a beige suit with accessories to match with a white gardenia. The best man was Norman Brown of Oakville.

The bride's mother wore flowered green nylon with white accessories and the groom's a mauve dress with white accessories.

A reception was held at the bride's home and the couple cut a beautiful wedding cake made and decorated by the bride's mother.

They left on a week's tour in the United States and will be living in Acton when they return.

Guests from Oakville, Toronto and Milton joined members of the two families.

Youngest There

The youngest member present at the Storey reunion at Brookville Hall on June 24 was four-month-old Harvey MacLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art MacLeod, R.R. 1, Acton.

For travelling the bride chose a flowered print dress of glazed cotton with white accessories. On their return from a honeymoon at Six-Mile Lake in Northern Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Agnew will live in Acton.

Showers Held
Prior to her marriage, the bride was honored at two miscellaneous showers in Milton and Acton. Mrs. L. Popo of Milton was hostess to a shower given by Mrs. H. Hopkins, Mrs. Jim Gray and Mrs. Gary Kent. Mrs. Fryer of Acton was hostess for a miscellaneous shower.

Memorial Service at Cemetery W.A. Meeting, Church in News

Friends and relatives from every surrounding community attended the memorial service at Ebenezer Cemetery, which was held late in June.

The Rev. G. T. Simpson from Acton was guest minister for this impressive service. The main service was held in the church with the recessional hymn leading the congregation to the adjoining cemetery where Rev. Simpson offered the dedicatory prayer, which was remembered by loved ones in the fellowship of our Lord Jesus Christ, who have entered into their rest.

Rev. Simpson was recommended to the holy ministry by the session of this church in 1920.

A lovely duet "The Lord is My Shepherd" was sung by Mrs. K. Griffiths and Mr. J. F. Kitching. The choir of Ebenezer sang an anthem "Thine O Lord is the Greatness."

Welcome President
Ebenezer W.A. held an evening meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hayward with a large number present.

All were pleased to see the president, Mrs. A. Frank, around again after fracturing an ankle.

FOR APPLIANCE AND TV REPAIRS MANNING ELECTRIC Call 230

Sandra Blyth and Eunice Norrish sang a duet and Mrs. M. Thomson read an article from a paper concerning Rev. and Mrs. Harbottle and family which was of interest to all.

After a lengthy business session, Mrs. Darby closed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments were enjoyed served by the hostess and helpers.

Fill Pulpit
Rev. Brooks from Acton occupied the pulpit on Sunday and the Young People will have charge of the service for the third Sunday. There will then be two Sundays without services and the new minister, Rev. Hadcock, will be inducted to the charge and will be in the pulpit the first Sunday in August.
