

Reception, Dance Follow Norton-Watkins Vows

A lovely summer wedding was followed by a dinner for nearly 100 guests and a dance in Stewarttown hall for many friends when Ann Isabel Watkins and Edward George Norton were married last Saturday, July 15. The double-ring ceremony in the Knox Presbyterian Church was conducted by the Rev. A. H. McKenna at four o'clock, baskets of summer flowers forming the setting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Watkins of R.R. 5, Shelburne, formerly of 207 Mill St., Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Norton Sr., north line, Glen Williams.

George Elliott played the organ and accompanied Norman Elliott who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Promise Me."

Traditional Gown
The bride's full-length white gown was fashioned with two layers of drifting net over tulle, topped by silk organza. The sweetheart neckline was outlined in lace. A pearl tulle hold her hair in a bun. She carried red sweetbrier roses and baby white mums with six and white satin ribbons.

Miss Kathleen Kukness of Acton, friend of the bride, was her maid of honor wearing a full-skirted dress of aqua chiffon over matching tulle with a soft, rounded neckline and a ruffled bodice. The skirt ended in a deep hem. Aqua chiffon shawl and leaves and flowers formed her headpiece and her bouquets of white shasta daisies was carried by three bridesmaids dressed to match her gown.

The two bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie Gough of R.R. 4, a friend, and Miss Doris Robinson of R.R. 2, Rockwood, a cousin of the bride.

They wore veils the same as the maid of honor but in shrimp pink with the carnations in the centre of their bouquets the same hue.

Basket of Flowers
The bride's Miss Heather Watkins of Long Branch was flower girl wearing a full-skirted dress of shrimp pink tulle under light pink chiffon with a shrimp pink headband and white accessories. She carried a basket of white shasta daisies and pink carnations.

Wilmer Watkins gave his daughter in marriage Roy Norton Jr., Glen Williams, brother of the groom, was his best man while the ushers were Bill Watkins, Toronto, brother of the bride, George Robinson, R.R. 2, Rockwood, George Gray, 1 Buffalo, N.Y., Milton Thorold and Rockwood as well as Glen Williams and Acton.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Watkins wore a beige sheath of lace over tulle with a matching three-quarter length coat, moss green accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Norton chose a dress of light blue lace over tulle, full skirted, with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Ring Bearer
Dennis Norton of Glen Williams was ring bearer for his brother and he wore a white jacket and black trousers. He carried both rings on a white satin cushion.

Dinner was served to nearly 100 in Knox Presbyterian Church parlor, and guests were welcomed from Berlin, Toronto, Guelph, Bluevale, Georgetown, 1 Buffalo, N.Y., Milton, Thorold and Rockwood as well as Glen Williams and Acton.

After the dinner Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Norton wore a beige sheath of lace over tulle with a matching three-quarter length coat, moss green accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Norton chose a dress of light blue lace over tulle, full skirted, with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Crowds Still Big At Teen Town Dances

Vacation time hasn't cut attendance at the regular Lions club sponsored Teen Town dances in the Legion Hall. There was a good crowd Friday to hear favorites Little Caesar and the Constables.

Lions in attendance were Alec Johnson, Ray Arbie, Sydney K. Lamb and Morley Allen.
