Young People Sponsor Negroes For "Wonderful" Visit to Farms

With tears in their eyes, eight Negroes from Harlem, New York, left many friends behind them in farm areas near here Saturday when they went by bus back to the steaming hot city. The Young People's Association of Ballinafad, Alton and Caledon, United churches sponsored the eight young people.

The plan first started with the Rev. Morton Patterson of Alton, who had worked in New York and knew the minister of Martin Luther King Baptist Temple in Harlem. The trip was arranged through them, and the visitors—who had never in their lives been on a farm—stayed at farms in the three areas for 10 wonderful days.

Two of them stayed in Ballinafad district, Ellena Gilbert and Paul Austen, both 18.

Rather than stay at one house, they were guests at about six homes each as they got to know the young people, here better. Miss Gilbert went with two of her hostesses to help teach at the Ballinafad Vacation Bible School and the day before she left was taking pictures of the 115 youngsters to take back to New York.

Her mother, Mrs. Gilbert, came from New York, with the group. Mr. Patterson and another Alton man drove down for the New Yorkers and they returned by bus.

Canada Night
When the group all got together for activities they went to Alton. They had a layride there and a "Canada Night" when square dancing was the main feature.

Ballinafad's guests played with the Young People's ball team.

These new friends want to see each other again; they're talking about some young people from Ballinafad trying to go down to New York, and about the Negroes coming back here next summer.

Wonderful Project
The local groups held several events to raise money for this very new venture. They were agreed it was a "wonderful project" and a real adventure in race relations. They all got along together very well.

Of course there was a great difference between the noisy Harlem streets and the quiet Ontario farms, but the newcomers loved it here.

Aid Korean Girl
The Ballinafad Young People also have another very worthwhile project underway. Each month they send money to a Korean girl to enable her to continue her nursing studies. They have a picture of her and receive letters.

Lions Gasarama All Day Saturday

Lions club members will staff Jack McCallum's new Texaco service station all day Saturday, garnering the profits on the day's business for club funds. At least 10 will be on the job at all times from 8 a.m. till 8 p.m. during the gasarama, two of them dressed as clowns to wave in passing traffic.

Car washes, gas and oil changes will all be available during the day's project, coinciding with the "grand opening" of the remodeled garage.

Lions will be distributing free pop, chips, balloons and candy and firemen's helmets for children. There will be lucky draws for prizes.

Three Lionettes were selling tickets to next Saturday's gasarama on Mill St. Saturday. Wearing their perky outfits were Barbara Adams, Mary Baker and Julie Holmes.

At Ukrainian Camp

The Ukrainian Youth camp on the fourth line is into its third week with the usual high registration of young people. The camp is crowded during July but numbers dwindle in the first two weeks of August.

It was established several years ago with permanent buildings and an artificial lake for swimming. Some of the leaders are recognizable in town in their khaki uniforms with short shorts.

Youth Unhurt Car Does Flip

A car driven by a Milton youth received $600 damaged Sunday evening when it rolled over on the Fifth Line, Esquimes, north of 10 Sideroad.

O.P.P. reported the car went out of control, struck a pole and a tree, then rolled over once and landed on its wheels. Driver Andy Penrose of 423 George St., Milton, and a passenger were unhurt.

Prints of pictures appearing in the paper may be ordered. They are always clearer than those seen in the paper and are good for framing or scrapbooks.
