Grades 7 and 8 from school No. 8 will be transported to No. 9 (Rockwood school). Grades 6, 7, and 8 from school No. 1 will be transported to school No. 11, senior room. The junior room at No. 11 will have grades 1, 2, 3, and 4. The senior room at No. 11 will have grades 5, 6, 7, and 8.

Expect 179 Pupils Opening Day At Speyside Central School

Little change in enrolment is anticipated at Speyside school this year and as a result of families moving out of the district and additional enrolment in kindergarten, 179 pupils are expected to start school September 5.

One new teacher has been added to the teaching staff this year and Miss B. McEnery, replaces Mrs. B. Dekker who has transferred to Guelph.

Members of the teaching staff, grade taught and room numbers are listed below:

Principal Colin Leitch, grades 7-8, room 5; Garry Dawkins, grades 6-7, room 4; Mrs. M. Barber, 4-5, room 3; Miss McEnery, grades 2-3, room 2 and Mrs. H. Rogvaldson, grades 1-2, room 1. Mrs. Mary Kidney will act as music supervisor for the school.

School Is Ready

Caretaker Jim Morrison has the school spic and span for the opening day of school and the three buses used for transportation have been overhauled and are ready to run.

Students attending will come from the following area: Blue Mountain and Bannockburn in the senior section and Dublin, Dufferin, Waterloo and Lorne in the junior section.

Three teachers completed a summer course this year with principal Leitch completing intermediate guidance, Miss McEnery, home economics and Mrs. Rogvaldson, primary methods part two.

The principal pointed out, this week that pupils would be advised to bring their lunch as school will be conducted all day, beginning at 9:15 until 4 p.m. He also requested beginners to bring along their birth certificates for registration purposes.

Health Nurse

Miss Marie Capponi, Halton County Public Health Nurse, will check pupils at both the Robert Little and M. Z. Bennett public schools this year. Miss Capponi is stationed in Acton and has already made herself familiar to many residents through house calls.

FROSBY FREEZE hostesses are pictured above as they anxiously await customers. The attractive building located near the eastern approach to Acton, was erected in 12 days from the time ground was broken until business was booming. Left to right are Wendi Bartram, Julie Holmes, Wilna Abram and Pat Blundell.

Brookville, Campbellville Will Welcome Back 400 Students

About 400 students are expected back to Nassagaweya Township's two schools next week when school opens for the 1961-62 term. Enrolment is expected to be 300 at the Brookville school and 100 at Campbellville.

Principal Kenneth Tombridge returns to Brookville along with Leon Duffield teaching grade 7. Miss Harris in grade 6, Jack van Arragon in grade 5, Miss Jamieson in grade 4, Miss Shirley Paul in grade 3 and Mrs. Annie Paul in grade 2. A new teacher has been hired for grade 1 but the secretary was on holidays.

Expect 14 Pupils In Sunshine School

Back to classrooms along with 1,700 other Milton school students next Tuesday will be 14 children at the North Halton Sunshine School for retarded children.

Enrolment is expected to increase this year as other applications for enrollment have been filed. The school executive is still hoping to get a new school at Hornby under construction this year, but the financing has not yet been arranged.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Jettares return as principal and Mrs. Jean Mitchell will be assistant. Part time helpers will be pianist Mrs. Alice Elliott, Mrs. Doris Smith, speech therapist Mrs. M. English, and Rev. M. Christensen who supplies transportation for Acton and Georgetown students.

OBITUARY

Veteran of Two Wars, Wally McHugh Dies

Born in Manchester, England in 1895, George Wallace (Wally) McHugh passed away suddenly in his 66th year, Saturday, August 26, enroute to Guelph hospital.

His death came as a shock to both his family and many friends when following a heart-attack he passed away while being taken to hospital by ambulance.

A veteran of both the First World War and Second World War he was active in the Legion Branch 197, always willing to attend parades and assist in any manner. His interest in Legion affairs made him many friends and he was well-known in other centres as well.

Married in Rodington, Lancashire, England, to the former Mary Roughley, he was the son of the late James McHugh and Annie Barlow. The couple have made their home in Acton for the past 11 years.

Beside his wife he leaves to mourn his loss four sons, John of Acton, Stanley, Glen Williams, Edward, Lindsay and William of Ottawa. A brother John of England also survives. He will be sadly missed by eight grandchildren as well.

Legion Service

A former Beamhouse Company employee and Milton worker he was remembered by the legion during a service Monday evening when 70 attended.

Funeral services were conducted at the Rumley Shoemaker Funeral home on Tuesday by Rev. Kenneth Richards in Georgetown, with interment in Lanark cemetery. Pallbearers were Dick Greer, William Maddocks, F. J. Wright, Mel Jordan, Wes Marchant and Robert Turner.

High School

Establish New Bus Routes For Rural School Students

High school students living in the rural areas will be transported to and from school again this year by Tyler Transportation Company. Following a meeting of the transportation committee and a complete survey of the area the following schedule was adopted.
