Brears-Ritchie Vows Given During Double Ring Ceremony

Baskets of white gladioli and mums decorated Knox Presbyterian Church on August 19 at 3.30 p.m. for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Ann (Beth) Ritchie and Mr. Earl Joseph Brears.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ritchie, 139 Crescent Street and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Balfour Brears, Fordwich, Ontario.

Rev. Andrew H. McKenzie officiated at the double ring ceremony. Organist E. A. Hansen accompanied Mrs. Lenora Vickery who sang two selections during the service, "Wedding Prayer" and "At Dawning".

Mr. and Mrs. B. Pargeter, neighbors of the bride, provided a beautiful bouquet of gladioli from their garden for the church parlor, where the register was signed.

Bridal Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white chiffon over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline trimmed with sequins and pearls. A wide lace tier decorated the full skirt. A half hat of delicately pleated tulle adorned with seed pearls held her elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations with a white orchid inset.

Miss Isabelle Ritchie was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Laurie Johnson, sister of the bride and a friend, and Miss Shirley Mason, both of Acton.

Acton. All were gowned alike in street length dresses of white nylon chiffon over taffeta, full skirts and wide cummerbunds. Short jackets of chiffon with bouffant sleeves completed the ensemble. They carried bouquets of blue carnations.

Groomsman was Mr. Glenn Banks, friend of the groom, Acton. Ushers were Mr. Dave Johnson, brother-in-law of the bride and Mr. Norley Brears, Fordwich, brother of the groom.

Reception Held
Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. The bride's mother received, wearing a blue lace-sleeved dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a blue dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Isabelle Marsh, aunt of the bride, made the wedding cake.
For a wedding trip to northern Ontario, the bride donned a beige linen sheath dress with white accessories and white orchid corsage. Returning, they are residing at 105 Mill Street. The bride is employed at Micro Plastics, Acton while the groom is on the staff of the M. Z. Bennett Public School.

Out-of-town guests were present from Palmerston, Clifford, Fordwich, New York and Milton as well as Acton.

After a most delicious picnic supper, the officials and relatives began to leave after all enjoying a lovely afternoon.

RALPH EWERS suffered a fractured skull and broken leg and his car was termed a total wreck when it struck a tree head on after clipping another vehicle, Friday evening near Acton. The westbound car passed another vehicle, swung back to its own lane, crossed the centre line again hitting an oncoming car, entered the south ditch hitting a large tree. The driver was rushed to Guelph hospital and later transferred to Toronto.

Hosking-Judd Wedding Of Rockwood Interest

Miss Carol Marie Judd of London became the bride of Bruce Henry George Hosking of Rockwood on Saturday, August 26, in Calvary United Church, London. The church was decorated with large baskets of pastel shade gladioli and lighted tapers.

Dr. Wayne Hosking, brother of the groom, Hamilton, attended the ceremony as best man. Ushers were Ross L. Judd, brother of the bride, Peterborough; Larry Korlewec, Hamilton; Edward Desorme, Toronto; and John Hual, Guelph.

Reception at Inn
After the ceremony, a reception was held at the "Knotty Pine Inn", London. Receiving with the bride were the bride's parents and the mother of the groom. Mrs. Judd wore a blue printed silk dress under nylon sheer, a corsage of pink rosebuds and matching accessories.

Floor Length Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of French illusion over net ruffles and taffeta. The gown was styled with fitted bodice and full length lily point sleeves. The bodice featured a scalloped, lace-edged neckline, and was trimmed with bands of Chantilly lace. Her shoulder length butterfly veil of double French illusion was held with a cabbage rose of silk, edged with seed pearls and set on a head-piece of pearls.

The bride's cascade bouquet was comprised of chalice roses, stephanotis and lily. Miss Linda Upshall of Toronto attended the bride as maid of honor. She was gowned in rust-colored peau de soie, styled with scoop neckline, cap sleeves, bell skirt, box-pleated at the back with plain front panel. A long Tulle train completed the ensemble and she carried a semi-crescent bouquet of gladioli in fall shades.

Miss Shirley Howson, London, gowned in moss green peau de soie, styled similarly to the maid of honor and Miss Sheila Hosking, sister of the groom, Rockwood, in gold peau de soie, were bridesmaids.

Hit Car, Tree Man in Hospital

Rushed by ambulance to Guelph hospital and later transferred to Toronto, Ralph Ewers, Guelph, suffered a fractured skull and broken leg when his car struck a tree head on opposite Blue Springs Nursery on Number 7 highway, west of Acton, Friday evening.

Travelling west at the time of the accident, the Ewers' vehicle passed another westbound car, swung back to its proper lane, veered over the centre line and hit a car driven by Gordon E. MacRostie, R.R. 2, Brampton, entered the south ditch and hit the tree.

The impact of the crash lodged the licence plate in the tree, pushed back the motor and completely wrecked the vehicle. Constable Dave Richardson of the North Halton O.P.P. detachment investigated.

The MacRostie car received extensive damage to the left front end and side and was towed to Brampton later the next day. Neither Mr. or Mrs. MacRostie were injured.

Police captain: So you let him escape, huh? Didn't you obey my orders to guard all exits? Rookie: Yes, sir, we guarded every exit. He must have slipped through one of the entrance.
