New Rector's Former Parishes At Ancaster, Drayton, Elora

Just settled into St. Alban's rectory, 185 Jeffrey Ave are the Rev. Donald West, B.A., L.S.T., Mrs. West and their seven-month-old son Gregory. They are happy to be in Acton and are looking forward to new friends and fruitful church work.

Mr. West received his elementary and secondary education in St. Catharines, although he was born in Weston. In 1956 he received his B.A. from Bishop's University, Lennoxville, Quebec. For two years he was curate at St. John's church, Ancaster, where he met Suzanne, his wife. They were married in 1958.

From there he went to St. John's church, Elora and Christ Church, Drayton.

Mr. West is interested in the entire community as well as his own parish. In Elora he was president of the Chamber of Commerce.

At St. Alban's he follows the Rev. H. B. Stokreef who has gone with his wife and two sons to Hamilton.

Cameo Shoppe Fall Styles Shown By 25 During Fair Ladies' Program

"Easy to look after" was the promise and easy on the eyes was the reaction when the ladies of Acton Fair sponsored a pleasant preview of Cameo Shoppe fall fashions in the Robert Little School auditorium on Thursday evening of last week. Flowers and evergreens outlined the stage. Mrs. Ewart Levland introduced 25 models to the applauding audience of 250.

Mrs. Ross Ballentine has a new dress as a smart memento of the show! She won the first prize in a draw—a soft (lasted) beige dress with bloused top and slim skirt. Mrs. Mac Symon modelled it with a striking mustard hat and gloves. The dress was donated by the Cameo Shoppe, where all the clothes shown may be purchased.

Ken Mann made the draw. Only other male in the room, Peter Martingell, helped his sister Sharon make the draws for two more prizes, a handbag bought in the Cameo Shoppe by the fair ladies as a prize—won by Mrs. Jean Leitch, R.R. 2, and fall jewellery bought at Rachlin's as a prize—won by Miss M. Z. Bennett, Lake Ave.

Wedding Gown Of 1900s
Intermission brought a variety program to the platform. Wearing a white lawn wedding gown of the early 1900s, Mrs. Tom Manes sang two numbers. Sharon and Peter Martingell were charmers in two tap dancing selections. Vic Bristow sang twice. Mrs. Jesse McEnery gave a reading wearing a wig, big old hat and a dress from the 1900s which, lifted daintily, revealed high black boots!

The flowers came from Caroline Nurseries; makeup was by Beauty Counsellors Mrs. Jack Dowling and Mrs. Bill Sprouton; Jewellery came from Rachlin's. Mrs. Wilfred Waldie, the ladies' president, welcomed the crowd. Mrs. Mel McCullough was accompanist for singers, dancers and models.

Mrs. Levland was given a plant in a planter at the end of the program.

Preview For Fall
Models wore fall dresses, suits and coats highlighted by imitation fur stoles and jackets; sports wear, and school wear. Clothes for all ages from teenagers up and for a variety of sizes were shown.

Models were Mrs. W. Waldie, Sandi Davidson, Linda Swackhamer, Mrs. Lloyd McEnery, Maureen Sargeant, Mrs. Stan Matthews, Mrs. Don Matthews, Mrs. Jesse McEnery, Mrs. Walter Linham, Linda Linham, Mrs. Clark Armstrong, Mrs. Cliff Storey, Mrs. Mac Symon, Mrs. W. Frank, Miss Marilyn Madill, Mrs. Alex Near, Miss Pauline Marks, Mrs. Fred Kentner, Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Mrs. G. W. McKenzie, Miss Nancy Aiken, Mrs. G. McLeman, Mrs. Chris Britton, Judi Abram and Beth McEnery.

The fund-raising fair ladies have in mind a nest-egg which might be used to help furnish the new community centre. With a good crowd at their fashion show they also had a good advance sale of tickets.

Fudge was sold at intermission to boost their profits even more. Mrs. A. K. Mann of the Cameo Shoppe co-ordinated models and clothes from her full stock racks. She was assisted backstage by Mrs. J. Van Fleet while Mrs. Herbert Price was in charge of the jewellery.

Seek New Applicants For Township Clerk

At a recent meeting, Erin Township Council accepted with regret the resignation of township clerk George T. Lacey and authorized tenders for applicants to fill the vacancy to be called immediately.

Mr. Lacey was commended by council members for his excellent and faithful work during the past years as each member stated their regret at his resignation.

Approval Payment
Council agreed to a donation of $25 to the Hillsburgh band and approved payment of $10 to Mrs. Vera Myers for services regarding the land use by-law. The following accounts were approved for payment: general, $562.66; roads, $5,416.76; welfare, $298.85; accounts under the cattle, sheep and poultry protection act, $215.

Royal Cafe Building Under Renovations

The Royal Cafe, Mill Street, owned by Bill Wong, is undergoing a face-lifting as a two-storey cement block addition is being erected.

The west wall, formerly wood siding, has been removed, and a two-storey cement block wall erected. When complete, the new section will house four additional rooms for living quarters with the downstairs section remaining as a restaurant and office building.

Mr. Wong recently purchased the entire block and one of the main reasons for the alterations was to provide adequate fire protection as well as additional living space.

New Rector Tells Of Guild's Work

The St. Alban's Altar Guild held its quarterly meeting Monday evening in the vestry of the church. The meeting was opened by the new rector, Rev. Donald West with a prayer. Minutes of the meeting and the Treasurer's report were given by Mrs. Winnie Kerr, followed by the correspondence.

The rector gave a talk of instruction on Altar Guild work. Arrangements were made for the Harvest Service on September 24 regarding the decorating of the church. The rector closed the meeting with a prayer and they adjourned to the parish hall for refreshments.

Staggered Hours Continue at H.S.

Staggered noon hours at the Acton District high school will be carried on for another two weeks at least on a trial basis. At this time the staff will review the plan.

Principal E. A. Hansen reported this week that the inter-grade sports program formerly carried out at noon has been disrupted but generally the plan seems to be working well. He added however, a complete review would take place at the end of the trial period and necessary changes made.

Pulp and paper exports run to about $1 billion annually.

UNITED NATIONS HEALTH REPORT

There is no connection whatsoever between the number or type of liquor outlets and the consumption of alcohol per capita of any country. An example is Italy where there is every type of outlets and a very large number of them.

Here the number of alcoholics is among the lowest in the world, proving that outlets do not affect alcohol consumption.

Let's be fair, give it a three year trial period. If, the citizens wish, they can, by a Democratic vote, at any time after a fair three year trial, have lounges closed. After all, statistics prove that only 5 percent of the total gallonage of alcoholic beverages is consumed in a licensed lounge.
